Glassford to Grid Post

*Cornhuskers * Rack * Third * Big Seven Victory

Campus Y's Elect Second Term Heads

Newly elected officers of the ag and city campus YW's and YM's include Laverna Acker. Janet Nutzman, Stan Lambert and Bill Reuter as presidents.

Miss Acker, succeeding Lois Thordinnson Mickle, will be as-sisted by Irene Wellensiek, vice president; Alice Boswell, district representative; Polly Ludlow, sec-retary, and Dorothy Bowman.

Officers of the city campus YW include: Jean Eckvall, vice president; Kathy Schreiber, district representative: Jean Malone, secretary, and Pat Larsen, treasurer. Miss Nutzman succeeded Barbara Heading the Ag YM will be Lambert, president; Bob Epp, vice president; Warren Monson, district representative; Merwyn French, secretary, and Tom Lambert, treasurer.

On the city campus, the YM officers include Reuter as president and Harold Nebelsick, vice president; Jerry Young, district representative; Bob Nicholls, secretary, and Dick Barnell, treas-

Officers and cabinet of the Ag YW and YM will be installed Tuesday evening at 7:30 in Warren Methodist church with Rev. C. B. Howells of the Baptist student house as speaker. The city YW installation will be held Wednesday at 7:15 p. m. in Ellen Smith Hall. City campus officers and cabinet members will be introduced to YW members at the second semester Rendezvous Friday.

City YM officers will be installed Wednesday in the YM rooms of the Temple building.

The Nebraska junior livestock judging team placed fifth at the Ft. Worth Southwestern Livestock Exposition this week end, according to a telegram received by Prof. William J.

Vol. 49-No. 77

LINCOLN 8, NEBRASKA

Tuesday, February 1, 1949

Pub Board Appoints Leger 'Daily Nebraskan' Editor

The Publications Boards redecked the Rag from top to toe Dec. 15 when it appointed Norm Leger editor-in-chief and announced a new staff for second semester. Leger succeeds Jeanne Leger has served as managing editor. He is president of Innocents, president of Kappa Sigma, vice-president of Corn Cobs, and a member of AUF Advisory Board and Masquers.

Cub Clem and Fritz Simpson were named to the manging edi-tor posts. Clem held the same position last semester. He is a member of Sigma Delta Chi and Alpha Tau Omega. Simpson formerly served as a news editor and sports editor. He is president of Phi Kappa Psi, AUF publicity director and a member of Sigma Delta Chi and Student Council.

Louise McDill, Susie Reed, M. J. Melick, Gene Berg and Bruce Kennedy were appointed news editors. Miss McDill held the same position last semester. She is secretary of Ag Exec Board, corresponding secretary of the Student Council, treasurer of Chi Omega and a member of student-faculty council, Home Ec Club Council and Phi Upsilon Omicron, Miss Reed also served as a news editor last semester. She is a member of Tassels and Kappa Harlan B Kappa Gamma.

Miss Melick, another re-elected news editor is chairman of Ves-pers Planning Board, and a mem-Officers Corps, Phalanx and members of student publications.

NORM LEGER

ber of YWCA Cabinet, Student Foundation and Chi Omega, Berg has been a Daily Nebraskan reporter for the three semesters. He is president of the Red Cross College Unit, chairman of Student Foundation publications, a member of Corn Cobs and Kappa Sigma.

Kennedy served as a reporter the past semester. He is a member of Corn Cobs and Alpha Tau Emily Heine was choosen feature editor. She is a member of Harlan Beideck will edit the sports page and Myron Gustavson will be in charge of Ag campus.

Alpha Tau Omega. Gustavson is managing editor of the Cornhusker Countryman and a member of Sigma Delta Chi, Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship.

The business staff, headed by Irv Chesen, was reappointed. Chesen is secretary of the Kos-met Klub, treasurer of Innocents, a member of Alpha Phi Omega and Zeta Beta Tau.

