School Spirit to Reign

Rally to Set Off Republicans Weekend Spree List Agents

Thousands of rallying students will begin Homecoming For Houses festivities tonight at 7:30. The rally will start at the Union where Cheerleaders, Corn Cobs, Tassels and the University Band will meet.

The victory bell will lead the rally through fraternity and sorority row to Vine street and then over to the west side of the Coliseum where Corn Cobs will take over in what Cob leaders call the most spectacular University band. rally ever attempted on the UN

Rally to Include Bonfire.

into the air along with a gigantic display of other types of a big black cat. fireworks.

During the rally names of the five Homecoming Queen candidates will be announced by the Tassles. Students will vote for the music of Elliot Lawrence, one their choice for Homecoming of the top bands in the nation. Queen after the rally in either The Homecoming dance will be-the Union or the Coliseum where gin at 8:30 p. m. in the Coliseum. special voting booths will be set up. Students must present I. D. any Corn Cob or Tassel for $3. Featured with Lawrence's band in downtown Lincoln. The parade route will cover O street from 15th to 11th. Thirty-two organdivisions.

Cobs Slate Float Parade.

pacity as the Cornhuskers take the winners of the float parade. the field against the Bruins from UCAA. Before the game the In-noents have planned the annual have been invited by the Alumni and freshmen. One sophomore in the Union after the game. and one freshman will participate from each house.

1947 Queen to Reign at Game. Last year's Homecoming Queen,

Saturday, Nov. 16. Previews Good

sentations this year is up to par with the best shows on record," commented Gale Erlewine, manager of the sponsoring group.

"The skits show good organization and originality, and that's what we're looking for this year.'

acts are on tap for the show this emony in conjunction with the Chills will run up and down the spines of UCLA rooters when the band present their halftime show. A Hallowe'en theme will be e rally will include a huge carried out by formations of a bonnire that will flare 60 feet huge pumpkin, a ghost, an eerie bat with outstretched wings and

Lawrence to Play for Dance.

Saturday night students will have an opportunity to dance to will be Jack Hunter and Rosalind Saturday morning the Cobs have slated the annual float parade that will steal the limelight in downtown Lincoln. The parade that will steal the limelight ronome" magazines.

Dance to Feature Presentation

Spearheading the series of izations have entered floats. Three events during the intermission will faculty judges will decide the be the presentation of the new winner in the men's and women's Homecoming Queen. Results of the judging of the house decora-Saturday afternoon the Memo-rial stadium will be packed to ca-during the intermission along with

Students are not the only ones

Pep Groups Plan Week-end,

Homecoming is an event in which every student will want to participate. Pep groups have ois Gillett, will be presented planned enough activity to make ging the half at the game. Cobs this the biggest Homecoming the and Tassels have planned the cer- University has ever had. The ul-

> Plaque to Winner The winner in the skit compeplaque which was put into cir culation two years ago. Curtain act supremacy will carry a $10 cash prize. Farm House and the YMCA won the respective divi-

Other members of the Collson, Connie Crosbie, Neal Baxsions last year.

The "Paul Revere Ride," spon-sored by the Republicans, will be held Monday instead of Friday as was announced in yesterday's Daily Nebraskan.

Ride to Begin at 15th and N The ride will begin at 15th and N streets at 4 p. m., Bill Wenke, committee chairman, said Thursday. An informal party at Cotner Terrace will begin after the two

A booth in the Union will enable independent students to sign up for the ride. Affiliated students may contact represen-tatives in their houses if they wish to attend this "Paul Revere

Representatives Listed

Representatives Listed
Reperentatives in the sororities and fraternities are:
Alpha Chi Omega—Carol Cherny.
Alpha Chi Omega—Carol Cherny.
Alpha Chi Omega—Cherie Whitman.
Alpha Ril—Jan Schweser.
Alpha Ki Delta—Joan Delamatre.
Chi Omega—Cherie Viele.
Delta Delta Delta—Jane McArthur.
Delta Gamma—Mimi Smith.
Gamma Phi Beta—Dorothy Kent.
Kappa Alpha Theta—Janne Ketzler.
Kappa Alpha Theta—Janne Ketzler.
Kappa Alpha Theta—Janne Ketzler.
Kappa Alpha Theta—Janne Ketzler.
Kappa Kappa Gamma—Nancy Sayre.
Pi Beta Phi—Genene Mitchell.
Sigma Kappa—Etaine Krause.
Alpha Gamma Rho—Don Clement.
Alpha Gamma Rho—Don Clement.
Alpha Tau Omega—Dick Berkheimer.
Beta Theta Pi—Bill Bock.
Delta Tau Delta—Churles Pedersen.
Delta Tau Delta—Churles Pedersen.
Delta Upsilon—Skip Slahl.
Kappa Sigma—Jerry Druliner.
Phi Delta Theta—Tom Brownies.
Phi Gamma Delta—Barney J. Heeney.
Phi Kappa Psi—Walt Metz.
Sigma Alpha Epsilon—Bill Berquist.
Sigma Alpha Mu—Sid Rubin.
Sigma Chi—Bill Lyon.
Sigma Nu—Lynn Hutton.
Sigma Nu—Lynn Hutton.
Sigma Nu—Lynn Hutton.
Sigma Phi Epsilon—Bob Metrakos.
Theta Xi—George Shantz.
Zeta Beta Tau—Paul Weltchek, Farm House—Don Wiggins.

timate goal is to BEAT the A summary of week-end events is as follows: S als 10110WS;

Rally, Friday, 7:30 p.m.
Float parade, Saturday, 10:30 a.m.
Game, Saturday, 2 p.m.
Alum coffee hour, Saturday, after game,
Dance, Saturday, 5:30 p.m.

