Rendezvous Plans Announced by YW

Upperclasswomen will sign up for active participation in the YWCA at the fall Rendezvous, Thursday from 3-5 p. m. at Ellen Smith Hall, according to Jan Nutzman, president.

As a part of the YW membership drive, the Rendezvous is held each year to acquaint new members with the opportunities for work in YW committees and groups.

Cabinet Members Present

All cabinet members will be present to tell new members about the various groups which are being offered this year.

Entertainment in the form of a skit is promised by Pat Larsen, who is in charge of arrangements for the Rendezvous. The skit, which will center around a human machine, will be presented twice during the afternoon at 3:30 and 4:30 p. m. Refreshments will also be served.

Drive on Till Oct. 3

The membership drive will continue until Oct. 3. It is a concentrated effort to interest upperclasswomen in the YWCA, though the membership committee, under the direction of Ginny Gubin, will continue to function throughout the year.

A membership campaign and Rendezvous for freshmen women will be held after the first six weeks.

Only four more days until the second annual Frosh Hop!

Sponsored by the Innocents Society and the Union, the dance will be Saturday, Sept. 24, the night of the Nebraska-South Dakota football game, in the Union ballroom.

The Hop will give NU freshmen a chance to view the various campus organizations and activities. Answers to questions and explanations on the programs and projects will be available to freshmen at the 15 different information booths.

Organizations

Organizations to be represented are: Corn Cobs, Tassels, Kosmet Klub, publications (Daily Nebraskan, Cornhusker and Corn Shucks), University Builders, Co-Ed Counselors, Barb Activities Board for Women, Independent Student Association, Religious Welfare Council, Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., Associated Women Students, Women's Athletic Association, Nebraska Masquers and All University Fund.

The president or head of each organization will be introduced by Innocent Paul Weltchek. A summary of each group's activities will be given.

Garner's Band

Don't miss the dancing in the ballroom to Eddie Garner and his band! The Hop will start at 9 p. m. and will continue until midnight. Any Corn Cobs or Tassels will be selling tickets which are 60c per person.

The Innocents Society stresses that this is not a date affair, although students may bring dates.

Short Short Tale Of False Alarm

For the benefit of all fire-followers confined to the class rooms at 11:03 Tuesday morning, here is the official report.

Students rushed from all directions toward the men's dorm to the clang of three engines and a hook-and-ladder truck. With no smoke to guide them, many had difficulty in finding the blaze. Those that did were sadly disappointed.

The fire at 601 No. 15th was a short in a telephone pole.

Civil Service To Offer Exams

Junior professional assistant, junior management assistant, and junior agricultural assistant positions in Washington, D. C., and throughout the United States will be filled from U. S. Civil Service examinations sometime in the near future, it was learned Tuesday.

Starting at $2,974, the positions offer an opportunity for senior and graduate students to train for a career in the federal service in a variety of professions.

Full information on these examinations will be released within the next few weeks in booklet form.

Committee Filings Show Increase

Filings for the Union committees, which opened Monday, are hitting a record high.

Board members are well satisfied with the interest being shown in Union work. However, since the Union is run for the benefit of the entire student body, it is felt that there should be a representative group working on the committees.

The Union Activities group wishes to encourage unaffiliated students to participate in the filings. The booth will be open at the Activities office in the Union the remainder of the week for those who have not yet had an opportunity to make their committee choice.

Parties Scheduled For Church Night

Friday night is all-campus church party night.

Eleven of the church groups represented on campus will sponsor "get acquainted" parties at their various meeting places Friday and students will be welcome to attend any of the parties immediately following the pep rally.

The events and meeting places are as follows: Christian Student Fellowship will hold a progressive party. Meet at Cotner House following the rally.

"Welcome Party"

Catholic students are sponsoring a "welcome party," meeting in the Union ballroom.

Canterbury club-Episcopalian students. Millionaire's party to be held at the clubroom in the basement of the University Episcopal chapel.

Friday Deadline On Parking Tags

Students expecting to park their cars on University parking areas must get their windshield stickers at once.

Friday is the last day to get stickers from campus police. They will begin enforcing parking rules Monday morning.

Students wishing to obtain parking permits from the Student Council may do so by going first to Roor 305 in the Union anytime between 9 a. m. and 4 p. m. After clearance there you may get your sticker at the check lane at the northwest corner of Social Science.

NU Students To Hear Czech Minister Today

A first-hand report on the plight of Europe's young people will be given to Nebraska students this morning.

Jan Mirejovsky, a Czech protestant minister, will speak at the semester's first all-University convocation in Love Library auditorium at 11 a. m.

