

Light Comedy to Headline 3 One-Act Plays Tonight

At 7:15 this evening, the university Experimental Theatre players will present a program of three one-act productions in Room 201 of the Temple. Admission is free.

An interesting item about Experimental Theatre shows is the extensive use of students in all phases of production. Tonight, students will handle everything from direction to lighting.

Katz Directs

Abe Katz, who also directed Jean Paul Sartre's "No Exit," commented on why the plays were considered "experimental."

"No Exit," stated Katz, "is the first Sartre play to be produced on university stages. It has been acclaimed ideal for experimental theatre work because of its intricacy, through lighting, staging, and musical background, and its challenging demands for special character roles. "No Exit" offers a stirring, tense, mental conception of hell."

The cast includes Gay Marr, D. Ann Richardson, Gladys Jackson, and Jack MacDonald.

Katz then compared "No Exit"

Missionary Gives Lecture on China

Frank Harris, graduate of the University of London and missionary to China during the last seven years, spoke to the Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. in Room 313 of the Union. His topic concerned Chinese customs as they illuminate the Bible.

Traveling under the auspices of the North American I.V.C.F., Harris has taught at the University of Szechwan, China's largest university, for the last three years. He arrived in the United States in August and will leave for London Dec. 1.

Vesper Group To Hear Ferrell Talk Thursday

Vesper Services will be held Thursday at 5 p. m. in the University Episcopal church. Miss Lexie M. Ferrell will be the speaker. Assisting Miss Ferrell will be student leader Gwen McCormick.

Several noted speakers have been scheduled for the services in the future. On Nov. 18, Dwight Dell, director of the Nebraska Goodwill train and director of the Nebraska CROP, will speak on "The Bread of Life."

Rev. Carroll H. Lemon, executive secretary of the Nebraska Council of Churches, will talk Dec. 2 on "Coming Our Way." This will be the first of a series of talks on Christmas.

"The Way of the Prince of Peace," will be the topic of Willard Gaeddert on Dec. 9.

Vespers will observe Christmas on Dec. 16 with the reading of the Christmas story by Marguerite Nootz and Stanley Copley, and with the singing of Christmas carols.

to James M. Barrie's "The Twelve Pound Look," directed by Margaret Dutton.

"The Twelve Pound Look," said Katz, "is almost exactly opposite in mood. It is a comedy in a light vein.

Cast Announced

The cast of "The Twelve Pound Look" includes Tom Stimfig, Sharon Fritzer, Dean Welles, and Marilyn Morgan.

The final presentation of the evening will be the George F. Kaufman farce, "If Men Played Cards as Women Do," directed by Margaret Dutton.

In the cast are Michael Shanahan, Al Borchman, Don Veta, and Sandy Levy.
