

Gophers Top NU Gymnasts By 71-35

Minnesota's highly touted gymnasts lived up to all advance expectations as they topped the Husker gym team by 71 to 35. Phil Sprague picked up the only first place for Nebraska as he tied Jim Peterson of Minnesota for top honors in the trampoline.

The Gophers swept the first two events, which were held in the afternoon before the basketball game. Howard Swanson took top honors in the horizontal bar event, followed by teammate James Peterson. Swanson took first place in the parallel bar competition in the Big Nine conference meet last year. Al Dunavan came in third followed by Clarence Lefler and Ken Harding.

Don Hedstrom, Big Nine Flying rings champion in 1948, won his pet event with a talented display of power and coordination. Peterson picked up another second place for Minnesota, edging out Husker Phil Sprague. Howard Swanson took fourth, followed by Al Dunavan.

Nebraska came back in the trampoline as Phil Sprague tied for first with Jim Peterson. Both boys executed double flips from the knees and from a standing position.

Al Dunavan was third, followed by Floyd Helgeson and Don Hedstrom.

Minnesota really poured it on in the parallel bars event as they took first, second and third places. Herb Loken finally came out on top with Howard Swanson a close second. Don Hedstrom took third, followed by Leo Geier and Phil Sprague.

Phil Sprague broke in for a second place in the side horse event, edging out Gopher Herb Loken. James Peterson copped the event. Leo Geier was fourth, followed by Art Hillman.

In the tumbling event Minnesota again swept the top positions as Peterson and Loken took first and second. Phil Sprague took third place, edging out Gopher Don Hedstrom.

Bramson Winner In IM Handball

Bob Bramson defeated Bob Olmstead in last week's finals to win the intramural handball championship.

Bramson and Olmstead outlasted a starting field of 180 to gain the finals. Never having played handball before entering the University, his victory was significant as he numbered in conquests wins over such veteran competitors as Norm Zabel, Bill Mulder, and defending champion Chick Thorne of Lincoln.

Dick Clark Wins IM Bowling Title

Intramural bowling competition drew to a close last week with Dick Clark of Lincoln taking first place honors.

Clark nosed out Wally Barnett for the title, with Elmer Wenz placing third. Fourth place wound up in a tie between John Skinner and A. A. Long.

Bowling is one of the top recreational sports at the university. Over 800 men have been participating in more than 20 leagues during the year, with some leagues continuing until May before all champion teams are crowned.

"Better put me out," suggested the cigarette to the bartender, "before I make an ash out of myself."

Tumbling: Won by Peterson (M); (2) Loken (M); (3) Sprague (N); (4) Hedstrom (M); (5) Dunavan (N).

IM Hoopsters Begin Playoffs; Favorites Cop

Intramural basketball playoffs got off to a flying start Thursday and Friday with several thrillers and a few runaways.

Thursday afternoon in Class B competition, the Sig Eps swamped the Phi Gams, 25-13. After a spasmodic first half, the Sig Eps used a blazing fast break to perfection and racked up 8 points before the Fijis managed a free throw. Outstanding player of the game, however, was Fiji Gerald Robertson who played a whale of a game and contributed most of his team's points.

Also in Class B, the Sig Alphas edged the Phi Deltas, 26-20. After a close first half which saw the Sig Alphas with a 10-8 lead, the Scoville brothers led SAE to a 24-14 bulge and coasted to victory.

In Class C, the thriller of the day was furnished by the Sigma Chi's and the ATO's. The erratic Sig Chi's won in three overtimes, 31-29. Christensen connected with 12 points for Sigma Chi.

Thursday night in Class A, the Sigma Nu's turned back the Deltas 25-23. Breetzke led scoring with 9 of the Delt points.

With Bob Schleiger leading the way with his 13 points, the Phi Gams upset favored Delta Upsilon 36-32 in another Class A encounter.

The Phi Deltas were never in serious trouble as they beat the Phi Psi's 27-22 in their Class A game.

The ATO Class A team showed their power as they slaughtered the Sig Eps, 48-25.

MISSOURIAN TOO LATE—Missouri's Don McMillen charges in too late to stop Husker Joe Malacek's shot at the basket in third quarter action of Monday night's Big Seven contest at the coliseum.

Huskers . . .

second half lapse almost proved disastrous. Bob Cerv and Retherford led the Husker scoring parade with ten points apiece.
In a preliminary game, Nebraska "B" defeated the Wesleyan reserves 64-40.
