More of the Same . . .

The producing of a winning football team, and more especially the acquiring of a competent football coach, has been perenially one of the most popular subjects of campus discussion in the past two years, two years in which the quality of Nebraska's teams has not changed noticeably.

In the midst of the controversy centering around the selection of a new football coach comes a statement from the Board of Regents, Chancellor Gustavson and the Board of Intercollegiate Athletics.

The statement says that the frequent hiring and firing of coaches does not "contribute to a sound football pro-

We agree, but then what has the university been doing the past two years. A year ago, Nebraska hired "Potsy" Clark to take over the coaching helm, with the understanding that he would be only a fill-in. But, with the enthusiasm following spring practice, he was rewarded with a contract as permanent Director of Athletics. After 1948's disappointing season ended, another search for a coach was launched. We hope this system is not repeated year after

A name coach, as James Lawrence, editor of the Lincoln Star, has pointed out will not insure a championship football team in 1949, and probably not for a few years to come. It will take years of hard groundwork before Nebraska can again field a winning combination.

We feel that only by making a long term contract can Nebraska come up with a top team soon. One man, having complete charge over our football fortunes should be able to do a better job than three or four men could. We trust that the powers that be will see fit to write a contract liberal enough to lure a competent coach.

The D. G. formal came off with fanfare Friday night. Title of 'Life of the Party" goes to Norma Jean Myers who tried her hand as girl drummer in Gene Moyers band. Pin mate Jack Wellinger looked on with pride. Also in attendance were Tish Swanson and Bill Vlcek, Esther Beynon and Dave McShane,

With untireing effort and persistence lasting until the wee small hours, a group of enamoured K.
