

Cornhusker, Cornshucks Staff Position Filings To Open Today

Filings for fourteen editorial and business positions on the 1949-50 Cornshucks and Cornhusker staffs will open May 4 and close Thursday May 12 at noon. Interviews will be held May 14 at 9 a.m.

Applications, which may be picked up at the School of Journalism office, 316 Burnett, will be made for the following positions: Cornhusker

- 1 editor
- 3 managing editors
- 1 business manager
- 3 assistant business managers,

- Cornshucks . . .
- 1 editor
- 2 managing editors
- 1 business manager
- 2 assistant business managers.

Positions on the Daily Nebraskan may be applied for starting May 11. Filings will remain open until noon May 19, and interviews with the Publications Board will begin May 21 at 9 a.m.

Daily Nebraskan positions to be filled are:

- 1 editor
- 2 managing editors
- 5 news editors
- 1 ag editor
- 1 sports editor
- 1 business manager
- 3 assistant business managers.

The Publications board, which is made up of three elected students and four faculty members, make all appointments for paid positions on the three publications. Chairman of the board and a non-voting member is Dr. William F. Swindler, head of the School of Journalism.

Army To Build College Grad Officer Corps

To more adequately settle "problems of management, research, operations and leadership, the United States Air Force has announced a program to build an officer corps composed in large part of college graduates.

Efficient solutions of these problems depend on a highly competent officer corps composed mainly of college-trained men and women, according to Gen. Staff of the Air Force.

HE EXPLAINED that for college graduates interested in flying careers, the Air Force is reserving a number of places in its summer and early fall Aviation Cadet classes. The purpose is to permit seniors graduating in June to begin pilot training with minimum delay.

Seniors who apply now will have their papers processed so that, if qualified and accepted, they will be ready to begin training in one of the early classes following their graduating.

Students interested are advised to contact local recruiting offices.

TC Discusses '49-'50 Plans

New members of the deans' advisory committee of Teachers' college have drawn preliminary plans for the group's function during the next school year.

Elizabeth Schneider will serve as chairman of the six-member board which is drawn from all departments in the college. Representatives include Dorothy Borgens, and Janet Carr, elementary education; Suzanne Koehler, music; Harry Stayer, commercial arts; and Falp Hunkins, secondary and graduate schools.

Dean F. E. Henzlik and Miss Mary Mielenz, faculty member of the board, outlined the duties of the committee at a noon luncheon meeting. Main purpose of the board is improvement of public relations and conditions within the college, in an advisory capacity to the Dean.

Alpha Zeta Elects Stalder President

Merle Stalder, Ag Junior, is the newly elected chancellor of Alpha Zeta, Ag honorary fraternity. Stalder will guide the activities of the organization during the 1949-50 year.

Other officers elected include Stanley Lambert, censor; Ed Sautter, scribe; Jack DeWulf, treasurer; and Lloyd Wirth, chronicler.

Dr. D. D. Deane of the Dairy Husbandry department was elected to succeed Dr. T. H. Goodding of the Agronomy department as one of the three faculty advisors to the group. The other two advisors are Dr. E. Hixon and Prof. C. W. Smith. Each advisor serves for a term of three years.

Beutel to Address Pre-Law Group

Pre-law students will have the opportunity to learn much about law college curriculums and advantages at 7:30 p. m., Wednesday, May 4 in 201 Law.

Law College Dean Frederick K. Beutel will address pre-law students on the status of law college courses. A short business meeting will be held at which time the NU Pre-Law association will be organized with the hope that it will carry on into the coming year.

ISA Celebrates First Birthday

To celebrate ISA's first year on the campus, the independents will sponsor their annual spring picnic May 7.

The affair, to be held at the Welfare hall, 430 No. 10, will begin at 4:30 p. m. with games of handball, baseball and volleyball. At 6 p. m. the serving will begin, followed by the dance at 8 p. m. There will also be a floor show by local talent.

According to Phyllis Barribo, social chairman, no expense has been spared to make this the "picnic of the year." Tickets are 65c a person or $1.30 a couple.

Job Interviews For Graduates Start May 5

June graduates seeking full-time employment may be interviewed Thursday and Friday of this week and Wednesday of next week.

Personnel from the Nebraska State Employment service will appear on the campus to conduct personal interviews. T. J. Thompson, Dean of Student Affairs, has scheduled the following program:

Thursday, May 5—Graduating engineering students in room 104, Administration building.

Friday, May 6—Graduating business administration students, room 206, Social Science building.