Sponsored on the campus by the Convocations committee and the Religious Welfare council, Mirejovsky is currently serving as secretary for the Youth Department of the World Council of Churches.

He is touring this country for the first time to meet with student groups as well as consult student leaders on the program and activities of the American church youth.

Subject of the Czech's address will be "The Crisis of Europe's Youth."

Student Receives Radio Experience

A university scholarship enabled Dale Anderson, Atlantic, Ia., to study at station KOIL, in Omaha for most of the summer. Anderson worked in all departments of the station.

Later Anderson spent four weeks as news editor at station KSIB in Creston, Ia. He admits that introducing Drew Pearson as "Drear Prewson" was his most embarrassing moment.

Gustavson to Welcome Dads; Tickets Limited to Luncheon

"First come—first served."

This was the notice issued by Innocents President Merle Stalder Tuesday afternoon when he announced Oct. 1 as the date of the Dads' Day luncheon in the Union.

For the first time since 1934, the Innocents society will sponsor a luncheon for the dads of University students. Any student, male or female, may bring his dad to the luncheon.

Only 300 Plates.

Since the Union will be able to serve only 300 plates, ticket sales will be limited. Fathers of varsity football players will be honored guests of the athletic department.

Tickets for the once-traditional luncheon will be priced at $1.25 per plate. It will begin at 11:30 a. m. and end at 1 p. m., in time for the day's football game with Minnesota at 2 p. m.

Welcomes.

The University Dads will be welcomed to the campus by Nebraska Chancellor R. G. Gustavson. Patsy Clark, director of athletics, will also be on hand to greet the dads.

Purpose of the luncheon is to give students and fathers an opportunity to get together informally and to become acquainted with Chancellor Gustavson and Patsy Clark.

"Stronger Spirit."

"Since University Spirit appears much stronger this year," Stalder said, "the Innocents Society believes that now is the time to bring back the old tradition of Dad's Day.

"Organized houses are urged to make plans that will not conflict with the noon luncheon. Students also are reminded that mothers or other members of the family are welcome to attend the Alumni Association buffet dinner in the Union parlors.

"Closer Insight."

"It is the hope of the Innocents that students' dads will get a closer insight to the college life of their sons and daughters on this particular day. Since fathers of college students are in a position as taxpayers and voters to influence University policy, we feel that students should make a special effort to honor them on one special day."

Tickets for the event will go on sale in the Union Thursday or Friday. All reservations must be in by Thursday noon, Sept. 29.

Color pictures of the Oklahoma-North Carolina Sugar Bowl game will be shown on the indoor track east bleachers Thursday the 20th at 2 p. m. There will be no admission charge and the public is invited.

Tryouts Begin Thursday for Goethe's 'Faust'

Tryouts for Goethe's "Faust," the University Theater's first production of the year, will be held Thursday and Friday of this week from 3 to 6 p. m. and 7 to 9 p. m.

The production will be presented on October 31 and November 1 and 2, 1949. All of this year's plays will be given at the Nebraska theater, 12th and P street.

The play is hard and extremely difficult to cast. In the cast there will be 14 men and 11 women. The three leading parts, the most difficult ever attempted by the theater, are those of Faust, Mephistophles, and Margaret.

Mr. Williams, who is directing the play, extends a call to all women who have had theater training to try out for the part of Margaret. In addition he extends a call to men and women with some experience in interpretive dancing, as there are dancing choruses in the play.

Anyone interested in reading the play beforehand, see Mrs. Denton at the University Theater office in the Temple building.

Ag Publication Needs Workers

All students interested in working on the Cornhusker Countryman this year are requested to attend an organizational meeting to be held in the Countryman office in the Ag Student Union Wednesday night.

The Cornhusker Countryman is the official magazine of the agricultural college, and is published eight times during the school year by students of the Ag College.

New students are urged to attend if they are interested according to Keith Frederickson, editor of the magazine. Vacancies exist on the staff in editorial, business and circulation departments.

Persons interested in writing should bring samples of their work, if possible, as many assignments will be available for the first issue, slated to appear Oct. 15.

Dust, Oats Gone Grass Moves In

Remember the dust? and the smell? and the oats?

Upperclassmen will know the subject at hand is the landscaping which has been going on around Love Library and Social Science for a little over a year. From plowing to fertilizer to oats NU students have suffered through the beautifying processes.

In case you haven't had time to notice, it's all over now and we actually have grass! Almost grass, anyway. Planted after summer school was over this August, the grass is now up enough so that it can actually be seen. The past few days have seen men busy watering the grass to make sure it will be strong enough to withstand the frosty Nebraska winter.

It looks like Spring, doesn't it?
