

Huskers...

sion dropped back to his own 40 and slid a beautiful pass into the waiting arms of Strobel who was standing near the ten. It was Narcission again as he cracked through the Husker forward wall to the four. Narcission carried again but muddled the ball. He managed to recover and was tackled by Ralph Damkroger. Colorado gained two more yards around end with Narcission again carrying the ball. With fourth down and less than two yards for a touchdown Narcission again tried to crack the line but a stubborn Husker forward wall held.

The first quarter was mostly Colorado as the Buffs kept Nebraska deep in their own territory. Colorado scored their first marker on a luck break in the second quarter Cletus Fischer fumbled on his own 19 yard line and Colorado recovered. Harry Narcission dropped back as if to pass but instead ran to the five yard line of Nebraska. Miller was almost caught back on his own ten but the Buff back managed to work his way to the three where he was tackled by Del Wiegand. Hagen went right through the Nebraska line and when the players unscrambled Colorado was leading 6-0. Evan's try for extra point was no good.

Huskers Foul Again

In the dying minutes of the first half Harry Narcission taking all the time in the world dropped back to his own 45 yard line and rifled a pass to Johnny Zisch who caught the ball on the ten yard stripe and scored standing up. It was another example of Husker sluggishness. The Scarlet was letting Colorado players in behind their pass defense.

Although Nebraska never really threatened to score in the final half the Golden Buffaloes attempted a placement in the early minutes of the fourth quarter. The kick was no good and Nebraska took over on their own 12 yard line.

Gerry Ferguson carried to the 28 and Junior Collopy managed a one yard gain. Bill Mueller carried around the end to the 45 yard stripe. Ferguson fumbled and Colorado recovered.

Buff's Score

It was Narcission again as the fleet back carried to the Nebraska 20 yard line. Narcission hit right guard for a four yard gain. The Buff halfback scored a beautiful touchdown as he reversed his field faked off several would be Husker tacklers and scored the final Colorado touchdown making the scoreboard read Colorado 19, Nebraska 6.

BIG JIM MARTIN, holdover end, will be one of the obstacles in the path of the Cornhuskers when they face Notre Dame this Saturday afternoon.

Nebraska Plays Host to Irishmen

Nebraska will play host to the University of Notre Dame this Saturday at Lincoln.

Looking at the records Nebraska has beaten Notre Dame five times in 12 years and tied the Irish once in 1918. The Huskers have always been a jinx in the path of the Irish. They downed Knute Rockne's 1922 and 1923 teams by scores of 14-6, 14-7. Those were the years of the famous Four Horsemen, Harry Stuhldreher, Elmer Layden, Jim Crowley, and Don Miller.

In their first two years of varsity play for Notre Dame the Four Horsemen scored touchdowns after touchdown against opponents and piled up win after win. Then came the Nebraska game and the Irish were stopped cold. In both years the Cornhusker victory was the only one to mar an otherwise clean Notre Dame slate.

Meet First In 1915.

The first meeting of the two teams took place in 1915 and Nebraska manager a 20-19 victory over the men from South Bend. A 7-0 victory was racked up in 1917. The last Husker win was in 1925 when the Huskers blanked the Irish, 17-0.

Nothing is impossible in football and Coach Patsy Clark's Huskers could put the old hex on Notre Dame this week-end. The Irish have been undefeated for two years and Nebraska could do the same thing it did in seasons gone by with the Gold and Blue—beat them.

Leahy Discusses Irish.

In speaking of his own team, Coach Leahy says: "Leon Hart and Jim Martin are dependable and experienced performers at end; we are very weak at tackle, the first four having graduated; Capt. Bill Fischer and Marty Wendell are good lads to have available at the guard positions, but an injury to either could be very serious."

Bill Walsh and Walt Grothaus have experience at center; Frank

Tripucka has had a long grooming period for the quarterback job and we hope he is ready; Terry Brennan and Ernie Zalejski are questionable products at left half because of knee injuries and Coy McGee is too small for steady work; Emil Sitko is a consistent ground gainer at right half but not a breakaway runner.

Fullback John Panelli has a questionable knee while Mike Swistowicz never seems to perform in the fall as he does in spring practice.

Leahy goes on to say that if he can find two dependable tackle replacements, if injuries are at a minimum, if Zalejski, Brennan and Panelli recover from their knee injuries and Tripucka comes through at the quarterback slot Notre Dame will have a good team. Which simply means that Mr. Leahy wants to cry because he lost three All-Americans and may win only "two or three games this year."

THE BIG SEVEN SCHEDULE.

Nebraska vs. Notre Dame.
Kansas vs. George Washington.
Colorado vs. Iowa State.
Missouri vs. Navy.
Kansas State vs. Oklahoma.

Mr. Paul Gilbert will talk on the fishing situation in Nebraska on Monday, Oct. 11 at 1 p.m. in Room 108, Physical Education building. B. R. Patterson, instructor in bait and fly casting, extends an invitation to all interested persons.

Dean Lueth will speak at a meeting of the Nu-Meds 7:30 p.m. Wednesday Oct. 13 in Love Memorial auditorium. All pre-med students are invited.

Benchwarmer

That old money grabber, the parlay, seems to still be scooping off the suckers' money come Friday and Saturday around the Nebraska campus.

Even though every one from Deans to prominent football players have come out against parlays and even though they are a sure thing to lose many a Husker fan will shell out a buck or two and hope his team wins by a certain number of points. Then if his team wins all that has to happen is have four other teams do the same thing. Of course this is only likely to happen in one out of every two or three thousand cases.

Football is still a collegiate sport, at least on our campus. In every other sport in the United States the bookies and "sure thing boys" get their take without putting one thing out for the sport. In the last few years even the great gridiron sport has succumbed to the wishes of a few.

Many people will stop and think this week, but for all those that do there will be ten that don't and thereby place their business in the hands of the bookie. Let's not have football dragged through the mud as the Chicago baseball team was several years ago. Football may not have a Babe Ruth to save it.

Psi Chi

All Psi Chi members and associate members are urged to attend an organizational meeting for this school year at 5 p. m. Monday, Oct. 11, in Room 218 Social Science building.

Kosmet Klub

There will be an important meeting for all Kosmet Klub workers at 5 p. m. Monday, Oct. 11 in the Kosmet Klub room. All workers are requested to be there.

All men who intend to participate in any varsity sport and who are transfers from another university, college, or junior college must see Coach "Pop" Klein at once.

Under Big Seven rules no competition is charged against a man having one year of junior college competition but he needs one year residence to be eligible. Two years of junior college allows a man to be eligible at once if he is a graduate.
