

TO OPEN HUSKER SEASON MONDAY—Jim Sandstedt, veteran Husker batter has been named by Coach Tony Sharpe to open Nebraska's baseball season Monday against Baylor University. Elroy "Lefty" Gloystein will start the second game.

Husker Entries Successful In Relay Preliminaries

University of Nebraska cindermen moved successfully through qualifying heats Friday in the Texas Relays. Individual qualifiers were Dick Hutton and Dick Pederit, while the 440 and 800 quartets moved into the finals in those baton events.

Hutton's opponents in the Saturday finals will include such apt men as Bientz of Tulane, Samuels and Parker of Texas, and Aldridge of Oklahoma A. & M. Pederit ran second to Rollie Prather of Kansas State in the iron ball with a 48½ foot heave.

Sprint medley finals were run Friday with Nebraska's entry of Loyal Hurlburt, Fritz Ware, Harry Meginnis, and Jim Martin finishing third. Oklahoma A. & M. and Texas Tech took first and second.

The Husker 440 and 800 teams paced qualifiers in both events, clocking a 1:28.3 in the half-mile, and :42.5 in the quarter. The Scarlet hopes in the 800 finals received a boost when John Robertson, Texas anchor man pulled a muscle and failed to finish. The two squads are composed of Dick Hutton, Harry Meginnis, Fritz Ware, and Alan Thompson.

Nebraska Results in Texas Relays

Sprint medley relay: Third, won by Oklahoma Aggies.
440-yard relay: Second, won by Oklahoma Sooners.
Two-mile relay: Second, won by Oklahoma A. & M.
800-yard relay: Second, won by Oklahoma A. & M.
Kehl tied for second in the pole vault, clearing 13 feet 6 inches; won by Rasmussen, Oregon, 14 feet, 2¼ inches.
Pederit was third in the shot put with a 49 foot, 10½ inch put; won by Prather, Kansas State, 50 feet, 11¼ inches.

A dual between Nebraska and Kansas is expected in the two-mile relay which is run off Saturday without preliminaries. The Huskers have a good chance of taking the event with standout 880 men Loyal Hurlburt, Jim Martin, Harold Kopf, and sophomore Bill Mountford. Pacing KU are Pat Bowers, Hal Hinchee, and Hal Karnes.

Leonard Kehl, Big Seven indoor record holder in the pole vault, will meet the stiffest opposition of his brief career in the Saturday

Easter Cards

A deluxe selection for everybody to send and receive.

Goldenrod Stationery Store
215 No. 14. Open Thur. to 5.

All Navy ROTC students who have not passed their swimming tests are asked to report either Saturday, April 23 or Saturday, April 30 to the Coliseum pool to take the tests. The tests will be given from 10 to 12 a. m. on both days.

Sigma Nu Gains IM Playoff Berth

A full intramural schedule was played week as all teams set their sights on the playoffs which start April 7.

In badminton Sigma Nu won a playoff berth by beating Delta Sig's 9-0 and the Sig Ep's 5-4. The Beta's won over the Phi Gam's 5-4, Sig Alphas beat Brown Palace 8-1, the ZBT's took the Kappa Sig's and the Presbys beat the Methodists 12-0.

Phi Delta Theta cinched the squash trophy by shutting out Delta Tau Delta 9-0 in the only squash game.

KK Workers

All Kosmet Klub workers are requested to report to the KK room at 5 p.m. Monday.

Craren Places Ninth in NCAA Diving Compet

Eddie Craren, Nebraska's sophomore diver, ended his first season of collegiate competition last weekend at Chapel Hill, North Carolina, by coming in ninth in the high board diving in the National Collegiate Athletic association swimming and diving championships.

A field of over thirty divers, representing all parts of the country, competed in the event. Craren finished with 320 points to cop the ninth position.

Craren's record at the end of his first varsity year consisted of a third in the NAAU diving championships, a championship in the Midwest AAU championships and a Big Seven title in the conference high board events, in addition to his placing in the NCAA event.

Correction

The Phi Psis beat the ZBTS in water basketball last week. This page had the Sigma Alpha

No High Cost of Washing!

IMAGINE laundering 10 lbs. of clothes for only a quarter!

FOR YOUR added convenience we have installed two modern, automatic dryers and one extractor.

Donald E. Morrow

MORROW'S SELF-SERVICE LAUNDRY

1024 Que St.

P. S. MERELY LEAVE YOUR CLOTHES HERE; WE'LL DO THE WORK FOR YOU.

Facts About B.D.O.C.

HAVE YOU ENTERED?

Winner Receives Sixty Bucks in Clothing. Each Candidate Will Receive Ticket for Himself and his date.

KING'S

FRIDAY, APRIL 29

Everybody Wins. There Are No Blanks. It's All in Fun, and It's All on—

HARVEY BROS.

Entries Must Be in Not Later Than Monday, April 25

Howland-Swanson

We'll be happy as a lark to see you

Tuesday at our

CHARM SCHOOL FASHION SHOW

and hope you'll purr like a kitten at our forecast of cunning, stunning clothes to wear now 'til school's out

...vacation clothes cool as a minted drink for your summer in town or sun.

See you 7:30 pronto!

Models will be:

Myra Maupin, Alpha Chi Omega
Shirley Hahn, Alpha Omicron Pi
Carmen Christoffel, Alpha Phi
Marilyn Beyer, Alpha Xi Delta
Jean Nordgren, Chi Omega
Dawn Daggett, Delta Delta Delta
Shirley Sidles, Delta Gamma
Pat Berge, Gamma Phi Beta

Shirley Baker, Kappa Alpha Theta
Kat Rhodes, Kappa Delta
Jackie Sorensen, Kappa Kappa Gamma
Kathy Seymour, Pi Beta Phi
Hannah Schlons, Sigma Delta Tau
Pat O'Brien, Sigma Kappa
Joanne Bredenberg, Dorm
Camilla Palmer, International House

Eileen Dering, Loomis Hall
Charlene Eggert, Love Memorial Hall
Betts Pfeiffer, Rose Bouton Hall
Alice Sundberg, Terrace Hall
Alice Harms, Wilson Hall
Suzelle Langstroth, Rasmussen Hall
Marjorie Johnson, Rundle Hall
June Hornby, Towne Club