one yard line. Frank Collopy jr. galloped across for the lone marker on another line buck. Bobby Costello's try for extra point was good.

The third quarter ended with Kansas leading 13-7. Junior Collopy's punting and running were bright spots in the Husker offense. Collopy was driving for all he was worth on line plays. Kenny Fischer's play also stood out in the Nebraska backfield. Fischer's passing was good although at times erratic.

Kansas' other touchdowns were made in the third and fourth quarters.

The third period had hardly begun when Dick Gilman tossed a long heave to Bud French for pay dirt. French took the pass on the Nebraska 25 where Junior Collopy caught him but couldn't hold on. The play covered 40 yards.

Norris Blocks Kick

The third Kansas marker came as a result of a blocked kick by Darrell Norris and a recovery by Byron Sperry on the Husker 16 yard line. Moffett took the ball to the one and Forest Griffith rammed over.

Kansas had possession of the ball as the fourth quarter started. Dick Gilman's pass intended for McDonald was incomplete but the referee ruled interference by Nebraska. Gilman passed to Sperry for a gain of eight yards bringing the ball to the Nebr. 48. Griffith hit the line for a first down and once more Gilman dropped back and shot a pass to Darrell Norris who romped across the husker goal line. Sperry's kick was good.

Nebraska Outdowns KU

Nebraska managed to make more first downs than Kansas but the difference was Gilman's pitching. The Kansas passer completed six out of 18 forwards and all of them aided the touchdown department.

Patsy Clark's squad played a much better game here in the Lawrence stadium than statistics will show. The Huskers were playing good football but Kansas was the better team. The loss of Cletus Fischer and Tom Novak in the initial half may have been the reason for the Husker collapse. The two sparked the playing in the first and second quarters.

Utility of form is a concept which one "Ec" instructor has no trouble in making clear. It means the changing of something from an unusable to a usable form. He concludes, "That's what the girde industry does."

Fly Casting Tournery Opens

Any student or faculty member may enter the Intramural bait and fly casting tournament, Oct. 31, from 2 to 4 p.m.

This unusual event will take place at Oak Lake park, North 10th street. No official entry is needed, and there are no experts.

Each entrant is asked to bring his own bait and fly rods, reels and line. However, the department of Physical Education will furnish equipment for those who have none.

The following prizes will be awarded: winner first place, men, new fly tying kit; faculty champion, new fly rod; winner second place, men, fly tying kit; winner third place, men, two casting plugs; winner fourth place, men, official U of N sweat shirt; woman champion, new fly reel; second place, women, two casting plugs; third place, women, surprise award.

Benchwarmer

The Nebraska campus has been the scene of agitation about seating space at football games all semester. After tortuous months of deep thought, we have come up with another hair-brained scheme which will probably set the world on fire.

As the ticket demand far overreaches the supply, this corner can't see why the university doesn't close the south end of the stadium into the horseshoe as originally planned. Of course, there is a money factor, but we have heard that good ol' A. J. is wading knee-deep in the greenbacks in his Coliseum office.

Patsy Clark's rebuilding program is, according to report, going to produce some fine teams in the next few years, teams which could draw well over the 35,000 (approximate) capacity the stadium can now support. The cost of constructing this addition would probably be paid back to the university coffers in a few years, it seems.

With the closing of the south end, the beauty of the stadium will be greatly enhanced. No longer will fans be able to see the ugly facades of the Mechanic Arts building and the Electrical Engineering building above the equally ugly board fence which now surrounds the varsity practice field.

The new stadium would be one of the most beautiful in the country if this plan were to be carried through. The addition would complete a highly efficient and handsome athletic plant, already the biggest and best in the conference and among the top of the nation. If Nebraska is going to return to the Big Time in football, it should have the stadium to go with it.

How about it, NU?

IM Football Playoffs To Begin This Week

Intramural touch football play moves into the play-off stage this week. With the winners and second place teams decided in three leagues, the play-offs get under way Monday at Peter Pan park.

In League I the ATO gridders copped first place with five wins and no setbacks. Second place is still undecided

Turkey Race Tops Week's IM Program

The 1948 annual turkey race will be held Thursday, Oct. 28. Starting time for the event will be 4:30 p.m. The race will start from the front stadium steps.

This year the course is one mile long. Starting from the stadium steps the runners will go to the other end of the mall and turn left down 14th Street. They will proceed down 14th to Avery Avenue and turn left and continue around the practice field and go through the gate behind the field house onto the practice field and then to the other end of the field.

Eligibility Rules.

Any man enrolled in the university who is not a track letterman and is not now on the two-mile squad is eligible to compete. Each contestant must furnish his own costume.

Contestants must wear numbers pinned on the front of their chests as assigned. All intramural managers must call for all their numbers on Wednesday, Oct. 27, at 102 P. E. building. Managers are responsible in seeing that all numbers are properly pinned on each man.

All organizations must have at least six men finish the race to qualify for team participation. Any number of men may compete from each organization. All groups having ten or more entries are given a bonus of five Jack best points. All entries are due Tuesday, Oct. 26.

The winning fraternity will be given a trophy and the interdenominational winner will be given a trophy. The individual champion will win a turkey and a medal. Last place wins an egg.

First 32 Given Points.

Points will be given to the first 32 places starting from 32 on down.

All participants should arrange to practice and condition themselves. Any contestant in doubt about his physical ability to run the distance should call at the student health center for examination.

If any contestant does not go the entire distance his team loses all points for team placing.

In the Friday, Oct. 22, issue of The Daily Nebraskan, the story concerning the Union Halloween dance to be held next weekend stated that free refreshments would be served as prizes. The Daily Nebraskan wishes to retract this statement since it has been informed that free refreshments will not be served.

as three teams—Sigma Phi Epsilon, Zeta Beta Tau, and Sigma Chi—have games remaining. The Sig Chis meet the ZBT's in a postponed tilt Monday on the West mall. The winner then plays the Sig Eps for runnerup position.

League II finds three teams at the top. Phi Delta Theta, Delta Tau Delta and Beta Sigma Psi all boast 4-1 records. In a meeting of the three, it was decided that, by coin flip, Beta Sigma Psi won second place and Tuesday's game between Phi Deltas and the Deltas would decide the winner in that league. The loser will not get into the playoffs.

Beta Theta Pi and Sigma Nu placed first and second in League III.

Kappa Sigma took League IV laurels and second place will be decided between the DU's, Sig Alphas and Theta Xi. Theta Xi and SAE meet Monday at Peter Pan and the winner tangles with Delta Upsilon for second place.

Inter-Varsity and Lilies took first place honors in Leagues V and VI respectively with Ag Social Club and Geology ending in the two second spots.

Another playoff contest Monday will pit the ATO's against the Sigma Nu's.

Monday's grid schedule is as follows: Ag No. 1—Ag Social Club vs. Dorm B. Ag No. 2—Cornhusker Coop vs. Sigma Alpha Mu. East Mall—Pioneer Coop vs. Phi Kappa Psi. West Mall—Sigma Chi vs. Zeta Beta Tau.

Playoff contests at Peter Pan: No. 1—Sigma Nu vs. Alpha Tau Omega. No. 2—Theta Xi vs. Sigma Alpha Epsilon.
