Coach Polsy Clark's battered Huskers let the heavy contact work go in Monday's practice as most of the players reported without pads.

The scout squad demonstrated Missouri plays but for the most part Potsy Clark kept the boys moving in an effort to work out various aches and pains.

Collopy Captains,

The head grid mentor named Frank Collopy, Jr. to captain the Scarlet against Don Faurot's Missouri Tigers Saturday.

End Howard Fletcher, who scored one of the touchdowns against the Sooners last week, will be out for the rest of the season. The sophomore end had his leg in a cast Monday.

Other players who were bothered with injuries are Dick Goeglein, Charley Toogood, Fred Golan, Darwin Salestrom, Bob Lipps, Bob Schneider, Phil Young and Hubert Unger Hubert Unger.

Goeglein Out

Goeglein was hurt in the chest and ribs and will not get into the game against the Tigers.

The other players will likely see some action if they can round into shape by game time.

Missouri is definitely out for a win against the Cornhuskers. The Tigers must beat Nebraska if they want any share of the Big Seven Faurot's eleven has a great line with Capt. Chester Fritz, the 204pound left tackle, a blocking-tackling standout. Mel Sheehan, 209, gigantic right end, is a good blocker too, and a pass receiver hard to cover because of his height and size. Right Guard Gene Pepper, 208, is also a fine all-around player and Center Bob Fuchs, 215 pounds, is a tough line-backer.

Entsminger Smart

Among the Missouri backs are Lloyd Brinkman, who hits handoffs well, runs cleverly and can hit running passes, and Mike Ghnouly, a dangerous sweeper Quarterback Bus Entsminger, 182, is a smart runner on the "keep it' play and his high pitch to the titanic Sheehan is a hard pass to stop. Strongest Tiger runner is Kansas U and Oklahoma remained deadlocked on the top rung in the Big Seven Conference after last week's grid battles. But this coming Saturday at Lawrence, barring a tie contest, one of these elevens will have the first-place berth alone. The Sooners from Norman will be playing their last loop tilt of the year Saturday and can cinch the title with a win over the Jayhawks. Oklahoma did not meet Colorado U this year.

Mitchell Top Back

Last week, Oklahoma rapped Potsy Clark's Cornhuskers, 41-14 at Norman. Once again Quarterback Jack Mitchell sparked the winner's offense and KU will be up against one of the top field generals in the college ranks.

The Jayhawks were hard pressed to down an inspired Kansas State crew, 20-14 at Manhattan. The winless Wildacts, sparked by Dana Atkins and Gerald Hackney, threw everything in the book at Coach J. V. Sikes' highly-regarded squad and almost walked off with their first conference win. This game finished K-State's conference season.

Mizzou At Lincoln

Colorado wrote finis to their first year of loop competition when they bowed before Missouri, 27-13 at Columbia. Coach Don-Faurot's eleven had to come from behind to beat an improving Buffalo team. Mizzou journeys to Lincoln this weekend to meet the Huskers in the home finale for the Nebraskans. Last year the Tigers bounced the Scarlet, 47-6.

Iowa State, recovering from a 48-7 trimming at the hands of Michigan State, will face ar easier opponent this Saturday when they travel to Arizona to face Ari-

Kansas State tangles with Okla-homa A. & M. at Stillwater to round out grid activity.

The game was in doubt the first half which ended with the Reds on the long end of a 29-22 score. In the second half the speedy Reds widened the margin for an easy win. Paul Shields led the Reds with 14 points, while Rod Cox and Bus Whitehead racked up 11 each Dick Schleiger and Bob Gates paced the losers with 10 each.

A pleasing note in the scrim-mage was the free throw accuracy demonstrated by the two teams. The Whites were almost perfect
