Last spring the state fire marshal condemned the Temple theater. His action caused University productions to move to the Wesleyan campus and threatened a cessation of theater activity.

Immediately, students all over the campus raised a cry for the return of the theater. The administration went to work on the problem, prompted by student enthusiasm. This same student concern is responsible for the fact that this year University players will stage shows in the Nebraska theater and that later a new theater will be housed in the temple.

Congratulations to the student body for its fine spirit of cooperation last spring. Since then, however, that same student body seems to have dropped the ball. In spite of its eagerness for near-campus productions, the student

Two things every college man should know!

1. This is a physics major. Always up 'n atom. Learned about falling bodies from Ellery Queen—doesn't give a fig for Newton. Rides his cyclotron on fission trips.

2. This is the "Manhattan" Burt. Sound investment in solid comfort. Soft roll, button-down collar—stays neat day and night. Size-Fixt (average fabric residual shrinkage 1% or less). In white, stripes and solid colors.

Spirit, 1949 . . .

Every year about this time, someone is elected to write a little ditty on lack of school spirit. This is Spirit Editorial, 1949.

It's a shame that students have to be told how to show spirit for their football team. Win or lose, it's Nebraska's football team that probably brings more fame to our school than any other factor.

Maybe the University could open new courses to teach students the fine art of opening their mouth and yelling. If last Saturday's game was an example of school spirit, evidently students also need to be taught how to wave their pom poms back and forth.

We're proud of our new pep group. The big red "N" looks good in the Stadium. But they can't handle the job alone. Three hundred students can't do their jobs plus that of the other 8,700, who have been contributing less than nothing to the cause. Look around. These pepsters, the majority of them freshmen, are setting an example for those upperclassmen who consider themselves above giving the team a little backing.

We're proud of our yell squad. But they can't do the job alone. While the pep squad is knocking itself out for a little cooperation, there sit the rest of the students, sunning themselves.

Before we emerge from this siesta in the sunny Stadium and find that the football season's over, let's wake up and give the team the support they've earned.

body now declines to support these productions.

In plain terms, the theater is in a hole. In spite of fine productions and a good bill, tickets for this year's season are not going like hot cakes. The reason: "nobody knows."

The fact is that the theater has several really fine contributions to make to the campus. The first of these is that of having really fine drama staged at Nebraska. The second is an opportunity for building a national reputation for the University through the theater. But the third is by far the most important. It consists of a chance for college people to see Broadway and world reknown productions for the price of one movie and a sack of pop corn.

Every week hundreds of University students traipse off to one of the Lincoln theaters to see the movies. For the price of one of these movies, the same student can see a better written script cast with University talent.

The residents of Lincoln seem to get a tremendous kick out of supporting the Circle theater. The residents of New York city seem to derive some sort of pleasure from supporting Broadway's many productions. But the residents of the University seem to be afraid to be exposed to the University theater for fear it may take—we guarantee that it will.

ISA Election Fills Two Key Positions

Results of a special ISA election held yesterday reveal Louise Metzger as the group's new secretary. Ben Wall was named the ISA delegate to the Student Council.

Miss Metzger won over Kenneth D. Lindquist to be named to

Man of the Week

For the first "Man of the Week," The Daily Nebraskan singles out Roswell Howard, president of the new Student Council. An activity man through and through, "Ros" has taken enough of his time to get the student governing set up and, we hope, on its feet.

Elected this year's president by the late, lamented Student Council I, Howard's responsibility has been to swing the new council into action. Elections for the new members is still going on, but the good quality of the men and women thus far chosen by the various activities seem to point to a successful year.

With a representative, efficient Howard should not fail those student and interested body behind him, dents who want and deserve more consideration from the administration.

the post. Wall defeated both Paul Reiter and Dorothy Kurth for the Council seat.

The ISA election was held to fill vacancy on the board created by the resignation of Norma Chubbuck, elected last spring.

Now that Beta Sig Gil Gundersen has a car, his "buddies" suspect that he will spend considerable more time at 19th and D street. It was a long walk before, wasn't it Gil?

Rob Raun, AGR, and Chi O sister, Jo Raun, have made a mutual exchange between houses. Rob's steady is Eileen Derrieg and Jo is now wearing Del Kopf's class ring signifying arrangement.

Mortar Board graduate notes: Graduated in 1947, Lorraine Landeryou was married to Frank Lawson, Harvard graduate, last week. Priscilla Flagg is making wedding plans for December when she will become Mrs. Willard Visek.

Wednesday hour dances at Ag promise some interesting developments. This week Merwyn French escorted Jeanie Ward home. Several city campus Aggies weren't too worried about getting home in time for dinner after hiking a ride back with Ann Webster.

Congratulations are in order for another pinned couple. They are Don Stern and Martha Lincoln, an event of last Monday.

Strictly no relation, but seeing quite a lot of each other lately are Pat Gilmore and Bob Gilmore. Likely to be seen out at the Pike Saturday night are Ann Raymond and Bill Henkel, Cheerleader Dick Michalek is escorting Pat Dishner to King's Friday night.

Ruth Ann Hinds is going to help Bob Bierman celebrate his birthday this weekend, even if it occurred last week.

The second football game of the season will be ushered in with another host of social activities on campus. Gamma Phi, Delta Gamma, Alpha Xi, Delta Delta and AOPi are planning open houses for post-game sojers. Other events scheduled for the weekend are:

FRIDAY

BABW Hello Dance at the Union

SATURDAY

Sigma Chi hayride party.
Phi Kappa Psi houseparty.
Palladian program at Temple.
Delta Upsilon picnic.
Ag College Faculty Student reception.

SUNDAY

Theta Xi house mothers' tea. Amidst all the pinning this week, there is news of one unpinning: that of Pat Gaddis and Jim Van Burgh, termination of a two-year romance.

Something new in the way of pinning: The Alpha Xi's saw a sorority mother and daughter pass candy the same night. Mary Mecke announced her pinning to Bill Doty and daughter Marilyn Beyer to Keith Lytle.

Still another engagement: Virginia Seiler, Towne club, and Don Ostermiller.