Merle Stalder, Bob Axtell, and Keith O'Bannon were re-appointed assistant business managers. Stalder is a member of Kosmet Klub, Block and Bridle, Alpha Zeta and Alpha Tau Omega, Axtell is a member of Student Council, Kosmet Klub, Student Union Board and Sigma Phi Epsilon. O'Bannon is a member of Delta

Al Abramson, business manager of Cornshucks and a member of Zeta Beta Tau, will again serve as circulation manager.

Three assistant editors were also appointed according to the Editor. Jean Fenster will be assistant ag editor. She is a member of Tassels, Red Cross Board, Coed Counselor and Sigma Kappa. Frank Jacobs and Ruth Ann Sandstedt will be assistant fea-ture editors. Jacobs is a member of Red Cross Board, Masquers, Kosmet Klub, associate editor of Unionology, and Zeta Beta Tau. Miss Sandstedt is a member of Alpha Lambda Delta, Swin Club, Coed Counselors and Sigma Kappa.

The Publications Board, headed by W. F. Swindler of the school of play. Dick Srb. Retherford. Coach Harry Good's last minute choice to start in place of Forward Rod Cox, played a cool game and added ten points to the Nebraska cause. High point man for the Scarlet was harum-scarum Claude Retherford, whose shots were as uncanny as they come.

Kansas State

Falls Before

70-48 Attack

By Cub Clem Managing Editor

their sixth win in a row and their third conference victory. From Joe Malacek's free throw in the first minute to Ray Jussel's tip-in in the last split second, the game was a fast and

The Wildcats seemed totally incapable of throwing up a defense

furious free-for-all,

Nebraska's cagers ran over a stunned K State crew, 70-48, last night, to rack up

The colorful Indianan hit 19 points, at least half of them downright impossible shots.

Nebraska raced to a 9-3 margin in the first three minutes, and then allowed the 'Cats to tie at mainder of the first half was give and take, and the Huskers left the floor at intermission with a narrow 25 - 22 lead.

12-all. The re-

After the half, Nebraska Courtesy The Journal ahead to lead Srb. 52-32, when Good sent in his second five. The subs also proved too much for the K Staters and kept building

See "Huskers," Page 3

All University Fund to Open Five-Day Campaign for Charities, February 7

drive will go to the World Student Service fund, National Infantile Paralysis fund, Community Chest and United Negro College fund, inc.

The AUF planning com-mittee headed by Miss Lawrie, includes Ted Gunderson. head solicitor; Jo Lisher, un-organized students solicitor; Laverna Acker, ag solicitor; Fritz Simpson, publicity director; Neil Atkin-

Miss Lawrie son, assistant publicity director; Mary Helen Mallory, special events; Jane Traphagen, art chairman; Al Short, YM repre-sentative; Ardith Tilly, YW representative; and Betty Bloss, treasurer.

Dr. C. M. Elliott is faculty sponsor for the Fund.

300 Solicitors

university campuses during the programs of service, preventing drive period. Charles Landscraft durlication, conducting research, is in charge of solicitation at the and delevolping better public un-Nebraska Medical school in derstanding and support of both Omaha.

"The All University Fund is the only charitable fund on the cam-pus," Miss Lawrie said. "Recipi-50 thousand population or greater. ents include those organizations | The National Paralysis fund and

The drive will continue through individual funds so that students made available to those stricken foreign affairs is being offered will not be asked to make indivi-Proceeds from the all-university dual contributions throughout the Foundation.

> "There will be only one drive this year, whereas there have been two drives each year in the past," Miss Lawrie said.

> The World Student Service fund gives to America's students the opportunity to participate in the task of student relief rehabilitation and reconstruction abroad.

> WSSF funds are used to support student self-help projects and are used to give foreign students supplementary feeding, nutritional aid, medical care, books and study materials, scientific equipment, travel aid, student centers, rest and rehabilitation centers.

