YM to Sponsor Swiss Movie, 'Eternal Mask'

"...brilliantly acted."
"...engrossing and dramatic"

"...excellently produced."

The adjectives roll off the critics' tongues in praise of the Swiss movie, "The Eternal Mask," to be shown at Love Library auditorium at 8 p. m. Friday and Saturdays evenings.

Sponsored by the YMCA, the film delves into the psychological by plunging into the subconscious of a young doctor's mind.

ROBERT LITTELL, noted critic of the cinema, revealed his impression of "The Eternal Mask." Stated Littell, "A prolonged diet of Hollywood films produces in me symptoms of something rather like scurvy. My eyes water, my hair falls out, I lie prostrate in my bunk and in my weakened condition I see films twice over—which is often not very much worse than seeing them only once. But relief from domestic-film scurvy is not the only reason why you should see "The Eternal Mask" which is the first Swiss film I remember having seen, and I hope not the last."

Critic Littell is but one of dozens of film reviewers who have lauded the imported picture. The New York Times commented that "ordinary superlatives would be ridiculous, comparisons impossible. It is a mature and intensely interesting drama."
