RCCU Sounds Call for Student Entertainment

If you've got talent you're in! In the Red Cross talent try-outs, that is.

In order to insure good entertainment for institutions throughout the college unit will combine university talent for its shows. The combining will begin Oct. 4 at 7 p. m. in the Union ballroom, according to George Wilcox, institutions chairman.

Try-out Show.

From the interested students who try-out a show will be planned for institutional entertainment. Entertainers will go to Veterans hospital and several other Lincoln hospitals at regular intervals to entertain patients. Students will be transported in the Red Cross station wagon.

All types of talent are in demand. Singers, dancers, comedians, M. C.'s and musicians as well as small group entertainers are needed. As are caricaturists, bridge rummy and canasta players.

Join Nat'l Guard, —Win Trip to Pa.

A free trip to the Penn State game is the prize awaiting the first ten men recruited by the National Guard in their nationwide drive for members.

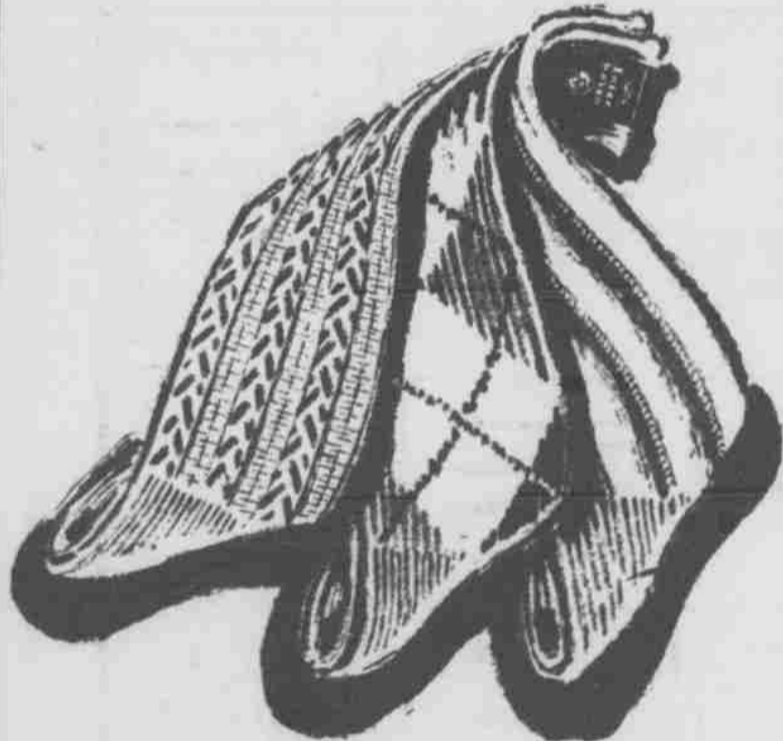

The trip, sponsored by the Nebraska Jet Fighter Squadron, includes a round trip to State College and a free ticket to the game. Members are being offered the same free trip if they recruit two new members.

All students interested in joining the Guard should stop at the booth in the Union lobby which will be in operation from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. on Oct. 2-3.
