

NEBRASKAN

THE DAILY NEBRASKAN

Holy Name, Waverly Win Easy 1st Round

First Day's Competition Also 11 Initiated Sees Minden, Friend Wins

Holy Name, Albion, Neligh, and Minden entered the second round of competition of Class B in the 1950 High School Basketball Tourney Wednesday by captain the first part of the second for good.

Mindel fig. 1 pts turing their first engagements.

Chadron Prep, Friend, Dwigh Assumption, and Waverly wor the right to play in the second round of Class C by also winning their first encounters.

Favored Holy Name turned i the most decisive victory of the day by trouncing helpless Paw-nee City, 57-29. The powerfu invaders from Omaha never gave Pawnee a chance as they rolled up a halftime margin of 23-3. Towering Howard Rudloff and Frank Trouba controlled the boards for Holy Name as well as pumping-in 19 and ten points respectively. Steve McGill also counted ten for the winners. Ned Eckman's long shot kept Pawnee from being completely humilifrom being completely humili-ated, accounting for 15 of the losers' points.

Minden Powerful

Minden, Holy Name's chief competitor for the Class B crown, also rolled impressively, crush-ing South Sioux City, 53-34. Led in scoring by Vern Christensen and Marshall Joyce, the unde-cented Whitpress caught fire in eated Whippets caught fire in

,	the ti	nird	perio	d am	1	led	40	-23
	going	into	the	final	. 5	tanz	a.
	South	FREEX	City		14	- 21	- 1	pite
	Remier f	49531	1 - 3 × 4 × A		-0	0-1	3	19
	47Hann f				2	513	0	-2
	Mugeen s				13	14	2	12
	Bauth R				12	3-4		-2
	Bluck E				- 25	0.0	120	- 25
	Petret f	10000			- 2	0.0	0
	Pittenge				-0	1.0	6	- 3
	Kenegn)				0	1.1	100	- ;
	Hickey e				8	0.0	n	- 16
	Plahn #	30.00	*			17.7	_
	549,140,000				NW.	40.17	9.75	79.4

in 320	10-17	3.3	3
fg	11	t	giti
-4	0.0	2
20	3-5	1.	21
-1	1-3	2	1
-	6-0	2
- 12	0-1	1
-5	11-3	23	31
-61	0+0	-0
	4.77	20	23
. 2			81
12	200
at	and		Dor
0	8-8	1	- 4
10		3	- (
2	0.0	0	- 4
	fe-10121250 011 II 00	fg fl 4 0-0 10 3-5 1 1-3 2 0-0 2 0-1 5 1-3 0 0-0 9 17 11 25 01 and 0 0-0 0 0-0	fg ft f 4 0.0 2 1 1 3-5 1 1 1 3-5 2 2 0.0 2 2 0.0 2 2 0.1 1 0 0.0 0 0 17 23 0 0.0 0 0 17 23 0 0.0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0

Totals 24 5-14 13 53 Score by quarters: Albion Surprises

Albion turned in the biggest rprise of the day, turning back favored York outfit, 41-34. York was never really in contention as they seemed to try only long shots while Albion cononly long shots while Albion Continually worked the ball under To Sigma NU the hoop to score.

Jerry Johnson and Carl Peter-Albion attack, getting more than their share of the rebounds in son were the big guns of the addition to scoring 12 and ten James Beaver of the Dukes led his team's scoring with

Addition fg Misers f 1 Devin f 5 Peterson f 5 Poterson c 5 Brown c 5 H Johnson g 6 Finnamn g 4 Warner E 0	1-1 1-2 0-4 2-4 0-0 0-0 1-1 0-0	101110100	Pts. 3 7 10 12 6 0 9
Totals		11 f 1 1 0 4 1 1 1 1 1 2	41 Pts. 4 3 2 8 9
Totals	6-12	12	24

Albion 9 26 34 41
York 8 18 25 34
Officials; Earl Delafield and Sam

Neligh Escapes

Neligh blew a ten point lead the third quarter of its contest with Mitchell and barely escaped with a 48-47 victory.

The winners burned the varsity maples with their torrid scoring in the first half, leading at that point, 33-24. They could only manage seven in the third, however, as Mitchell tied the count at 40 all. A successful stalling game provided the Neligh boys with their win.

way, they overcame the Fiji lead and went ahead to stay with In one of the most thrilling matches of the day, Friend out-lasted Scribner, 39-37. No more four points separated the Sig Nu's. two teams at any stage in the Keith Clouse was the man of the hour for the winners, get-ting a total of 11 points while ting an evening's total of ten. Altman of the Nu's earned nine Linley Davis garnered ten, Neal McDonald led the losing scorers with 13 markers.

