

Haiti Bishop To Address Church Meet

The Rt. Rev. C. Alfred Voegeli, Episcopal bishop of Haiti, will speak at a mass missionary service at the University Episcopal church Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. The Rev. G. Paul Musselman, director of Mariners mission, Detroit, Mich., will also speak. Choirs of Holy Trinity, St. Matthew's and the University church will sing. A reception will be held in the Canterbury club room after the service.

Rt. Rev. Voegeli

Besides being Episcopal bishop missionary of the district of Haiti, the Rev. Voegeli was dean of the Cathedral of St. Luke, Panama Canal zone. He was ordained to the deaconate and priesthood at St. Peter's church, Morristown, N. J., and consecrated to the episcopate in 1943. A graduate of Upsala College, New Jersey law school and General Theological seminary, he speaks French fluently and is of Swiss descent.

Religion in Life Week

Book of the Day
The Task of the Christian in the University by A. J. Coleman. The book discusses the significant questions arising in the relation of teaching, learning and the common life of the university to the Christian Faith. The author's intelligent approach will prove helpful to the student and professor today. Book table—Union, first floor.

Vol. 49—No. 43 Lincoln 8, Nebraska, Wednesday, Nov. 10, 1948

Student Foundation Plans Second Mass Meeting

All Student Foundation members will meet Wednesday in their second mass meeting of the year. Coach "Potsy" Clark will be the guest of the evening.

Elaine Krause, general chairman of the meeting, announced that the theme of the evening's festivities will be "Spirit." That will be the subject of Coach Clark's message.

The mass meeting will be held in the Union ballroom Wednesday, Nov. 10, beginning at 7:30 p. m. Refreshments will include cokes and popcorn.

All new and old members of the Foundation, including the approximately 150 girls who signed up this fall at the Activities Mart, are expected to attend the meeting. Students who would like to become active members of the service organization are also invited to attend, said Miss Krause.

The first mass meeting of the Foundation introduced the new reorganization plan to members. It was held early in October. Mass meetings are held by the group about six times a year. At these gatherings, projects, plans, and purposes are presented to all members. Special entertainments are also held at each mass meeting.

Ag Y Sponsors Chili Supper

"Mexico" will be the theme for the Ag college YM-YW chili supper to be held in the College Activities building Friday, Nov. 12.

The supper will start at 6 p. m. and the entertainment following will last until 10:30 p. m. The program will include musical selections and a talent show. After the program the group will participate in musical games and dancing, according to Mary Frances Johnson, conference chairman.

Tickets are fifty cents and can be purchased from any Ag YM or YW cabinet member or they may be secured from the YM or YW office.

Mary Frances Johnson, conference chairman is in charge of the supper and will be assisted by Marilyn Boettger.

Vespers Observe Armistice Day

All-University Vespers will present a service directed meditation and music Nov. 11 at 5 p. m. The service will commemorate Armistice Day.

The program will include choral music by the Vespers choir and a solo "Let There Be Peace" by Nanci Harrison. Music will be followed by scripture and silent worship.

Vespers will constitute the official university observance of Armistice Day.

Religion in Life Week

Wednesday's Activity Calendar
7 a. m. Breakfast conference for speakers and workers

11 a. m. Convocation - "Land of the Free?" Love library auditorium, Dr. Everton

12 - Faculty luncheon, Union XYZ, Dr. Paul Harrison, "The Place of the University in our Present World."

2-4 p. m. Personal conferences
Dr. Everton, 101 Temple; Dr. Harrison, 22A Temple

4 p. m. Discussion period on topic of morning convocation, Faculty Lounge.

6 p. m. Dinner visits at organized houses.

7:30 p. m. Bull session on "Lost and Found—Personal Ethics," Union XYZ.

8:15 p. m. Huskerville convocation, Chapel, "Nebraska Aboard," Dr. Harrison.

Two Speakers Scheduled Today

Harrison, Everton Talk At Religion Meetings

Two guest speakers, Dr. Paul Harrison and Dr. John Scott Everton, will participate in Religion in Life meetings today.

Harrison, eminent surgeon and medical missionary from Muscat, Eastern Arabia, will be the speaker at the Faculty Luncheon today at 12 noon, in Union Parlors XYZ.

Dr. Harrison will speak to the faculty on "The Place of the University in our Present World." Following his lecture, he will hold personal conferences with students and faculty in Room 22 A of the Temple building. At 8:15 tonight, Dr. Harrison will be speaker at the Huskerville Chapel, the topic of his lecture being, "Nebraska Aboard."

Harrison Graduated Here

A graduate of the University, Dr. Harrison entered Johns Hopkins Medical school where he decided to be a medical missionary. He left the United States in 1910 for Muscat, not returning to America until 1948.

Dr. Harrison, who is a native of Scribner, Nebr. is outstanding for his work in the fields of brain surgery and spinal anesthesia and is the author of several books, including The Arab at Home and Doctor in Arabia.

Closing Convocation Slated

"Land of the Free" will be the topic of the lecture by Dr. Everton in Loye library auditorium at 11 o'clock today. The closing convocation will be held Thursday evening at 8 p. m. in the Union ballroom. The subject will be "On Beginning From Within." Both lectures will be followed by open discussions.

