

Husker Nine To Entertain Sooner Team

Coach Tony Sharpe's Cornhusker baseballers face a crucial test this weekend as they play host to the Oklahoma Sooners in a two-game series. The Sooners are currently leading the league with five wins and two losses.

The Huskers have split every series this year after dropping a single contest to the Sooners down at Norman, Nebraska, was leading in the second game when it was called because of bad weather.

WITH EIGHT games remaining on the docket the Huskers must sweep the Sooner series to stay in the running for the league title. Nebraska will have a slight advantage in that six of its remaining games are at home.

Pitching chores will probably be handled by veterans Jim Sandstedt and Elroy "Lefty" Gloystein. Gloystein has been slow in rounding into form but is expected to be ready, after his showing over at Ames last week.

Game time for both sessions will be at 3 p. m. The Saturday game has been moved back from the regular 2 p. m. time because of the Ivy Day ceremonies which will be taking place.

I-Varsity Team Rallies in Sixth To Tie Presbys

The Presby Student House momentarily stopped the high-flying Intersvarsity softballers Tuesday night by holding them to a 2-2 tie in seven innings. The game was called after one extra inning on account of darkness.

Norm Holmberg, star Intersvarsity pitcher, continued his fine pitching and saved his own game by driving in the tying run with two down in the sixth. All told, Holmberg allowed only four hits and struck out ten.

However, the league leaders managed only three hits off the efforts of Presby chucker, Raleigh Barker, and got their two runs through four Presby errors. The game will be replayed later this week.

The Newman Club climbed into second place in the Denominational League with a 10-0 shutout over the last place Christians. The Catholics now have a 3-1 record.

The Methodists replaced the Baptists in third place in the same league with a 12-1 rout. Lockman pitched four-hit ball for the Methodists and allowed the only run on a home-run.

The Lilies kept their record perfect with a 17-3 romp of Dorm A-1, and the V-5's kept only a step behind by walloping Kate's Boys by a 28-8 score. In the same league the Student Union regained their winning ways with a 7-1 win over Dorm C.

The Ag Men's Club ran up the season's highest total to date with a 34-2 massacre of the University YMCA, and Ag College enjoyed a perfect day as the Ag YMCA won over the Tridents, 9-5.

Geology obtained another victory on forfeit from Architecture, while the Norris House boys were hard pressed to get a win from CYO, 5-3. Dorm B romped over Dorm A-2, 15-4, and ARO squeezed by the Mustangs, 6-5. The Wheels rounded out the day with a 25-2 walk-a-way from the Extra Light Brigade.

BOB GROGAN, veteran Husker shortstop will lead his mates this weekend as the NU baseballers attempt to better their league standing at the expense of the front-running Oklahoma Sooners in a double series.

Mizzou To Invade Lincoln Saturday For Track Test

Nebraska and Missouri track teams will add to Saturday's Ivy Day festivities what will probably be a "sneak prevue" of the coming Big Seven Championships.

A dual meet between the two schools, favorites for the crown, is scheduled the first track event to start at 1:30. In indoor competition Mizzou took a dual victory at Columbia, but the Huskers bounced back to take an upset win in the loop meet at Kansas City.

Both crews are going to be crippled by the loss of star performers. Nebraska will be without the services of Dick Hutton, a member of the Husker's flashy sprint trio. Hutton has been bothered for several weeks by a stomach disorder, and Weir has decided to play safe and save him for the conference meet.

The Tiger's sensational sophomore distance man, Dick McGuire, is sidelined with an ankle sprain. A definite threat to the conference mile mark, McGuire was expected to sweep both the mile and two-mile in Saturday's meet. Also lost to the Tigers will be Jim Howard, an indoor conference point-winner in the high jump.

No replacement for Hutton in the century has been named, but Coach Weir plans to let Hurlburt run with Harry Meginnis and Al Thompson in the 20. Hurlburt will also run the quarter, along with Don Vollertson, Bill Hein and Fritz Ware.

Few marks appear to be in danger. The pole vault standard of 13-6 1/4 may be lowered if Leonard Kehl, hampered by injuries of late, can round back into his indoor form. McGuire's loss virtually eliminates the possibility of new marks in the mile and two-mile. Harold Kopf, NU half-miler, was clocked in 1:56.7 in trailing Kansas' Pat Bowers in the recent dual meet here.

Forfeits Feature Shoe Competition

The ATO's kept in the running in Intramural Horseshoes Tuesday with an 8-1 win over Kappa Sigma while the Phi Gams failed to appear against the Dorm A pitchers. Four other teams took nine games on forfeit; they being the DU's, Phi Psi's, Farm House and Sigma Chi.

IM Dept. Cancels Swimming Course

The intramural department announced Monday that the second half of the current Life Saving and Water Safety course being held in the Coliseum pool has been cancelled. Hollie Lepley, swimming coach, is in the hospital with an appendectomy and will not be able to give the rest of the course.

All students wishing to take the the Water Safety course may sign up for the Red Cross course, which will be given later in the month

Radin Wins Ag Ping-Pong Cup

Bob Radin walked away with the Ag Campus ping-pong championship by dumping Jack Pickel three straight in the final round of the annual spring tussle.

Radin, who is a pledge of Farm House fraternity, is also out for varsity tennis.

at the Lincoln Y.W.C.A., under the direction of Marv Hersey, regional director.

The Life Saving part of the course will end this week. Tests are slated to be given Thursday and Friday.