Wednesday, May 11—Graduating students from all other colleges, room 104, Administration building.

Interviews will be held from 9:30 a. m. to 4 p. m. each day.

Graduating students will be given a chance to look into possibilities not only in Nebraska, but also throughout the United States and its possessions. The facilities of the Nebraska State Employment service are world-wide in scope because of its affiliation with the United States Employment service.

The service is in co-operation with the University Occupational Placement council. The aid makes it possible for graduates to eliminate lengthy and tedious steps in securing permanent jobs.

Theta Chi Gets Chapter at NU

Theta Chi has come back to the university campus.

Ceremonies marking the reactivation of Alpha Upsilon chapter of the national social fraternity were held Saturday afternoon, April 30, at Nebraska Wesleyan. The reactivation was held in conjunction with the installation of a new chapter at Wesleyan.

Officers include: President, Warren L. Bull; vice president, Robert E. Wesslund; secretary, William C. Bolling; treasurer, Dwaine Van Pelt.

New members include Raul Brabo, Calvin L. Coulter, William J. Doyle, John J. Heirigs, John Kirchofer, Robert E. May, Robert L. McConnell, Earl H. McNare and Louis E. Mlaska.

Principal speaker at the banquet following the initiations was Stuart H. Kelley, national president of Theta Chi. About 120 members and guests attended the banquet.

AWS Board Announces Inter-Sorority Sing Program

Rules and participants in the Intersorority Sing for Ivy Day have been announced by AWS. The Sing will start at 10:45 a. m. on Saturday, April 7.

The AWS rules are as follows: No more than 25 girls, including the director, may represent any group in the sing.

Each group is assessed a fee of three dollars to cover the cost of judging. No group shall participate without payment. The fee must be paid to Marilyn Moomey, 540 No. 16 St. by May 5.

Groups will line up in order of participation immediately before the sing. In interest of good sportsmanship, the directors are urged to keep the groups quiet while waiting their turn. Each group must be ready when its number is announced.

ALL GROUPS must remain after their participation for recall if necessary.

Questions concerning these rules should be referred to Marcia Teperman, 2-3526.

Participants, their songs and directors in the order of their appearance are:

- Alpha Phi—"Two Bright Stars"—Mary Wherry; Kappa Delta—"Kappa Delta Waltz"—Willistine Clark; Sigma Kappa—"Lovely Sigma Girl"—Myra Hauge; Gamma Phi Beta—"Gamma Phi Sweetheart"—Dora Lee Neidenthal; Wilson Hall—"Deep in My Heart"—Norma Keuten; Pi Beta Theta—"Follow the Arrow"—Ermamrie Tretz; Alpha Omicron Pi—"Dream of Girl of AOP"—Virginia Nordstrom; International house—"The Wind"—Lois Katschler; Chi Omega—"The Sweetheart of Chi

'49 Journalism Banquet Planned

It'll be a big day for the journalism department May 12. On that day, at the Continental Cafe, the four department honoraries, Kappa Alpha Mu, Kappa Theta Alpha, Sigma Delta Chi and Theta Sigma Psi, will sponsor the annual journalism banquet.

An added attraction will be the University of Kansas' Dean Burton Marvin as guest speaker. Also, the Sigma Delta Chi initiation will be held before banquet time. Tickets are $1.75 and are available at the School of Journalism in Burnett hall.

- Omega—"Jo Ann Hansen; Dorm—"If Winter Comes"—Mary Barton; Kappa Alpha Theta—"The Night is Young"—Pat Gaddis; Towne Club—"For Friends Whom I Now Cherish"—Elaine Carroll; Sigma Delta Tau—"Reflections of Sigma Delta Tau"—Bernice Beasel; Rosa Bouton—"Love Is the Sweetest Thing"—Dorothy Taylor; Kappa Kappa Gamma—"Kappa Land"—Margaret Muschetter; Alpha Chi Omega—"The Toast"—Pat Larson; Delta Delta Delta—"Delta Indigo"—Carol Younkin; Alpha Xi Delta—"Sweetheart Song"—Helen Anderson; Delta Gamma—"Delta Gamma"—Delta Gamma Dream Girl"—Virginia Taylor.

Award Contest To Cover Six Writing Fields

The National Five Arts award, Inc., has announced a contest covering six writing fields: the play, short story, short story, popular song, radio script and movie synopsis. Cash awards for winning entries total $30,000, fellowships, $70,000.

