scribe the rules governing the same. It shall appoint the staffs and shall execute contracts related to publications. Publications issued by the students of a college or school shall be the responsibility of its dean or director. This sub-committee shall be notified as to the operation of the publication and its staff appointments.

3. The sub-committee on General Organization shall control, through the office of the Dean of Student Affairs, the establishment, operation and termination of any organization created by or operated for students. This will include fraternities, sororities, and all other organizations approved by the Student Council.

Social Affairs

Members of the sub-committee on Social Affairs are Dean of Women Marjorie Johnson (chairman), Prof. H. P. Davis, Ag college, (vice chairman), Prof. W. H. Morton, Teachers college, Miss Mary Mielenz, Teachers college; and A. J. Lewandowski, Business Manager of Athletics.

The sub-committee on Publications: Prof. R. V. Shumate, Arts and Sciences college (chairman), Miss Mary E. Guthrie, Ag college; W. C. Harper, director of the Division of Commercial Activities; and T. J. Thompson, Dean of Student Affairs.

Publications

The Publications sub-committee will also have as an ex-officio member, a Faculty Advisor to Student Publications. The Advisor will assist the Daily Nebraskan, the Cornhusker and Corn Shucks with problems of production. The advisor, to be a member of the University professional staff, will devote a prescribed number of hours a week, to the task of assisting student editorial and business staffs. The advisor, Dean

Graduation Made Easy

A change in graduation requirements will begin with the class of '50 at the Illinois Wesleyan University. The usual C average requirement is changed to a C-average as the student enters his last 90 hours before graduation.

This will help in getting adjusted to college and in finding the proper field for the student.

Thompson said, may be appointed next week.

The sub-committee on general organizations: Prof. C. M. Elliot, Business Administration college (chairman); Prof. Morton (vice chairman); W. D. Harper, Miss Luvicy M. Hill, Teachers college; and Prof. E. F. Schramm, Arts and Science college.

Replacements to the committee will be established on a rotating basis so that approximately a third of its membership will change from year to year.
