

YM Announces French Movie For Oct. 14-15

"The Well Digger's Daughter" will be the first YMCA-sponsored foreign movie of the semester. It will be shown this Friday and Saturday, Oct. 14 and 15, at Love Library auditorium at 8 p. m.

The French movie with English sub-titles tells the story of a bewildered well-digger whose daughter has an illegitimate baby son.

Raimu, celebrated French actor, plays the well-digger, father of six daughters. Josette Day is the "daughter"; George Gray, her flyer lover who wins the girl in the course of a motorcycle ride. A top international comedian, Fernandel, plays the father's pal.

Admission to the movie on both nights will be 50 cents.

American critics were undivided in their reception of the movie as top French comedy. The New Yorker critic called it "some of the funniest comedy scenes to come along since 'The Baker's Wife.'"

James Agee in the Nation commented, "It has about it a very remarkable amount of truth and beauty." About the acting, Agee wrote, "Raimu is superb as the well-digger who accepts six daughters and grudgingly admits to a grandson, and Fernandel as his chuckle-headed assistant is one of the international screen's finest comedians."

Time magazine said of the picture's theme, "Surprisingly, the French have contrived, in this tender, low-keyed picture, to use illegitimacy for a few pleasant, amoral chuckles."
