ATO's Cop Turkey Race, Phi Psi's Place Second

Lee Moore, Alpha Tau Omega, won the annual Intramural Cross-Country "Turkey Trot" race Thursday afternoon. Moore's first place win, coupled with Leonard Kehl's fourth place finish and Jim Perry's seventh position, enabled the ATO's to take the team trophy with 97 points. Twenty-six men were entered on the Tau squad. Moore received a live turkey and an intramural medal for his winning efforts. Eugene Robinson of the Field House came in second and took home a goose as his prize. Bob Shuler of the Presbyterian Student House finished third and was awarded a duck. Three hundred and thirty-three men finished in front of Willie Jensen, Sigma Chi, who came in last. Jensen became the possessor of an egg, the last place prize. Phi Kappa Psi was runnerup to Alpha Tau Omega in the team scoring with 51 points, nosing out third-place Alpha Gamma Rho by one point. The Inter-denominational results will be announced later. The first 13 place winners:

1. Lee Moore, ATO.
2. Gene Robinson, FH.
