

Allplaysoski Nominated for A-A

Ant Stops Icallim Cold; Falls Within Sight of Goal

Icallim Allplaysoski, faster than Marry Heginnis, more powerful than Nom Tovak, and more vicious than Gill Blassford; is the Bobs' nomination for all-American football honors.

Allplaysoski, one of the few 'Irishmen' who happened to escape the evil clutches of Lrank Feahy, came to Cornhollow in 1890 when the glorious football regime of Col. Konsuella Hockenbocken began.

Adding to his glory, Icallim almost singly held the all-powerful Cornstillery team down to a 99-0 victory—the first time in many years that the locals have been able to hold an opponent to less than 100 points.

Having had to save his 'atomic' play until the locals were within the opponents' 10-yard line, Icallim gained his 'chance of a lifetime' when the "Timid-Soul" recovered a fumble on the 'Bourbon Boy's' ten yard stripe.

Shouting 12-12, Allplaysoski called out the signals. The ball was snapped. Icallim charged into a gaping hole in the center of the line—for the first time in history it looked like Cornhollow was to have the long-awaited TD. But luck was against us, Icallim tripped over a twig that had been dragged onto the field by an ant, falling on the one inch line as the gun went off ending the game.

Parlor Wrestling To Feature 'Bull'

Windy Happybooten, PU's ever losing parlor wrestling coach, announced Wednesday that Bull Mchilovich, 75 pounds of dynamite, would be ready for the annual free-for-all.

The other contenders for individual extramural honors are heavyweight Andros Patrick Smith and Rah Rah Jones, favorite of all drag out hour dances.

Bull, playing his tenth year of parlor wrestling, is hoping for an exciting schedule with more and more hours of participation. Last season Bull was injured in the first part of the year by one of PU's loveliest queen, Betsy Howwhoo in a terrific match.

The match was a tight affair with Bull always coming from behind to tie up the score. In the final seconds Betsy circled her opponent for the big embrace. Moving her 254 pounds into position, she threw Bull to the floor with a thud. Picking himself up Bull retreated to one corner only to find Betsy waiting with outstretched arms. Knowing full well what happens when a lovely coed such as Betsy has her arms open, Bull started to run. Before taking two steps Bull was walked on, crushed and defeated as Betsy showed her muscle and great wrestling ability.

What fools these mortals be—15,000 were soaked to the skin just to watch a football game.
