NU Tankers Start Road Trip Today

... to Colorado

Hollie Lepley's Husker tank squad take to the road today at 12:30 for scheduled meets with three Colorado schools.

Thursday Lepley's splashers meet Colorado State college at Greeley, and Friday the mermen enter the pool against Colorado University at Boulder. Colorado A. & M. at Fort Collins will be the Scarlet foe Saturday.

Nebraska beat both Colorado U. and Colorado A. & M. last year by close scores but due to lack of numbers and depth the squad may not fare so well this year.

According to Coach Lepley the original squad consisted of 30 varsity candidates but that has now been whittled down to 15.

Those making the trip are Jack Campbell, Conrad King, Bob Phelps, Bill Greer, Ed Craren and Fig Flagg, Marvin Grimm, Perry Branch, Ted Kanamine, Tom Harley and George Hill.

Marvin Grimm aided in setting two ne waKnsas University pool records last week in Kansas. The Husker splasher set a new record for the 100 yd. free style of 54.7 and was on the record breaking 40 yd. free style relay team. Other members of the relay team are Conrad King, Ted Kanamine and Perry Branch.

Jack Campbell, Conrad King and Ted Kanamine set a new 300 yd. relay record of 3:07.5.

Nebraska's basketball five edged a hard-fighting Washington University squad 48-45 at the coliseum Tuesday night.

Sharp eyes at the free throw line gave the Huskers their well-earned victory as both teams scored 15 buckets. Harry Good's charges dunked 18 of 26 free throws while Washington U. scored 15 of 30 in a game marred by 51 fouls.

From the time Bus Whitehead was fouled after the game was only ten seconds old to Claude Retherford's final charity toss in the waning seconds, the game was a scrap.

The Huskers held the Bears to one point in the first ten minutes until Jack Barker broke through Nebraska's defense to pot two points.

Dave Pearce combined with Barker and Bob Light to tie the game at 11-all with Light's free throw making the margin. Johnny Palcheff's long shot from center court put the Bears ahead but a free throw by Retherford and a Kenny Anderson basket put the Huskers in the lead 14-13.

The lead was shuffled back and forth in the last ten minutes of the first half—Jack Barker's free throw tying the game at 18-all and Richard Pearce putting the Bears into a 19-18 lead at half-time.

Bus Whitehead opened the scoring in the final period of play scoring on a rebound to put the Huskers in the lead once more—but John Palcheff countered with another long shot to shift the lead to the Bears.

Bob Cerv then evened the count with a charity. Rod Cox was fouled by Palcheff and the Lincoln forward sent the Scarlet into the lead.

This was with two minutes gone in the second half and the Huskers were on top for good.

Midway through the final period Nebraska had built up a 42-30 lead but the Washington U.

cagers started hacking away and had cut the lead to a narrow 44-40 lead.

Good's players tried a stalling game with four minutes left to play but the Bears kept boring in to break it up.

Bus Whitehead took scoring honors with 17 points while Washington University's Jack Barker dunked 14. Claude Retherford swished 11.

Nebraska B Squad Cagers Beat Peru Reserves 60-51

Grabbing an early lead and making it stand up the rest of the way, Nebraska's "B" team took a 60-51 game from the Peru "B" outfit in the preliminary to the NU-Washington contest.

The Nubbins jumped to a 7-6 lead after four minutes, and then pulled steadily away to a 36 to 25 margin at the half. Walsh led his mates with 8 points and Brandenburg had 6 at intermission.

The second half was played on even terms as Coach Mehring substituted freely. Peru cut the margin to eight points with eight minutes left but could get no closer.

There will not be a Phalanx meeting this week. The next meeting will be Feb. 2 in the Armory. This notice applies to pledges and actives.

Alpha Kappa Psi, professional business fraternity, will hold its bi-weekly noon day luncheon Wednesday, Jan. 12 at the Chamber of Commerce.

Schneider paced the Nubbins with 11, Walsh got 10, and Lucht, along with a fine floor game, had nine. Bornscheffel of Peru was high scorer for the night with 18.

Wrestle Team; Gymnasts Go

Wrestling and Gymnastic teams will go on the road this week with matches scheduled at the three Colorado schools.

Both squads will meet Colorado State, Colorado A. & M. and Colorado University this week-end.

Last year the Husker wrestlers beat Colorado but dropped matches to Colorado State. They did not meet Colorado A. & M.

Those making the trip are Leo Geier, Phil Sprague, Art Hillman, Clarence Lefler, Charles Purdy, Al Dunavan and Lloyd Helgesen.
