BY BOB CONOVER
Nebraska won five of eight matches Friday night to defeat Iowa State, 19-8, in a Big Seven conference dual wrestling meet.

BILL STAUFFER—Missouri's leading scorer, will carry the offensive load for the Tigers when they meet Coach Harry Good's re-vitalized Huskers

Gophers Beaten

Nebraska's track Cornhuskers won their second straight duel meet Saturday afternoon by besting Minnesota's Golden Gophers, 55-49.

BUD HEINEMAN — Standing only 5' 10", is Missouri's shortest man on the first string. He makes up for his height with speed which has enabled him to score 96 points.

Husker Tankers Take Double Win

Nebraska's injury-hit tankmen, smarting from defeats by Iowa State and Minnesota, came back strong this week-end as they copped two victories, beating Colorado A&M by 47 to 36 and trouncing Colorado State 60 to 24.

Nebraska will be in much the same position Monday as they were when they dumped K-State Saturday night...

'Buster' After Retherford's NU Record

With 243 points already written into the book, Nebraska's Mill (Bus) Whitehead is almost certain to establish a new Cornhusker individual scoring record before the 24-game schedule is completed.

Taus, Sig Nu's Win Again

Alpha Tau Omega continued along their unbeaten course Thursday by taking their third straight IM cage contest, 33-16, over previously unbeaten Sigma Chi.

Cornhuskers Whip Colo. St.

By sweeping five out of the six events, the Nebraska gymnastics team snowed under a weak Colorado State team 52-28, in the Physical Education building Saturday, Feb. 4.

Tigers Dangerous
One thing is definite, the Tigers are a capable ball club.

Novak and Noble To Be 'Huskers'

Ray Novak and Bill Noble, two Nebraska all-stars have decided to enroll at the University.

Whitehead has his eyes focused on Claude Retherford's all-time mark of 311 points.

Leading in nearly every department of the game where figures are kept, the Scottsbluff senior is clipping along at a 16.2.

Parallel Bars
On the parallel bars Al had to step aside to make room for teammate, Captain Leo Geier, who finished in the first position.

The jinx odds favor the Huskers. Only two teams in the past two seasons, Oklahoma and Minnesota, have topped the Cornhuskers on the coliseum floor.

He is enrolled in the Spring semester as a special student to get the "feel" of college studies.

Wilnes High
Norman Wilnes, sophomore from Sidney, has the highest field goal percentage, connecting on 45 per cent of his attempts.

Top ranked Sigma Phi Epsilon took Phi Kappa Psi apart to the tune of 42-24.

Edwards Cops Breaststroke
In Saturday's meet Bill Edwards of Colorado State picked

In an effort to meet all probabilities, Stalcup has juggled his starting combination, viewing all possibilities for a winning crew.

While in High school at Grand Island, Bill won unanimous all-state honors, being regarded as the hardest running back in the state.

The scoring summary:
Player Pts. Re. Free Throws pts. ave.

Both Sigma Alpha Epsilon's teams were on the winning side Thursday night, both with convincing victories over Theta Xi.

Large Margin
Although winning by a large margin, Coach Jake Geier had the following comment: "We were very slow getting started on the first event, and this week our team is going to settle down to work, and I mean plenty of it."

Regular starters, Anton Lawry, Jim Buchanan, Milt Whitehead and Bob Cerv will round out the Husker starting five.

Nebraska, with a 11-4 record, has averaged 61.8 points per game against 54 for the opposition.

The Husker B squad will tackle Morningside (Sioux City, Ia.) B in the evening's prelim, starting at 5:45.

The Sig Alpha "A" boys had

Next week, the Nebraska gymnasts will tackle a tough Colorado University squad in the Physical Education building.

New Thigh Pads
An addition to the Scarlet and Cyclone Frosh Trackmen Good

Cream's usual attire, they will be sporting new thigh pads. The pads are being used to minimize leg injuries and "charley horses."