Both Dr. and Mrs. Everton have worked almost exclusively with students. One of their most outstanding projects was the rehabilitation of rural school houses in fourteen states and in Latin America. Dr. Everton is professor of philosophy and religion at Grinnell College, Grinnell, Iowa.

Dr. Paul Harrison

At the present time, Dr. Everton is the head of the division of the student organizations committee and the executive council at Grinnell. In the past he has served on various committees: educational policies, budget, personnel board and the intercollegiate athletics.

Sadie Hawkins Hop Highlights Activities at Union This Week

Activities at the Union this week cover a wide range including everything from moving pictures and Craft Shop samples to the Sadie Hawkins Hop and Variety show.

Pictures of the Kansas State game will be shown at the Campus Quarterback session at noon today in the ballroom. The regular bridge class will occupy Room 315 from 4 to 6 p. m. Thursday.

Hop Steals Spotlight

Saturday the Sadie Hawkins Hop will steal the spotlight of Union activity. The dance will be held in the ballroom at 8 p. m. Tickets will sell for $1.20 per couple. More information about the dance will be published in The Daily Nebraskan.

Sunday afternoon there will be a Coffee Hour and Organ Interlude at 5 p. m. "Mark of Zorro," starring Tyrone Power and Linda Darnell, will be shown at the Variety Show at 7:30 p. m. Sunday.

Lending Library Displayed

The pictures in the main hallway and Book Nook are part of the picture lending library which is on display this week. The Union schedule for this week:

Monday, Nov. 8.

Picture lending library opens. Pictures in main hallway and Book Nook. Inquire at office.

Tuesday, Nov. 9.

Dancing class—7:30 p. m., ballroom. Craft Shop open house—2-5 p. m., samples on display, refreshments.

Wednesday, Nov. 10.

Campus Quarterback—Pictures of Kansas State game, 12 noon.

Thursday, Nov. 11.

Bridge class—4-6, Room 315.

Saturday, Nov. 13.

Sadie Hawkins Day Hop—8 p. m., tickets $1.20 per couple.

Sunday, Nov. 14.

Coffee Hour and Organ Interlude—5-6 p. m.

Variety Show—"Mark of Zorro," 7:30 p. m., Tyrone Power, Linda Darnell.

KK Klub Announces Names of Six Nebraska Sweetheart Finalists

Six candidates for the title of Nebraska Sweetheart were named today by Norbert Tieman, president of Kosmet Klub.

They are: Laverna Acker, Joanne Bergman, Dorothy Borgens, Louise McDill, Paty Nordin and Jeannie Sampson.

The girls were chosen from 19 girls chosen from house candidates by the Innocents Society. One will be elected Nebraska Sweetheart by a popular vote taken at the door at the Kosmet Klub fall revue Friday night.

The candidates were picked by Innocents on a basis of attractiveness, poise, personality and scholarship. Each ticket buyer can vote for one candidate for Sweetheart, as well as a candidate for Prince Kosmet. Prince Kosmet candidates will be announced tomorrow.

Activity Range Wide.
Activities of the six candidates include:

Laverna Acker: Treasure of state YM-YW council; district representative of Ag YWCA; Home Ec department; Ag solicitor for AUF; a member of Phi Upsilon Omicron, home economics honorary. She is a junior in Ag school and a resident of Love hall.

Joanne Bergman: University Singers; Alpha Epsilon Rho, radio honorary; Fine-Arts and Sciences senior majoring in radio and minoring in voice. She is an

Five of the Nebraska Sweetheart candidates smile on being chosen finalists. They are, left to right: Joanne Bergman, Dorothy Borgens, Jeannie Sampson, Laverna Acker and Louise McDill. The sixth finalist, Paty Nordin, is not shown. The finalists were chosen by the Innocents on a basis of poise, attractiveness, personality and scholarship from a group of 19 house candidates. One will be elected Nebraska Sweetheart by a popular vote to be taken at the door at the Kosmet Klub Revue Friday night. Each ticket will entitle the buyer to one vote for Sweetheart as well as a candidate for Prince Kosmet.

Lutherans Hold Initiation Banquet

Gamma Delta, Lutheran young people's group, held their initiation banquet Saturday, Nov. 6.

Frank Mueller, assistant manager of the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce, and Gamma Delta alum, was the guest speaker. Rev. H. Erck, student pastor, gave the welcoming address. Entertainment included a clarinet solo by Ed Tegtmeier, a skit by Myra Hauge and Elaine Putensen, and several numbers by a male quartette.

Pledges eligible for initiation were:

Earl Bartels, Louise Boschen, Joanne Buller, Fred Chael, Richard Dunklau, Joanne Engelkenier, Eleanor Erickson, Iddo Heinicke, Pat Lougan, Eugene Miller, Don Mueller, Louise Mues, Jeannette Mundhenke, Duane Riggert, Dale Scheer, Floyd Schlecht, Christine Schleuter, Kenneth Schmidt, Jack Scholz, Harvey Smith, Robert Stohlman, Wallace Stokebrand, Dehner Toebben, Nelda Tonjes, Nita Volzke, Eugene Von Fange, Lois Wendt, Wayne Wendt, Beverly Wieman, Elaine Wilhelm, Joan Wilson, Gerald Woltemath.