Huskers Stress Pass Protection By the Linemen

Huskers gridders continued their spring training period Wednesday with more contact work and running through plays. Coach Bill Glassford had two offensive teams and a defensive team running through pass plays with the stress on pass protection by the line.

Three quarterbacks were throwing the ball during the workout. Kenny Fischer, Del Weigand and Frank Meyer alternated at the throwing slot.

One of the running teams is made up of Schneider and Simon at the ends, Adle and Godfrey at the tackles, Hawkins and DiBiase at the guards and Mullen at the center slot. The backfield was composed of Meyer, Mueller, Adduci and Yost.

The other offensive team consisted of Norcross and Brooker at the ends, Geoglein and Moritz at the tackles, Means and Britt at the guards and McGill at center. Weigand, Carroll, Strashem and Ponsiego made up the backfield.

If Coach Glassford follows his original plan there will be another scrimmage Saturday afternoon.

Individual Shoot To Begin Tuesday

Shooting will begin next week for the Gardner individual trophy in rifle shooting. The dates of the meet are Tuesday and Wednesday. Players may shoot till 5 p. m. on Tuesday and 4 p. m. on Wednesday.

The results will be figured on the basis of best score out of a possible 400. Each man will shoot 40 shots at ten targets. Ten shots will be taken at each of four positions, prone, kneeling, sitting and standing.

Herb Miller, Sigma Nu, was last year's winner with a score of 186 out of a possible 200.

Nebraska Cows Producing More

University rural economists report the numbers of milk cows on Nebraska farms has declined continuously for the past four years.

Despite this trend, figures show that the total production of milk has been larger for the past three months. This, they say, reflects the record output of milk per cow, which has increased about 6 percent in the last year.

The higher production per cow is due, according to the economists, to heavy culling in recent years; a greater percentage of milk cows actually milked; and an increase in the rate of feeding concentrates.

Prices of manufactured dairy products are likely to remain stable through 1949, the Agriculture economists reported.

Spring Tells End Of Union Dances

Although there is some difference between old man winter and the weather man, spring is here and picnics and outdoor parties are taking over campus activities, bringing the Union dances to a close.

One of the last Unionizers of the season will be held this Friday night in the Union ballroom from 9 to 12 a. m. The ballroom will be decorated with individual tables with candlelight, and Walt Goodbrod and his orchestra will furnish music for the dancers. Refreshments will be served. Tickets will be sold at the door at 60 cents a person.

Members of the dance committee in charge of this Unionizer are Billie Lear, chairman; Marshall Grant, Dale Gaeth, Lennie Seaton, George Schantz and Shirley King.

Nebraska P.E. Dept. Extends State Services

The Division of Physical Education for men at the University has been extremely active the past few days with extension work and services to Nebraska communities and schools on problems of facilities, curriculum and personnel.

The services vary from meeting with the local community groups to affect plans for either summer or year-around recreation, planning of new athletic stadium and playfields, construction of bleachers and apparatus, to revision of existing curriculum in health, physical education and recreation, care of stadium turf and facilities, and many other problems.

Cities where service has been given in the last three weeks are Hebron, Omaha, Plainview, Louisville, Weeping Water, Fremont, Crete, Hartington, Minden, DeWitt and Lincoln. The division will extend similar services to several other Nebraska communities in the next few weeks.