The contest is open to college writers only and 23,000 manuscripts and inquiries have already been made at award headquarters, 715 Fifth avenue, New York.

The non-profit contest has attracted the following as judges: play—Moss Hart, Mike Todd, Arthur Hopkins and Whit Burnett; popular song—Benny Goodman, Duke Ellington and Vincent Lopez; radio script—Ed Byron (producer of "Mr. D. A.") and Erik Barnouw (president of the Radio Writers Guild); movie synopsis—Hal Wallis, Anatole Litvak and Rouben Mamoulian.

Competition doesn't close until July 31, and entry blanks and full information may be obtained by writing to The National Five Arts Award, 715 Fifth avenue, New York 22, N. Y.

Wedding Stationery

Invitations or Announcements
Printed or Engraved
Goldenrod Stationery Store
215 North 14th Street

LINCOLN'S BUSY DEPARTMENT STORE
LOCALLY OWNED • LOCALLY CONTROLLED
GOLD & CO.
WE GIVE S & H GREEN STAMPS

"CRICKETEER"
SPORT COAT
featured in Esquire

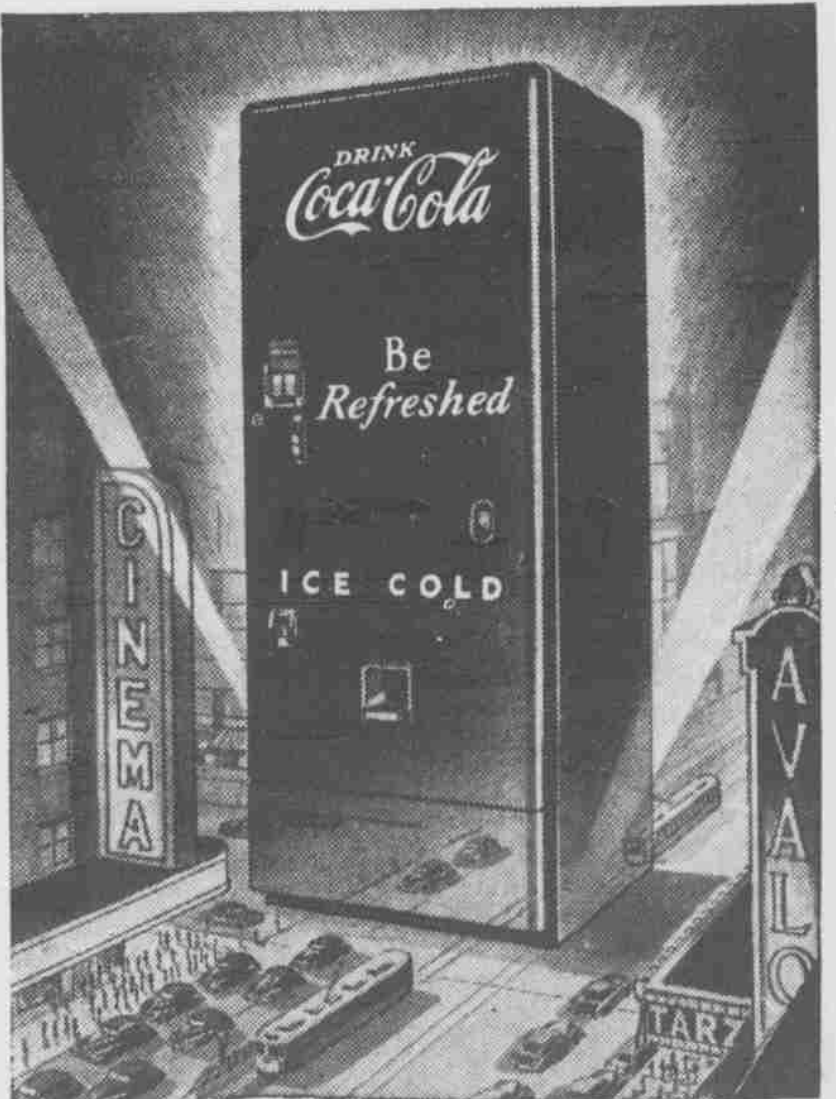

Cricketeer, one of the finest makers of men's sport coats. Hand-stitched. 100% wool fabric. Many colors.

24⁵⁰

in GOLD'S MEN'S STORE
Street Floor

Refreshment And Movies Go Hand-In-Hand

5¢

BOTTLED UNDER AUTHORITY OF THE COCA-COLA COMPANY BY LINCOLN COCA-COLA BOTTLING COMPANY