

Huskers Aim for Fourth Victory

BY JERRY WARREN

The Cornhuskers started their last week of practice Monday night with the intent of making Bill Glassford's first year at Nebraska the most successful in the last three years.

All hands are expected to be ready for the all-important tilt with the Colorado Buffaloes. The Buffs are smarting from an upset loss to New Mexico last week and will be plenty tough.

Glassford had his regulars working in sweat clothes while the rest of the squad downed the frosh, 21-0.

Kenny Fischer and Rich Yost were the offensive mainstays for the varsity lineup which included Chuck Buehrer, whose punts were outstanding in the Iowa State game, and Rog Ritter in the backfield.

The offensive line was made up of Dick Regier and Frank Simon, at ends; Herb Reese and Don Minnick, tackles; Dubber Salestrom and Mike DiBiase, guards; and Ted Britt at center.

These men ran at will against a none too potent frosh squad made up of Ted Connor and Phil Gable at ends, Wayne Handshy and Don Bell, tackles; Carl Brasse and Dick Goll, guards; and Ray Rifenburg at center. Dick Heacox, Bobby Reynolds, Kay Curtis and Doug Henninger were in the backfield.

Buehrer Shaken Up

Buehrer, who was shaken up later in the scrimmage, scored the first touchdown for the varsity. He took a long pass from quarterback Fischer and scampered the rest of the way to score.

The varsity scored next on a safety when the bright Nebraska sunset caused the frosh center to pass the ball high over the head of Reynolds who was attempting to punt from his own end-zone. A varsity fumble had given the yearlings the ball deep in the opposition territory and Reynolds was forced to boot the ball out of danger.

Another Fischer pass, this time to Frank Simon for 11-yards, and a 12-yard run by Rich Novak accounted for the rest of the days scoring. Yost converted one extra point to make it varsity 15, freshmen 0.

Yost's touchdown was made possible by a bruising block laid down by Dubber Salestrom, clearing the last frosh defender from the path of the former South High runner.

Heacox's passes and running of Reynolds were the only offensive sparks from the slumbering freshmen team.

Defense attorney, Ted Sorensen, calls Kathy Withy as star witness in Howard case.

Intramural Sportalk

By Bill Mundell

Only eight teams remain undefeated in IM's 1949 Volleyball play as the race enters the third week. On top of the heap with four victories is the Independent leader, Geology. Second place in that league is occupied by ASME with a 3-1 record.

Unbeaten and on top of Fraternity league I is Phi Delta Theta with three wins, and leading the pack in league II is Zeta Beta Tau, also with a perfect record of three victories. Kappa Sigma and Sigma Chi in league I and Sig Nu and DU in league II all have 2-1 records.

Four unbeaten teams are on top of leagues III and IV. The Phi Psi's and ATO's both sport two victories in League III, while Theta Xi has three wins to AGR's two in League IV.

The Lutherans top the Denominational League with two wins and no defeats while the Methodists and Presbyterians trail with 2-1 records.

Eight bowling teams also are unbeaten in league play. Sigma Nu, Zeta Beta Tau, Theta Xi, Phi Kappa Psi, and the Pros lead these teams with six triumphs each. The other three teams are in the Denominational League where the Methodists, Cotner House, and the Lutherans sport three wins and no losses.

Football Honors

With the 1949 football season completed, here is how the honors were distributed. All-University Nine-man Champs—ATO; All-University Seven-man Champs—Brown Palace; All-Un-affiliated Champ—Presby House; Independent Champ—Lilies, V-5s; Fraternity Nine-man Champ—ATO; Fraternity Seven-man Champ—Brown Palace; Denominational Champ—Presby House; Highest Scoring team—Theta Xi (142); Fewest scored against—Lilies, V-5's (4); Best record—Brown Palace (10-1).

HARRY MEGINNIS—Nebraska's seat back, was the whole show in the Iowa State-Nebraska clash Saturday as he battered his way through the Cyclone line and secondary to give the Huskers a 7-0 win.

Six Husker Teams Were Undefeated

Did you know that Nebraska has had two undefeated and unscored on seasons? In 1890, the beginning of Cornhusker football history; the Huskers won their two scheduled games, scoring 23 points, without having their goal line crossed.

Then again in 1913, Coach E. O. Stiehm's great team was unscored on as they won eight straight games. Nebraska's powerful machine racked up 138 points as they completely out-classed all opponents.

Altogether, the Huskers have produced six undefeated seasons—including 1914 when the Huskers were held to a tie by one team to ruin their perfect slate.

Four Mat Lettermen Back To Aid Loop Title Defense

"Pat" Patterson's conference wrestling champions will enter the 1950 title race with four returning individual winners.

Heavyweight Mike DiBiase and Bob Yambor, 121 pounder, are expected to continue their winning ways. DiBiase has won his event for the past three seasons while Yambor has held his title for two years.

Herb Reese, 175 pounds, and Mickey Sparano, 136 pounds, are the other returning winners. Jack Tamai, who won the 145 pound class is the only loss.

Sophomore prospects, Danny Vermillion and Don Rauh are being counted on by Patterson for added strength.

"Although we have almost the same team we had last year," Patterson said, "the other teams in the conference have greatly improved."

The Oklahoma freshman team beat the varsity in every weight, while the Kansas State frosh dropped only two weights to the varsity in their duel, Patterson said.

The Husker tutor stated that the boys must develop as a conditioned reflex. "If you stop to think, you're lost," he added.

"Pat" plans to start individual matches about Dec. 1. The matches will be held to six minutes, he said.

The schedule for the 1949-50 season includes:

- Nov. 30 Weigh in
- Dec. 1 Intramural Tournament
- 10 Invitational meet at Iowa State Teachers
