

Wrestle Tourney Next IM Activity; Entries Due Soon

Intramural wrestling gets underway Dec. 7 and continues through the 11th, according to IM Director Lou Means.

All entries must be turned in to the Phys Ed building not later than Thursday, Dec. 2, at 5:00 p.m. Official weigh-ins will be from 4 to 6 p.m. on Dec. 6 at the Coliseum basement.

Pairings in each weight division will be made and posted Monday night, Dec. 6. All wrestlers must report for first round matches at 7:00 p.m. or forfeits will be declared. All matches except the finals will be held in the Coliseum basement. The championship finals will be decided immediately following the Nebraska U-Iowa State basketball tilt, Dec. 11.

Mat Coach Pat Patterson will be the supervisor of the four-day tourney.

IM Cage Filings Due Saturday; New Loops Set

Last call for entries in the 1948-49 intramural basketball leagues was sounded today by Louis E. Mean, Director of the IM department. Teams wishing to enter must report to the Physical Education building before Saturday morning, Nov. 27. With the Thanksgiving vacation starting Thursday, Mr. Means urged all interested squads to file today.

Entries already received indicate that this year's court activity will be the busiest in the University's history. More games will be played this year with the completion of the new P. E. building. Other contests will be played at the Coliseum and at the Ag College Activities building. Last year approximately 1,650 men participated in intramural basketball and this year's total is expected to surpass this figure easily.

Fraternities will add "C" teams to their already popular "A" and "B" league quints for the first time this year. The new Inter-denominational league will provide chances for the religious-affiliated groups. Other leagues will be formed among independent teams, interdormitory groups, interdepartmental groups, the ROTC and NROTC units, and in the various colleges. All fives will pit their best records against winners of first and second places in all the leagues near the close of the season for the All-University championship playoff series. Only one team will emerge as the 1948-49 cage champs.

Team Takes Bowl Bid

Nebraska grid fans are anxiously awaiting Dec. 18 when a state team plays in the newest of bowl games.

The Roberts Purepaks, of Omaha, have accepted a bid to play in the Santa Claus Bowl in Philadelphia. The game is to be played under the direction of the Pop Warner Foundation. The Roberts team is made up of 13 year old boys.

All freshman footballers who plan to come out for freshman basketball should report to the Coliseum Monday, Nov. 29, at 4:00.

Huskers Close Season at Oregon; Try for Third Scarlet Grid Win

Big Seven Program

Thursday
 Missouri Kansas 14-20
 St. Louis U. K-State

Saturday
 Oregon State Nebraska 27-6
 Oklahoma A. & M. Oklahoma 13-21

Nebraska's long and somewhat dismal season will come to an end this Saturday afternoon.

Head Football Coach Potsy Clark will lead his Cornhuskers to the west coast for the season's final game against Oregon State at Portland.

Beavers Win Three
 The Beavers have won only three games while losing three and tying three which means the Huskers won't be too outclassed in their bid for a third win this season.

Oregon State is favored after holding Oregon to a 10-0 margin in the mud last Saturday.

Lonnie Stiner's Beavers have won games over Idaho, Portland, and UCLA while losing to Southern California, California and Oregon.

Saturday's encounter will be played in Multnomah stadium, where Nebraska won by 32-14 in 1936—the closing game for Lloyd Cardwell, Sam Francis and Coach D. X. Bible.

Nebraska teams have met Oregon State teams six times since the first game was played back in 1916 when the Huskers whipped the Beavers, 17 to 7. Eight years later the Nebraska squad came back to win again, 14-0.

Win 1933 Tilt

In 1933 the score was run up to 22-0 in favor of the Scarlet clad Huskers. The Cornhuskers barely escaped being beaten in 1935 when they pulled a last minute touchdown out of the fire to win, 26-20. The next year it was the same story with the Huskers winning 32-14. Last year for the first time the Oregon Staters finally snapped the Husker jinx to win 27-6. So far the Huskers hold a 117 to 68 point margin over the Beavers.

Coach Potsy Clark left for Oregon last night with 36 players accompanying him. The roster includes some players who probably won't be available for the game.

Bostwick Makes Trip

George Bostwick, end, is making the trip but can hardly be expected to participate in play Saturday. The foot injury he suffered in the UCLA game is still giving him trouble.

Fred Golan may see only limited service if he gets in at all. The big tackle has a bad bruise on his leg. Clark has shifted Joe McGill from center to tackle to bolster the weakness.

K. Fischer Back

Kenny Fischer was running with the Varsity Monday and Tuesday and Clark hopes he can get into shape before the game this week-end.

Phil Young, Don Schneider, and Junior Collopy are expected to carry the fullback chores. Collopy will probably double in his role as quarterback.

Ferguson Spark

Gerald Ferguson who sparked the Varsity romp over the freshmen Monday should see plenty of action against the Beavers.

The Varsity roster for the Oregon State trip:

- Left Ends: Ralph Damkroger, Jack Hazen, Don Saliers, George Bostwick.
- Left Tackles: Charles Toogood, John Sedlack, Joe McGill, Fred Golan.
- Left Guards: Fred Hawkins, Darwin Salestrom, Warren Pizinger.
- Centers: Bob Costello, Tom Novak, Bob Mullen, Hubert Unger.
- Right Guards: Mike DiBiase, Arden Means, Bob Lipps.
- Right Tackles: Jim Godfrey, Herb Reese, Dick Goeglein.
- Right Ends: Bob Schneider, Ray Magasman, Alex Cochran.
- Quarterbacks: Frank Collopy, Don Strasheln, Art Bauer.
- Left Halfbacks: Del Wiegand, Gerald Ferguson, Cletus Fischer, Kenneth Fischer.
- Right Halfbacks: Bill Mueller, Dick Hutton, Don Bloom.
- Fullbacks: Phil Roung, Don Schneider.
