Council Probes—Why?

"Uh-huh, there goes the Student Council, investigating again. This time—dances."

These words, or reasonable facsimiles, are already being voiced by numerous students around the campus. In fact, many of them think the Council has nothing to do but investigate and investigate some more.

Evidently students don't realize why the Council is doing this probing. They don't seem to understand that the Council is working for the students themselves. Take the present probe on dances for instance.

Organizations sponsoring dances, especially the larger affairs, sometimes go overboard. Then comes the familiar gripe, "What, $4.00? Not me." This is one thing the Council is trying to avoid—dances which cause students to delve too deeply into their pockets. The Council also desires to obtain a greater variety of dances and to see that they are held at better times throughout the year.

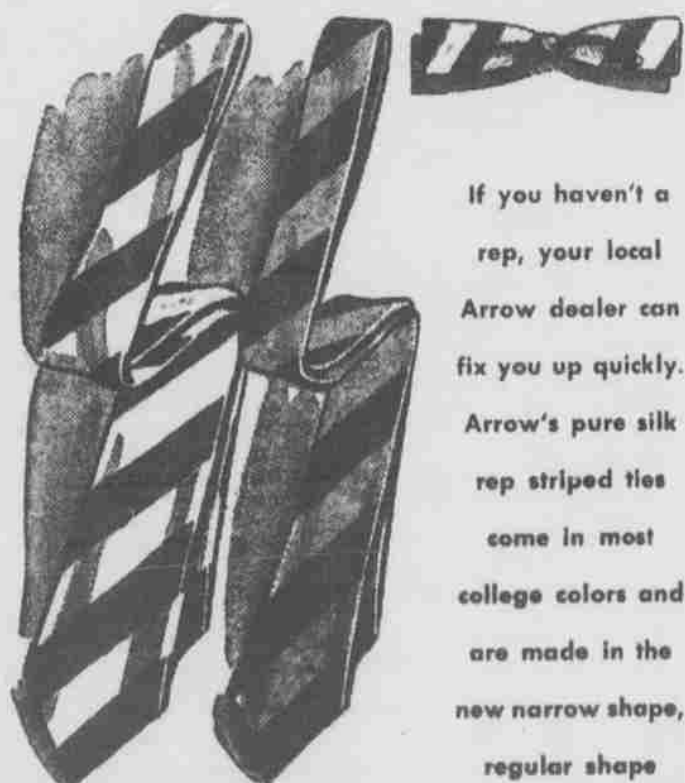

Last year's Council looked into the possibility of lower prices for the Cornhusker, annual yearbook. The price was not lowered, but many facts were discovered as to why and how the price is determined. The Military ball was checked to see if its price could be lowered. No results—but at least the Council was thinking of the students.

This year's Council will no doubt find various activities and organizations which it feels should be checked. Fine—that's what the Council is for.

So more power to you Student Council members. If you can help the students, do it. Some day those who think it's all a joke will appreciate your efforts.

Tri-Delta Awarded Piper Cup At Panhell Banquet Thursday

Delta Delta Delta sorority was awarded the Elsie Ford Piper Achievement cup at the annual Panhellenic banquet held in the Union ballroom Thursday evening.

Miss Elsie Ford Piper presented the achievement cup to Dawn Dagget, president of Delta Delta Delta, at the close of the evening's program.

The cup is awarded annually to the sorority on campus having made the most improvements and achievements during the previous year. Other merits are based upon a list of requirements drawn up by the Panhellenic board.

Alpha Xi Delta received the award last year, and Gamma Phi Beta the previous year.

The guest speaker of the evening, Dr. George Starr Lasher, was introduced by Betsy Yoder, toastmistress.

Lasher, who spoke on "What Should Sororities Do About Discrimination?", is director of public relations at the University of Ohio.

He is also a representative of the international interfraternity council, and past president of Theta Chi, social fraternity.

In speaking of the challenge facing fraternities today, Dr. Lasher pointed out that the four points of opposition come from "the fact that it is a secret organization; opposition from fearful administration, adverse legislation and interfraternity antagonism."

"But," he said, "it's the good in a social institution that causes it to persist."

Week Concluded

This banquet concluded Panhellenic Workshop week activities which have been taking place this week. Discussions for sorority women, Panhellenic alum meetings and exchange luncheons are part of the activities that Workshop week sponsors.

Mary Sue Holland, president of Delta Gamma sorority was the 1949 Panhellenic Workshop chairman. She worked with Panhellenic advisory board and sorority presidents and pledge presidents in planning the activities for the week.

Letter to the society editor:

Madam:

We are of the opinion that the facts used in your column of Oct. 4 were without backing.

There appeared in above mentioned column in paragraph four, the following misleading information:

"—pinmates Torchy Rediger and Bud Gerhart, Louis McDill and Dub Newberg."

Is this statement to be interpreted that said named Louis McDill and the other person are in a state of pindom?

This has caused considerable discussion and embarrassment.

It seems only fitting that aforementioned statement be retracted so that aforementioned person can get back into circulation before dates for the next three weeks have to be cancelled.

Sincerely,

Louise McDill
Leo Geier

(Comment: My most sincere apologies; and best wishes to aforementioned person to get back into circulation.)