TB Sanitarium

An international student tuberculosis sanatorium in Leysin, Switzerland, which has served 487 students of 15 nationalities in the est two years, is one project of the WSSF.

Another recipient of the AUF drive is the Community Chest. The Chest is a cooperative organization of citizens and social welfare agencies which promotes the social Approximately 300 student sol- welfare and health of the comicitors will canvas all Nebraska munity by coordinating existing private and public social work.

There is a Community Chest in Miss Lawrie said. "Recipi- 50 thousand population or greater.

Nebraska's All University Fund which have been OK'd by the its 2,771 chapters are dedicated to will open its 1949 campaign reb. AUF." 7, according to Miss Peggy Lawrie, director of the Fund drive.

Miss Lawrie also said that the case, Medical, hospital, nursing fund's purpose is to combine all and physical therapy services are provide a background to current provide a background to cur Thousands Stricken

More than 80 thousand Americans were stricken by infantile paralysis during the five-year period from 1943 through 1947. Part of the AUF funds will go to this life-saving organization.

American contributions have helped 32 private Negro colleges keep open during the past four difficult years. In all likelihood, these Negro colleges would have been closed had it not been for the United Negro College fund's appeal to the American people, an appeal that has been answered,

These four organizations will benefit from your contribution to the AUF. When a solicitor calls on you, don't pass the buck, give it. Invest in the AUF.

'Holiday' Tryonts Tryonts for Phillip Barry's "Holiday," next Experimental Theatre production, begin today, according to Director Max Whittaker.

The play, a modern comedy, has parts for five women and six men. Any university student carrying studies and work successfully is eligible.

Specific tryout times are 7 to 9 p.m., Tuesday, Feb. 1, and 7 to 9 p.m., Wednesday, Feb. 2. Tryout room is 201 Temple. Students interested should plan to attend both casting periods if possible.

International Book Review Series Slated

A series of book reviews on international relations designed to with polio through the National by the University Extension Division.

Special student season tickets are being sold for 75c on the presentation of an ID card. General admission is $1 or 35c for a single admission.

The series is the third dealing with postwar Europe, with attention centered on England, France and the Netherlands. Several books dealing with Western Europe as a whole will be used.

The book reviews are presented with Norma Kidd Green as the leader, assisted by University faculty members. They are given every other Friday from 9:30 to 11 a. m. in Love Memorial Library auditorium.

The first review was schedyled for Jan. 28, but was postponed until Friday, Feb. 4, be-cause of the storm. The following review will be held Feb. 11, and then again every other Fri-

Tickets may be secured at the first meeting, and any review thereafter, singly or a complete season ickets.

Party Called Off

The Coed Counselor Freshman party scheduled for tonight at Ellen Smith hall, has been cancelled. Counselors and "little sisters" will be notified concerning future arrange-

Judging Team Francka High

The University of Nebraska junior livestock judging team won top honors at the National Western Stock Show in Denver Jan. 14-22. Gervase Francke was high man and Stan Lambert fourth high man in all classes of judging,

Composed of Francke, Lambert, Don Gard, Don Popken and Wilbur Pauley, the team won the first place spot in competition with 12 other judging teams from as many colleges and universities. Nebraska was followed in the second and third places by Iowa State and Colorado A. & M

Coached by Professor Alexander, the Nebraska team placed first in horses, second in sheep, fourth in cattle, and sixth in hogs. In carlot judging, Nebraska was fifth, taking second in sheep, third in bulls, fifth in cattle and sixth in hogs. Nebraska took fifth in the wool judging event which this year was won by Wyoming. Francke, Lambert and Gurd made up the wool judging team.

Individual honors in class judging were as follows: Francke and Lambert tied for first in sheep judging; Lambert was first and Pauley fourth in horses; Lambert placed fourth in cattle and Francke ranked second in hogs,

Besides several ribbons and individual medals, Nebraska came back from Denver with the beautiful quarterhorse trophy, the fat cattle trophy and the large rotating cup.