BY BOB BANKS.

The Comhusker wrestling team will make its last home have lost only one conference sppearance of the season at the Coliseum on Saturday night at Oklahoma last week. 7:30

They will meet the Colorado Buffaloes in a conference dual meet.

The only college that both teams have met is Greeley Teachers of Colorado. Respective scores give Colorado matmen an edge over the Nebraskans. This will be the last time for fans to see Mike DiBlase, Howard Doerr, and Mickey Spa-rano in action. DiBlase is cap-tain of this year's squad. DiBlase, Champ In 1947 he was National A.A.U. wrestling champ and last year he won the conference crown. Also in the heavyweight divi-sion is Doerr. Reese Leads Matmen In Race For Trophy

Herb Reese is far ahead of his University of Nebraska wrestling mates for the Earl Luff high point trophy. Reese, who won the award last year, has 32 points after 10 matches.

Louis Caniglia, who missed the last three meets because of a knee injury, is still in second place with 21 points.

Huskers In Finale Saturday

Will the University of Nebraska's basketball team meet the Kansas State Wildcats in the deciding game for the Big Seven championship, or will Coach Bruce Drake's Oklahoma Sooners blast their hopes with an upset victory?

Saturday's tilt marks the last home game for the 1950 season as far as Nebraska is concerned. Four of the five probably starters will be seeing their last game on the local maples—Joe Malacek, Anton Lawry, Milt Whitehead and Bob Cerv. Only Jim Buch-anan will not graduate, he is a
