

Delts Spurt To Overtake ATOs, 11-10

Upsets were the feature of the day Monday in softball as more unbeaten teams were knocked off. The big upset came when the defending champion Alpha Tau Omegas dropped an 11 to 10 decision to the Delta Tau Deltas.

The Delts had a big last inning as they pushed over four runs in the top of the sixth frame to take a one run lead. In the bottom half, the first two Taus went out. The following two reached bases, but the next Tau batter flied to deep center to end the game and give the win to the Delts.

Delta Sigma Pi provided another thriller as they topped the DUs 7 to 6, out at the Ag fields.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon took high scoring honors for the day as they punched out 20 runs against seven for Pioneer Co-op.

Other scores: Betas, 11, Sigma Nus, 2; Brown Palace, 14; Delta Chi, 11; AGRs, 1; Acacia, 0, forfeit; Operators, 2; V-5's, 2; Kappa Sigs, 10.

In the horsehoe competition, three games were played. Intervarsity took nine from the Methodists, Newman Club slipped by the Presbys, 5-1, and the AGRs dropped the Kappa Sigs, 6-3.

The intramural department announced that the deadline for the second round matches in the badminton singles tournament must be in by Thursday, May 5. These results must be turned in to the IM office before 5 p. m.

IM Gymnastic Contest Slated For May 9-13

Competition in the intramural gymnastic meet will open next Monday and continue through the week. Six events will be offered: mat tumbling, trampoline tumbling, horizontal bar, parallel bars, stationary rings and side horse.

A contestant may enter any number of events. The all-around champion will be determined by the total number of points made in all events entered.

The scoring will be on a perfect score of 100 points. Half will be given for difficulty and half for execution and form. A team trophy will be awarded to the winning fraternity team.

All men interested in competing should work out this week in the Coliseum basement. Anyone wishing to have instruction should contact Charlie Miller in Room 107 of the new PE building.

Each event will consist of two parts, a required exercise and an optional exercise.

IM Cindermen Will Compete For Relays Title

Wednesday and Thursday, May 11, 12, have been set as the dates of the intramural track relays, according to L. E. Means, head of the IM department.

The meet will be held on the Memorial Stadium track, with each day's schedule to start at 5:10. Four events, shot put, broad jump, 440 relay and the sprint medley relay will be held Wednesday. Thursday's schedule lists the pole vault, discus, 120 yard low hurdlers, 880 relay, high jump and thousand yard run.

The meet scoring will consist of: individual events—7-5-4-3-2-1, and the relays will be scored 13, 10, 8, 6, 4, 2. The meet is a Jack Best event, organizations must have at least five men actually competing to be eligible for participation points and team honors.

An individual or group in the University is eligible to compete except members of the track squad, former track lettermen, men who have represented the University in track meets since April 1, and members of spring sports varsity squads.

Besides Jack Best points, the winning fraternity will receive a trophy. A trophy will also go to the man declared the meet's outstanding athlete. The winning Coach Harry Good wishes all men on the varsity basketball squad to meet in the locker room in the Coliseum at 4 p. m. on Wednesday, May 4, so that varsity pictures may be taken. All men are urged to be on time.

Meinke Outspells ROTC Scholars

Darrel Meinke is the first winner at the manual of arms spell down sponsored by Scabbard and Blade. Meinke won through a process of elimination. He received a medal for the victory.

At the next spell down, to be held at 4 p. m., May 5, in the Drill hall at the Armory, Cadet Meinke will defend his title. Semi-weekly contests for the award will be held throughout the remainder of the semester.

Independent team will qualify all point winners on their squad for intramural medals. All record breakers will receive certificates.

No man may participate in more than four events. The IM department recommends a maximum of three. Track shoes will not be allowed. All contestants are urged to get warmed up early, as all events will start on time.

Last year's competition found the field house, paced by Bill Mountford, now a member of the varsity track squad, winning the championship. Second was Alpha Tau Omega, and third Phi Delta Theta.

Husker Swimming Coach in Hospital

Coach Hollie Lepley, veteran swim mentor, underwent an appendicitis operation last Thursday at Lincoln General hospital. Coach Lepley is currently running a Life Saving and Water Safety class in the Coliseum. In his absence the class is being taken by Warren "Web" Emery.