Unbeaten Chadron Prep kept its winning streak intact, dropping St. Joseph's of Atkinson in the first round, 40-33. Prep rolled convincingly in the first half, owning a halftime margin of 24-

Classified

FOR SALE-Complete set Harvard classics Al volumes. Red teather binding. Prac-tically new. 4-1855. LOST: Gold identification bracelet be-tween 14th and E and Agr. Hus and Agr Campus. 6-2184 Sobbie. FERFECT around cumpus car. 1826 Ply-mouth with 1946 Dodge engine. Excep-tionally clean. Call 3-2627.

WANTED: Riders to said from Topeka this week end. Bruce. 2-1137. LOST: Carol Blutter's brown Spiral Psychologramics noisebook. Reward. 6-3260 or Ext. 511 4. In their first meeting this year, the Palace won a narrow 31-30 decision. In the Co-op win over Kappa LOST: Speaffer Gold-Top Eversharp, Fri-day affermoon between Andrews and Burnett, Engraved. Please call 2-4886. Sigma, gridder Ralph Damkroger

Mitcheli	fo	ft:		pts
Meeker f		16-45	2	12
Weitzel f	2	11.77	- 3	- 5
Beetle I		0.0	1	- 12
Hill c		-34	- 6	8
Brethour c	15313	013	- 3	- 4
Van Winkie g		11745	16	- 7
Simpson is	n	75-75	3	- 3
Frey g		10.4	-7	- 6
Caprin F		0-0	2	- 6
Canon E		0.0	- 6	- 7
		0.0	. 19	- 10
Totals	16	15-28	28	47
Nelian	fg.	Tt:	£	teta
Francis f	Y	3.4	1	5
Winch I	CHEST	7.7	- 4	4.39
Muckey f Hoggins c Holthus c	h	1-7	- 6	3.5
Hoggins e	7	4-10	4	18
Holthus e	0	0-1	10	10
Van Kirk g		9.3	4
Moon g	100	3-6	- 6	- 2
		4.9	- 01	- "
Totals	17	14-39	22	46
Score by quarters		0.707990	.Here.	977
Mitchell			10.25	1.24

Officials: Bob Day and Sam Skaug. Waveriy Rolls Defending Class C champion Waverly, had everything its own downing Callaway, 50-32

The Vikings started out slow

C-CHADRON

. B-MITCHELL

A-SCOTTSBLUFF

Phi Gamme Delta's unbeaten

string was halted at ten Tuesday night as the Fijis were handed

The game see-sawed through-

Sigma Nu pulled in front at the start of the second half, but couldn't hold it as Ranking of the Fijis dunked two quick bas-

Fijis Have Six

The Phi Gams slowly built a lead and with five minutes remaining held a six-point margin, The Nu's caught fire, With Altman and Trout leading the finally netted the win for the

Randy Rankin of the losers topped the scoring column, get-while Trout contributed seven.

Farm House Falters

reaching the playoffs was dashed to the ground by a hot Beta Theta Pi team Tuesday night.

The Betas upset the Ag cagers,

Subby Ruma led the way for the winning Betas, leading the scoring with 11 points, Roden

Pioneer Co-op paved the way

Brown Palace by downing Kappa Sigma, 39-25. The win gives the Co-op a season's record of 7-4, identical to that of the Palace.

The winner of their second meeting will take undisputed possession of third place in fraternity their second meeting with scored ten for the losers.

Farm House's last hope of successful stalling game

one minute to play.

stantial margins at one time or another

. D-SUNOL

D-HYANNIS

2	tion-Arapanoe inrii	143.2		wn	lC:
ħ.	finally saw Assumption	nn'	The	1937	in 2
8	ner, 50-48, despite th				n_3
#	of Arapahoe's Hoppy	N	leCi	ie:
7	Wayerly	1		101	101
2		38	137	- 3	15
8	Reef f Sheary f	(c)	6:7		14
n.	Peterson f	38	3-3		-2
0	Hall I	-25	0.0
	Dell'e	12			7.0
4	lewell c		0.0		83
	William g	2	8-1
8	Builing g		0-6	5
60	Lindamood g	16	0-1
2	Tyrrell g	0		16
5	.,	1.54	13110	- 10
8	Totale	187	1-20	16	-8
4	Callaway	80	74		př
2	McGuughey !	18	2.3	10	1
	Sellers f	100	1-2	12	10
6	Wilehar t	11	1-2	10
	Pitkin t	10		(41
4	Brega c	4	2.3	4
	Jansen e	0	0.0
20	Dedge g	1	1-2	- 3
	Thomas g	0.0	10/0	5
	Huff g	0	81-0	- 6
	Numer at	:00	0.0	0
	The state of the s				÷
i.	Totale	1903	0.16	70	ā
7	Score by quarters-
	Waverly	12	22	45	16
7	Callaway	8	12	254	ä
				-

By N-Club

Eleven boys were initiated into the ranks of the N Club

Rounding out the first day's football players, one was team activity was the Dwight Assumption-Arapahoe thriller which the baseball squad, and two were members of the football staff.

