Coach Patsy Clark's Cornhuskers will be seeking their second conference victory Saturday when they travel to Boulder to meet Colorado University.

This year's tilt will be the seventh between the two elevens, and the first since 1907. Nebraska owns five of those victories and the Buffs hold one decision. The Cornhuskers first met Colorado in 1898 and came out on top, 23-10. The next contest was in 1902 with the Huskers again winning, 10-0. The Scarlet made it three in a row the following year with a 31-0 triumph and in 1904, Colorado gained their initial victory, 6-0. It was 18-0, Nebraska's favor, in 1905 and in 1907 the Nebraskans again won, 22-8.

Buff's Seek First Win.

The Colorado colors are silver and gold and Folsom stadium in Boulder holds 30,000 people.

Coach Dallas Ward's charges will be looking for their first win of the season against the Huskers. Opening against the New Mexico Lobos, the Buffs bowed 9-6 and last week Kansas U. romped to a 40-7 conference win.

The spark plug of the current Buff aggregation is fleet Harry Narcisian, junior back from Wheat Ridge, Colo. Narcisian is the fastest man on the squad and is a member of CU's track team.

Forward Wall Light.

Capt. Bob Spicer is expected to be one of the top contenders for one all-conference guard position. A three year letterman, Spicer is exceptionally fast for his 200 pounds. The center slot also is capably filled by Bill Simons, an ex-fullback, who shifted to the pivot post last year.

The Colorado line is light in weight and a critical shortage of reserve linemen gives the Husker forward wall a decided advantage.

Kansas Joins Huskers at Top

Kansas 40, Colorado 7. Iowa State 20, Kansas State 0. Missouri 60, St. Louis 7. Oklahoma 42, Texas A & M 14.

Kansas University' Jayhawks joined Nebraska at the top of the Big Seven Conference by butchering Colorado, 40-7 at Lawrence Saturday. This was the first conference tilt for both clubs.

After the initial quarter the Kansas eleven rolled almost at will. They had to overcome an early 7-0 deficit, but at halftime the winners held a comfortable 20-7 margin.

Iowa State regained its winning form with a 20-0 triumph over Kansas State at Manhattan. The loss extended the Wildcat's losing streak to 28 games. The Cyclones now have a conference record of one win and one loss.

Oklahoma rounded from last week's loss at the hands of Santa Clara in dramatic style. The Sooners humiliated Texas A & M, 42-14, in a non-conference affair.

Missouri's Tigers also regained prestige with a 60-7 slaughter of the St. Louis Billikens Friday night.

Second Round Tennis Meet Ends Sunday

One hundred eighteen men started play in the University's annual tennis singles championships over the week-end.

After the first two rounds of play were completed, using every available tennis court in the city of Lincoln, several favorites for the title stood out with victories scored in early matches.

Final rounds must be completed by Oct. 8.

Bill Barrett of Lincoln defeated Neal McClymonds 6-1, 6-0, and Jim Downey by the same score. Barrett will meet Don Finstrom who won two matches in downing John Schroeder 6-1, 6-1 and Bob Gardner 6-3, 6-2.

Bob McGee of Lincoln won from Dick Scotty in love sets and also from Bob Houston, only losing one game. McGee will next meet Bob Rogers who had won from Fateit 6-3, 6-2, and from Bill Sloan, 6-3, 3-6, 6-1.

Jim Larson will meet Mason Zerbe of Omaha, an earlier winner over Hank Peterson and Dick Farnsworth 6-1, 6-4. Bob Radin won from Dick Salander of Red Cloud 6-1, 6-0, and from Jerry Beck by the same score. Radin will next meet Pete Peters, an earlier winner over Raz Swanson 7-5, 6-1, and Severan Harrison 6-1, 6-2.

Bob Means won three matches with wins over Bob Reinecke, Tony Eisteter, and Bob Dawson, with all three matches going 6-0, 6-1. Jack Selzer won from Phil Butler 6-2, 6-0, and from Rex Andrews in a well played match 6-7, 6-1, 6-2.

