"Fall Workouts Essential For Indoor Track"—Weir

Coach Ed Weir, University of Nebraska track maestro, wants all men interested in indoor track to start working out this fall, if at all possible. Coach Weir believes that there are a lot of boys in school who are capable of making the team. Fall workouts are very essential to indoor track. He wants all middle distance men to report immediately.

There are quite a few varsity men working out now, along with a good number of freshmen. All freshmen interested are urged to come out. There will be a freshman postal meet Oct. 15 with Colo. and Kans. More postal meets are scheduled for later in the month.

Quite a few of the most outstanding performers in the state high school meet last spring are working out. The list at the present time includes Jim Abernathy, Bob Barchus, Glen Beerline, Dean Brittenham, Ted Conner, Blake Cathro, Don Coupens, Hobe Jones, Wayne Judds, Dale Schnackel, Jim Sommers, Irving Thode, Dan Tolman, Don Webb, and Harold Wray.

Among the varsity men working out is Esref Aydin, leading two miler, who ran to the airbase and back the other day for his distance work. Don Cooper, indoor polevault champion, is back in competition. He is going to try and run the sprints along with his polevaulting.

Harold Kopf, Nebraska 880 star, who won the Southwest Conference meet in '46 with a 1:55.6 will be back.

The Huskers, Conference Indoor Champs last year, will be without the services of Alan Thompson and Bill Mountford, both dropping out of school. It is rumored that Mountford will be back next semester.

The Huskers are weak in weights at the time, but the fine group of freshman footballers will bolster the weight dept. Always in the past footballers have scored heavily for the track team.

The Huskers have one of the most attractive indoor schedules

1949 Football Champs Lose 6-0

Last year's champs defeated! That was the story as the Sigma Nu's took the measure of Beta Theta Pi. Shepard of the Sigs intercepted a Beta pass to set the way for the only score of the game. On the next play Hinde passed to Isham for the score. The play covered forty yards.

Football . . .

running back by the name of Dave Skrien took over the scoring duties. The first of Skrien's touchdowns came on a break. Husker Ferguson was forced to punt after a 35-yard Nagle to Regier pass was called back by a penalty.

Bye ran six yards to the Nebraska 29 and Skrien twisted and turned his way to the goal-line. His next score came three minutes later. Again a Husker penalty forced Ferguson to kick. This time the ball was downed on the Nebraska 27. Skrien covered the remaining yardage in two rough plays. The scoring jaunt was for four yards.

The game was roughly played all the way with five Minnesota players being carried off the field. The well-conditioned Huskers had two minor injuries. Ralph Damkroger bruised his bad shoulder early in the first period but returned to the game in that quarter. Fists flew in the last period when Dick Gregory jumped on Kenny Fischer after the ball was blown dead.