Dog's Life

Seen on campus: A small brown mongrel standing outside the Temple between classes, wagging his tail frantically and searching for a friendly face.

POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT.

Re-Elect

Congressman

Republican

(Published by Carl T. Curtis)

KK Names Eight

Nov. 12 in the Coliseum were Kappa Epsilon. All skits must be selected by the Kosmet Klub Wednesday night. The fraternities which qualified were: Zeta Beta Tau, Sigma Phi Epsilon, Kappa Sigma, Alpha Tau Spirit Line All N Club members meet at the north side of the East stadium at 1:45 p. m. Satur-day to form the "Spirit Line."

Faculty Recital To Give Varied Entertainment

A varied program of instru-mental and vocal music is planned for the next presentation in the recital series to be given by faculty members of the university school of fine arts. This Sunday's concert will be presented in the Union ballroom at

Donald Lentz, flutist, Emanuel Wishnow, violinist, and Earnest Harrison, pianist, will open the program with the Bach Sonata from "The Musical Offering."

David Foltz, baritone will sing three selections, accompanied by Houghten Furr, and Mr. Lentz and Mr. Wishnow will each play three solos. Their accompanist will be Mr. Harrison.

The complete program is as follows:

Sonata from "The Musical Offering",
Largo, Allegro, Andante, Allegro—Mr.
Lentz, Mr. Wishnow, Mr. Harrison.
O Del Mio Amato Ben, Donaudy;
Orpheus with His Lute, Schumann; Evening Song, Oimstead—Mr. Foltz, Mr.
Furr.

Furr.

Ballade, Gaubert; Serenade, Hue; Melic,
Lents—Mr. Lentz(Mr. Harrison,
Siavonic Dance in G Minor, DvorakKreisler; Minstrels, Debussy; Zapateado, Sarasate—Mr. Wishnow, Mr. Harrison.

"Seventeen's for me." says campus queen

Campus queens depend on Seventeen Cosmetics for that natural look men look for. Follow their lead. For makeup, for skin care, choose Seventeen Cosmetics. Remember they are free as possible of allergy-causing ingredients. All Seventeen Cosmetics are priced to fit easily into campus budgets.

SEVENTEEN COSMETICS

on sale at leading department stores

Eight skits which will be pre- Ombega, Beta Theta Pi, Phi Kappa sented in the Kosmet Klub show Psi, Beta Sigma Psi and Tau submitted in printed form to the Kosmet Klub president, Nobby Tiemann, before Nov. 10.

Rehearsal Scheduled

The first rehearsal will be held at the Coliseum Nov. 10 at 7 p. m. The following night, Nov. 11, there will be a dress rehearsal for all the skits.

Last year Phi Gamma Delta won first place with a take-off on Cleopatra and her suitors, Mark Anthony and Julius Caesar.. Delta Upsilon took second place, while Beta Theta Pi took third place.

KK Sponsors Show

Founded in 1911, the Kosmet Klub has sponsored a fall review of skits of organized houses since 1928. Although originally sororities were eligible to compete in skit competition, the fall review is now exclusively a male project.

It was also announced that all

Prince Kosmet and Nebraska Sweetheart candidates must be submitted before the deadline Nov. 2. These entries can be turned in or sent to he Kosmet Klub room in the Union,

K K WORKERS. All Kosmet Klub workers who wish to check out tickets see Bill Schenck between 3 and 4 p. m. Friday, Oct. 29 in Room 307 of the Union.

TONIGHT IS COLLEGE NIGHT RALLY DANCE

The Gay Mite Spot

INFORMA

Wear your rally clothes if you wish COUPLES ONLY

Adm. $1.50 Per Couple Tax Included

OPEN ALL WINTER

year. Skits are limited to ten ter and Phil Keeney.

Seven skits and five curtain Agri-Fun board are Ruth Swan-

Preliminaries Complete as Ag

Final preliminary performances minutes and curtain acts to five of Coll-Agri-Fun skits and cur- minute performances. "Entrants tain acts will be run off Thurs-day night in the College Activi-ties building. The Ag college amateur night is scheduled for they run overtime."

"Wednesday night previews indicated that the quality of pre-

Prepares for Coll-Agri-Fun

HOMESTEAD DRIVE IN

421 NORTH 48th St.

Chicken and french fries in a bag in your car or served inside at a table or the counter.

Friday-Oysters and Shrimp

Also, chili and regular sandwich and fountain service.