

$38,000 in NU Awards Offered for Scholarship

Nearly 400 University students are going to share in a $38,000 jackpot this spring.

The $38,000 is the money which the University Scholarship Awards committee will give to students in the form of scholarships and grants-in-aid this spring. Sophomores, juniors and seniors may apply for these scholarships to be used next school year.

Students with a 7 average will be given preference for the scholarships, but under certain circumstances grants-in-aid will be awarded to students with lower

Hardin Tells YW Cabinet of Past Progress

National director of economic education Clara Hardin told YWCA cabinet members "we have made a beginning" in working for world brotherhood, when they met with the Business Girls club at the YWCA Wednesday.

The YW cabinet and the political effectiveness commission met to hear the national staff member speak on the YWCA national affairs program. Dr. Hardin declared "If we become discouraged we have only to look back and see the distance we have come in promoting civil liberties and rights for minorities."

DR. HARDIN is returning to New York from the San Francisco conference held March 7 to 14. At the convention, Dr. Hardin said, delegates met with people of other countries and recognized them as individuals. Too often we fail to think of far off countries as made up of people, she said.

Speaking of the experiences of foreign delegates, she said, "We must take an active part in molding laws to protect life, liberty and property for all people."

"Around the world the YWCA is at work," Dr. Hardin said. "The YW organizations are working with immediate needs, but each is conscious of other problems, with the need for world peace which rises out of the fatherhood of God, and the brotherhood of man."

Extension Week Told by Atwood

National Home Demonstration week will be observed by Nebraska's home extension clubs May 1-7. This announcement was made recently by Miss Florence J. Atwood, state home extension leader, at Ag college.

One of the objectives listed for this year's observance is the emphasis of opportunities in extension work in bringing about a better understanding of international problems. Theme of the week will be "Today's Home Builds Tomorrow's World."

'One Great Hour' On Air Saturday

"One Great Hour," Lenten Christian broadcast, will take place this Saturday night at 9 p. m. on all four major networks of the United States.

The radio program, sponsored cooperatively by all religious denominations, will dramatize true-to-life examples of the work being done in Europe and Asia through Church World Service.

Discussions on displaced persons, and food, clothing and medicine for the world relief will be heard on the program.

People of the United States have been urged by their churches to listen to the nationwide broadcast and to participate in the Sunday morning service on the same program at their church.

In Lincoln, "One Great Hour" can be heard on stations KOLN, KFAB and KFOR, at 9 p. m.

Swing Your Gal At Last Union Square Dance

Looking for something to do next week? Well, pard or gal, your problem is solved. And to top it all off, it doesn't make any difference whether you have a date or are dateless; everybody is welcome.

Curiosity aroused by now? For you "Swing your pardners" and "Dosey-Do" guys and gals, the last Square Dance will be a big party. This concludes a series which began in February. The party is being held in the Union ballroom, March 29 from 7 to 9.

Dave Sanders from Ag College will do the honors. His calls will be ones already familiar to the dancers. As an added attraction members of the Ag Square Dancing club will demonstrate several