Tom Brownlee won twice, first eliminating Del Olson 6-2, 6-0, and later Max Bacher, 6-1, 6-0. Kevin Moriarty won from Paul Kirkman losing only one game, then going on to win from Jerry Ewing without loss of a single game. Mendell Archer won from Neil Atkinson of Lincoln 6-1, 6-1, and from Ken Agnew 6-2, 6-2. Bud Herzart won from Jack McMahon 6-4, 6-2 and from Lee Magee by default.

Don McArthur, another journey favorite won from Wells O'Brien and George Hill, both 6-3, 6-0 and from Tom Chivers by the same score. Steve Farnberg, of Lincoln won from Tom Brower 6-1, 6-1, and from Don Christweel 1-6, 6-3, 6-0. Stan Thelander defeated Bill Campbell 6-2, 6-0, and from Lyle Hoffman by the same score.

Bill Henkle of Lincoln was another double winner over Doug Peters and Bill Beakley. Bob Partridge won from Clayton Anderson and M. L. Garber. Bob Rump won from Jerry Whelan by forfeit and then eliminated Bruce Beach 6-0, 3-0.

Favorite Jim Curran won three matches first from Gene Edwards, then from Tom Podhasky, and then from Tom Mickey, and lost but two games in the three matches. Curran will meet George Peter, an earlier winner over Jay Fritz, Clark Mueller, and Bruce Bergquist. Dick Agnew topped Bob Duis and Bill Munson and will meet a formidable foe in Bob Jensen, winner over Andy Buten, former singles champion from Cheyenne, Wyo. and Koolau Face.

After the first two rounds were completed team honors seem to be pointing toward one of three fraternities, each with five men still remaining. They are Beta Theta Pi, last year's champions; Sigma Alpha Epsilon, and Phi Delta Theta.

Weir Calls Track Men

Coach Ed Weier has issued a call for all track men, freshmen and varsity, to report for physicals Tuesday, Oct. 5, at 2 p. m. at the field house. This call includes all men who plan to compete during the 1948-49 year.

The call has been delayed because of the heavy football turnout. In case a night of studying is on tap, bring your books along and study while waiting. By taking physicals now while the doctors are there, candidates will avoid delays in checking out later on.

The varsity two-milers will open their fall schedule Saturday at Boulder just prior to the Nebraska-Colorado game. Final try-outs for the trip are to be held Wednesday afternoon. Three reliable veterans are missing. Don Morrison, a senior, is recovering from a second operation. Stan Martin, also a senior, decided at the last moment to teach school. Esref Ahydin, the "Flying Turk" will be ineligible until second semester.

The loss of these standbys will leave the load to Harold Kopf, whose leg is coming around in good shape; Bill Mountford, high school standout, and holder of the state high school mile record with a 4:26.2 effort; Don Theil, and several other prospects.

IM Touch Football Teams Score Easy Victories

Sigma Phi Epsilon pulled an upset in intramural touch football play Monday night as they dumped Sigma Chi, 18-0, on the mall by the Coliseum. Kappa Sigs tripped TKE, 12-0.

In the other contest, the Pioneer Co-op won a forfeit from Delta Sigma Phi.

Out at Ag College Monday, Acacia forfeited their game to Delta Tau Delta, while the Ag Men's Social Club took a 6-0 count over Newman Club.

On the first play of the game Coffman intercepted a Newman pass and rolled to pay territory.

Beta Theta Pi scored its third victory in league play Monday afternoon as they took the Brown Palace by a 6-0 count.

Rolly Emmel caught a touch-down pass during the second period play to put the Beta's into a lead they never lost. The Brown Palace threatened only once when the passed to the Beta 15-yard line late in the third period. Three incomplete passes by the Brown Palace gave the Beta's the ball which they kept in Brown Palace territory for the rest of the game.
