NU Grid Team Hopes for Win

Coach Burt LaBrucherie will bring his Uclans on field at Memorial Stadium Saturday

UN Students Have Busy Week In IM Sports and Recreation

This week has been a busy one at the University of Nebraska in sports and recreation for hundreds of men on the campus.

In addition to varsity, reserve, and freshman football and the featured Homecoming game with UCLA, and the unsung work of the varsity two-mile squad, hundreds of other men have been extremely active in all kinds of seasonal sports.

The Department of Intramural sports this week conducted the annual Cross Country Turkey Race with over 400 men competing.

The tennis singles tournament entered the finals with two Lincoln men ready to fight it out for the title in Don McArthur and Bob McGehee. Bob Means and Jim Curran will play for third and fourth place, from a starting field of 145 men.

Six bowling leagues of 48 teams scheduled to start regular play next week.

The campus church groups concluded their basketball free throw tourney yesterday with Rex Knowles of the Presbyterians winning individual honors and the Newman Club declared team champions.

Monday some 50 volleyball teams will start practice and regular season play which will continue until the basketball season claims the spotlight.

In the meantime some 35 table tennis teams continued regular league play in the coliseum, and 48 tough football teams emerged into the final playoff series of games which culminates a series of league games that started in September.

Potsy Clark's Husker eleven, minus a few injured players, continued their preparation for the Homecoming tilt against UCLA Saturday.

The Huskers spent almost an entire hour on pass defense with Coach Dougal Russell and Ray Prochaska sending the backfields through their paces.

Varsity Changes Field

The varsity squad was using the frosh practice field after turning over their own field to Coach Bert LaBrucherie and his Uclans.

LaBrucherie's Bruins arrived in Lincoln Thursday afternoon and continued with their practice sessions behind locked doors.

So far it is doubtful who the UCLA mentor will start at several positions. He was alternating Don Hunt and Darrell Riggs at the left end position and Les Steiner and John Mikevich at guard.

In the backfield he had Ray Nagel and Larry Lampkin running at quarterback while Hal Braly and Art Steffen shared the full-back slot.

Collopy to Start

The Nebraska first string combination consisting of Junior Collopy, Gerald Ferguson, Bill Mueller and Phil Young were looking very good on pass defense.

Most of the parlay boys are being very cautious this week. Some of the smart boys are giving the Huskers even odds while others are adding six points.

However, the dopesters have it figured, the Huskers seem to be at top form for this one, regardless of injuries sustained by Tom Novak and Cletus Fischer.

Huskers Might Win

Spirit is very high on the Nebraska squad and the boys seem to be determined to win this one for Potsy. The Cornhusker coach went out on the limb several days ago and predicted a Nebraska victory in the Homecoming clash.

Coach Bert LaBrucherie is also determined to snap a three-game losing streak, the longest in his four-year regime at UCLA.

This week's game figures to be an even-steven proposition, with both clubs having dropped four games.

Bruins Good on Defense

LaBrucherie thought his charges played pretty good defensive ball for the most part, but the Bruins sorely missed the services on offense of Halfbacks Ernie Johnson and Gene Rowland and Fullback Art Steffen.

Johnson is expected to be ready to go against the Huskers. His presence could help snap the Uclans out of their bad slump. Steffen's rib injury has been coming along all right and he may be in the starting lineup. Gene Rowland is out for the season. His knee was operated on last week.

Thirty-Seven Make Trip

LaBrucherie brought 37 players along for the trip. Ernie Johnson and Art Steffen are the leading scorers for the Uclans with 18 points. Johnson has an average of five yards per try in rushing while Steffen holds a four yard advantage. Willis Duffy, 176-pound left half, has been averaging six yards every time he carries the ball.

Probable Starting Lineup

Nebraska	UCLA
Dankroger	Hunt
Toogood	Strochtein
Salestrom	Easton
Contello	McLaughlin
Means	Steiner
Godfrey	Pastre
Macrumen	Clements
Collopy	Nagel
Ferguson	Duffy
Mueller	Hansen
Young	Braly

BLUEPRINT FOR HOMECOMING . . . Systematic Sigma Kappas . . . they've got a blue-print for their Homecoming decorations! Mike Madden (the guy with the saw and stalwart Magee College committeeman) and Innocent Walt Dorothy give neighborly aid to Jean Fenster and Jane Montgomery. While we can't guarantee Homecoming honors, we will guarantee that these fellas and gals will gain campus clothing honors in their plaid shirts. Why? 'Cause the shirts come from Magee's . . . where else! And, Magee's extends the glad hand to all alums and collegians on Homecoming!

NOTICE TO STUDENT DRIVERS

Students with cars are urged not to use the parking lot reserved for scooters and visitors. Those with scooters or motorcycles are asked to use this lot and not to park in various spaces around the campus.

This parking area, reserved for visitors and scooters, is located on the northwest corner of the mall just across the street north of the Social Sciences building.

Break for Bernie

Last year may have been tough for Football Coach Bernie Masterson, but at least Nebraska students had more "gumption" than to display a "goodbye Bernie" sign.
