Stoogent Council Actions Probed

The tide has finally turned: According to special agent Dean Harpey, the UN detective and accounting agency, the Stoogent Council is to be investigated this week. A special board made up of representatives from the Tin Soldiers club, the Alaska book store and other such illustrious business establishments, the Board of Regents, and the Junior Detective agency of the Law College will rack the council members up one parking area and down the other.

Ball Made By Blaze

A blaze of undetermined origin developed in the Student Union Bawloroom Saturday evening during the Inter-maternity Bawl.

Damage was slight, although many people became excited and frustrated. The wiring above the stage was burned and the Union was left without lights for a period of three hours. During this time mosh was accomplished.

The Lincoln fire department was called to the scene of the holocaust but arrived after the flames had been extinguished.

We have interviewed several of the attending couples since the bawl. Miss Genevieve Twitchell, student girdle club, screamed, "Wat a place for a Chesterfield sign." Miriam Crick, A. W. O. L. prexy, added, "I just couldn't tell one girl from another, so there will be no trouble from this. However, someone will pay. The A. W. O. L. board is investigating." Form Ledger, Insence prexy, stated, "I didn't know the lights went out in the rest of the building. I was in the game room." Dead Runderson denied rumors that he was soliciting during the darkout, "It was all for the good of old AUF."

Director of the Union, Dwayne Rake, reported that everything was being done to prevent a re-occurrence of the darkout at the Junior-Seenyer Prom, which has had a good rise in ticket sales since the Bawl.

Comments by members of the junior Senate committee were as follows: Dick Noisier, "I will not have my picture taken; besides I thought of this investigation angle anyway." G. Charles Tones yelled from the gutter, "They'll never catch me, I'm an athlete! I play in all the Chess tournaments in Grunt Memorial. One of the weaker representatives (It was hard to find one that was weaker), Louise Dillpickle uttered this typical remark, "Oh! an investigation, I must run home and get J. M. Relick, my lawyer and trusted leaflet spreader."

When President Pale Doll was finally found under a pile of baby rattles, books and valuable finals he had this remark to make: "Gad! they can't do it, we haven't passed on their constitution."

Members of the investigating committee had the following comments; the Intelligence member of the Tin Soldiers said, "Daaa, we'll make them dance to our price." Johnny Short stated, "They haven't any more chance than they have in my store. We have everything in the book on them."

Piffel Announces New Regulations

Clark Piffel, prominent member of Out House fraternity, announced that there would be a collection box placed at all sports events held in the Mausoleum. Spectators will be asked to deposit all cigarette butts before entering. Any person caught not smoking Chesterfields, will have his hand spanked, and will be sent to A. J. Spew's office for punishment. (It will cost you.)

Twenty Listed In TNP Finals

Finalists for Typical Nebraska Pig and the skirts which will be presented at Co-ed Fillies were announced today by Jan Struttin, Co-ed Fillies chairman.

The TNP finalists are: Marsha Adumba, Surely Ailing, Snoslin Alan, Lee Bust, Mardelle Bust, Jan Hockran, Lean Ekwall, Audrey Flub, Batty Grin, Ginney Coach, Madame Gaines, Jame McCraig, Loise Pawatun, Nancy Garter, Slezzy Reed, Katty Snlper, Marka Tomesen, Marylynn Webb, Jean Weasage and Gwen Monsoon.

The finalists were selected by some devious method which will be investigated later by the Stoogent Council. The finalist will also model sprung fashions at the Fillies. Putty Guwin will act as "damn fashion."

The Typical Nebraska Pig will be selected from this sorry group on Feb. 15, at 7:30 p. m. in Room 313 of the Union. Candidates should wear clothes.

Awful Sighs Garner Penny Prize Honors

Sex and gambling ran rampant at the Penny Pinching Party Saturday. Females in scanty dress (and even less) cavorted throughout Grunt Memorial Hall from 2 to 4:30. At the same time, shady characters lured the farm boys into their gambling dens.

Horse racing, string pulling, and dart throwing enticed innocent spectators. Suspiciously few prizes were awarded for these sports. (Ed Grumble, self-appointed BMOG, is going to investigate the situation.)

A committee of facility judges sat, aloof from it all, in balcony seats, smiling at the innocent romplings of the lads and lassies.

Winners of the sextival were announced by the facility committee immediately after the Penny Pinching Party. They were: first place, Awful Sigh O; second place, AOPots; and third place, Grabba Grabba Gamma. (The fact that the AOPots also won second place last year has no connection with the fact that the presidents of Big Sissies have been AOPots for the past two years. Ed Grumble, self-appointed BMOG is going to investigate the situation.)

AUF Thief Disclosed

At a recent meeting of the CORNHUSKER Investigating Committee, it was found that Dead Runderson, head solicitor for the All University Fund, had absconded with the total receipts for the AUF, which amounted to $10.37. After a hurried inventory by Piggie Laurie, president, motorboat, Stoogent Selectory editor, and anti-girls' faction leader, it was found that he had cleaned out the treasury.

Runderson found that he had cleaned out the treasury.

When our roving reporter found Dead, sitting alone in a corner of the Crib, counting his loot, his only comment was, "I'd a swiped Piggie, too, but I couldn't carry her."

He appeared quite calm as he

O St. Gang Sits On 50

SEATING in the football stadium for the '49 season was outlined in a plan submitted by A. J. Spew to the Stoogent Council at their Wednesday night subrosa meeting.

The plan calls for seating 9,000 students in the card section of the East Stadium. Spew whispered, "It will call for a bit of crowding, but I am sure the students won't mind. Of course all seats from the 45-yard-line to the 45-yard line are reserved for prominent O street personal."

The Stoogent Council approved the seating arrangement after securing 50-yard line seats for all members.

chewed and smoked, rapidly going through two cartons of Chesterfields.

Low Gisher, head of campus Campfire Girls, called an emergency meeting of all AUF workers to make up the deficit. Everyone contributed things they couldn't use and a rummage sale was held, Friday, with Prof. Ain't acting as auctioneer.

Marylynn Webb Elected Bawl Queen by Relatives, Friends

Miss Marylynn Webb was elected by a vote of her relatives and close friends to rain as queen over the Inter-maternity Bawl Saturday night at the Union.

The last resorts of the Inter-maternity Sweathard insurance test were announced by Dort Walty Saturday night. Condemned to be finalists were Dona Slobber, AOPot; Hairy Su Neherland, Dee Gee; Marylynn Webb, Gamma Flip; Stuffed Oliveman, Awful Sigh; Icey Sno Berg, Kat House; Nancy Prayer, Grabba (I repeat) Grabba Gamma.

Names of the finalists were drawn out of an old diaper by the pin and minor changes committee of the Inter-maternity council Monday at dusk. The victims were selected on the bias of money, social attachments, slouch and quality of clothes.

The rat race, a formal affair—that means clothes, lasted from nine to twelve as far as Dean Midge Swenson was concerned. After that the place dropped all formality and it was a guaranteed success. The chosen one was presented with a certificate entitling "the barer to one year's service from the U-reeka diaper laundry."

Eddie Had-it and his Omaha Oboe Operators furnished the background confusion for the cat's-astrophe. Injections of adrenaline were given on the third floor balcony and the bawl-room was decorated with war trophies from the various clubs on the campus.

Tickets were sold in every Inter-maternity Ward on campus. The Inter-maternity Council requests that you do not tell the ticket price because the council is already under investigation.

Your campus Chesterfield representatives are Ted Gunderson, Genevieve Mitchell, and Roger Moore.

"That's the guy I'm laying for," muttered the hen as the farmer crossed the yard.
