

Yanks Rap Dodgers, 6-4, For Fourth Game of Series

New York, with some superb relief pitching from Allie Reynolds, held off a Dodger rally in the sixth to win the third game of the series Saturday afternoon at Ebbetts field.

New York wasted no time with Don Newcombe, big Negro right hander who lost the opening game 1-0. The Yankees piled up three runs in the fourth to send Newcombe to the showers. Bobby Brown started things off in the fatal fourth with a double off the center field wall and scored a moment later ahead of Gene Woodling who had walked. Cliff Mapes' double into the left field center was the blow that sent Brown home.

Lefty Joe Hatten, Iowa's favorite son, could do no better than Newcombe as pitcher Ed Lopat pounded out the third double of the inning to score Mapes.

The other Yankee runs came in the fifth as a result of a walk to Tommy Henrich, Yogi Berra's single, an intentional pass to Joe DiMaggio and Brown's triple.

Lopat, sailing along smoothly until the roof fell in the sixth, needed good relief pitching to record another victory.

Pee Wee Reese was the starter in the sixth as he opened the inning with a Texas leaguer to center and then the Dodgers began a rally in which nine men strolled to the plate. When the inning was finally over four runs had been recorded on seven hits. John Jorgensen batting for Carl Erskine was called out on strikes to end the big outburst by the Brooklyn club.

From the sixth on Reynolds and Jack Banta pitched no run ball, and the scoring for the third game of the series was over.

Manager Casey Stengel altho glad to win the game hated to use Reynolds after his beautiful performance in the first game. For it was Reynolds who was supposed to pitch the fourth game for the Yanks and not the third. Now the Yankee manager will have to use one of his other many but not so dependable pitchers.

For the Brooks it was a tough game to lose and a very crucial one while for the Yanks it meant that the pressure was off at least for the present. To stay in the running the Dodgers have to win four of the next five games while the Yanks can lose three and still win the series.

Huskers . . .

Nagle tossed a pass to end Bob Schneider from the Kansas State twenty yard line. Schneider took the ball on the five and bulled his way over the goal line.

The play was set up by a pass interception. Kenny Fischer batted a pass by Jon O'Connor into the arms of Dick Regier who ran the ball to the KS twenty.

Nagle's first pass to Bill "Rocky" Mueller was incomplete, but his second aerial hit Schneider for the score.

In the fourth quarter the Huskers took the ball after a Wildcat punt on their own twenty-five. From there, two penalties brought the ball back to the Nebraska one-yard line and set up the only K State score of the game. Jerry Ferguson was forced to punt from behind his own goal line. A hard charging Wildcat line blocked the punt and Ken Johnston, third string fullback, fell on the ball for the touchdown.

"N.U. Met Best Backfield"

Nebraska met one of the best backfields they will all year, led by two sophomores, Elmer Creston and "Hi" Faubion. The Wildcat backs ripped off gain after gain for long yardage. When the Husker forward wall was enough to put a damper on the 'Cats' hopes.

Art Bauer, Shubert guard, was the defensive standout for the Huskers. He teamed with old reliable Tom Novak and sophomore Tracy Busch to make the Nebraska line impenetrable when it really counted.

Rocky Mueller along with Fran Nagle were again the offensive stars. Rocky had two touchdowns called back because of penalties.

IM Free Throw Tourney Opens

All interested and eligible students wishing to enter the basketball free throw elimination tournament should report to the equipment room, Physical Education building, before Oct. 14 for qualifying scores.

Eligible students are those who are not basketball award winners at the University or basketball award winners from other colleges or universities.

Fifty Throws

Each participant will complete 50 free throws with the best thirty-two (32) scores being paired for straight elimination play. A man may represent only one organization and must wear basketball shoes or shoot in stocking feet.

Scoring will be in groups of two's with men from different organizations alternating shooting and scoring; each participant is allowed a limit of ten (10) warm-up throws and must declare his starting throw.

The name of your opponent can be picked up at the equipment cage any time between 4 and 5:30 p.m. during the week of Oct. 17.

Team championship will be determined by points awarded in elimination tournament; advancing to second round and losing in second round, 5 points; advancing to third round and losing in third round, 10 points; advancing to semi-finals and losing in semi-finals, 15 points; advancing to finals and losing in finals, 20 points; champion 25 points. A team trophy will be given to the organization winning the championship; a medal to the individual champion, and certificates to the finalist and semifinalists.

IM Bowling Entries Due

There will be an intramural bowling tournament this year. The matches will be played at three alleys. They are: Lincoln Bowling Alleys, 236 North 12th; Rosewilde Bowling Parlors, 1126 P; and Bowl-Mor Lanes, 304 South ninth.

Deadline for entries in any of the three leagues— independents, interdenominational, and interfraternity—is 5 p.m., Oct. 14.

Each group will arrange with the manager of the alleys for their fee. A forfeited game will cause the alley owners difficulty, since they lose money by holding the alley open. Arrangements must be made to supply the manager a guarantee in case of a forfeited game.

Fees for three lines using the day wood will be about $0.75, and about $0.85 for three lines using the league wood. Team trophies will be awarded to interdenominational and fraternity champs. Independent champions will receive intramural medals.

SAM Remains Unbeaten in IM Football

Intramural football placings began to shape up following Friday's games. Sigma Alpha Mu continued unbeaten by turning back a determined Delta Sigma Phi team, 7-0.

In other games, Phi Kappa Phi provided the potential punch in the last minute to defeat the TKE's, 6-4, while Pioneer was rolling by Cornhusker Co-op, 19-14. In the final game played Presbyterian House ran away from Methodist House, 23-0.