Dean Callan, who played baseball in 1941, left for the army soon after receiving his "N", and didn't have a chance of being initiated until this

Although there is no making the N-Club Coach Bill Glass-ford and Backfield Coach Bob Grand Island over Boys Town Scottsbluff over Falls City

Among the football players who joined the ranks were Nick Adduci, Chicago: Don Bloom, Omaha, Bill Maxe, Brainerd Minn.; Fran Nagle, West Lynn, Mass: Dick Regier, San Luis Hildreth over Hyannis Panama over Uehling Sunol over Millard Glenvil over Gresham Mass.; Dick Regier, San Luis Obispo, Calif.; Frank Simon, Burchard, Walt Spellman, Omaha; and John Dierks, Nebraska City. Dierks was the student Grand Island over Boys Town

B-NELIGH

A-GRAND ISLAND B-YORK A-LINCOLN NORTHEAST

A-HASTINGS C-FRIEND

B-ALBION .

Husker Gridders Turn-In Impressive Ground Attack

With close to three weeks of Lynn Mass, passed his way for spring football behind them, the Nebraska gridders have made an the two in a third attempt. impressive showing on the ground, but their air attack has been suffering a drouth. Coach Bill Glassford opened this week with a two hour scrimmage in which the offensive team crossed the goal line eleven times. The offensive team was given the ball on its fourth scoring play of the day Ferguson picked up some good blocking, and swept around end for 60 yards

MUNDELL'S SELECTIONS

Class "D"

EPSTEIN'S SELECTIONS

Class "A"

Scottsbluff over Falls City

B-SOUTH SIOUX CITY

D-UEHLING

A-OMAHA BENSON A-BOYS TOWN B-HOLY NAME

B-PAWNEE CITY

A-FALLS CITY

C-SCRIBNER

D-GLENVIL D-PANAMA

Omaha Benson over Hastings

Benson over Hastings Northeast over North Platte

Daily Nebraskan Sports Writers'

Selections in High School Tourney

In Nagle's first scoring attempt he tossed a flat pass to Bloom, who skirted down the sidelines for 25 yards. Nagle 30-yard line each time a score was made.

Looking outstanding in this week's drills is Gerry Ferguson, Scottsbluff veteran, who made an excellent showing in Monday's work-out. Ferguson was the only man to score two touch-

Nagle Passes

The first one came when he took a pitch out from Fran Nagle.

Northeast over North Platte

BANK'S SELECTIONS

Going into the second day of Banks slipped-up on the Mitchell-Neligh and Arapahoe-

By CCNY in NIT

ever, was completely confused before the home-town squad and suffered its worst beating since

The other semifinal match sends top-seeded Bradley against St. John's of Brooklyn. Both teams advanced Monday night.

The finals of the NIT are sched-

(Continued from Page 1.)

Delta. She was sophomore at-tendant to the Ivy Day queen

Organizations' Work.

dles sign out sheets for organized houses. It also sponsors the an-nual Coed Follies show, BABW coordinates activities of unaffiliated women. Among its current plans is an achievement award, to be given the organized, independent women's ouse which makes the most ad-

Coed Counselors arrange coke

vancement in scholarship and dates and special counseling for organization is designed to belp entering freshmen women.

AWS board has charge of the omen's point board and hanuled for Saturday.

Elections...

last year

activities.

Rupp took over in 1931.

the tourney competition, all three

Class "A"

Grand Island over Boys Town

Omaha Benson over Hastings Scottsbluff over Falls City

Northeast over North Platte

Class "D" Hildreth over Hyannis Panama over Uehling

Millard over Sunol Glenvil over Gresham

Class "D"
Hildreth over Hyannis
Panama over Uehling
Sunol over Millard

Glenvil over Gresham

Nagle's third scoring pass was a short flip to Frank Simon, Burchard, who broke away and crossed standing up to complete a 70-yard touchdown march. Other long scoring sprints in Monday's drills were by Nick Adduci, Chicago fullback, with a 55-yard run; Farley Pickering, lanky balfback from Junction City, Kans, who scampered 70 yards; and Jim Sommers, young Lincoln Central grad, who paced away a 40-yard touchdown run. In contrast to Monday's drills, work-out on Tuesday was and scored around right end from five yards out. In the then faded way back and pitched a 35 yard pass to Bob Reynolds, freshman flash from Grand Island, who took the ball away from two defenders and raced 35 more yards for a 70-yard scoring play.

Adduct Scores

not too successful.

Passing was emphasized with Passing was emphasized that the load Other boys taking their turns in the slot were Dutch Meyers, Lincoln, and Dick Heacox, Gary, Penn. Line play looked impressive, and the boys were displaying blocking and tackling which looked sharper than it has looked sharper than it has looked in previous years.

Glassford's first offensive unit had George Paynich and Ted Connor ends, Don P. II and Bob Mullen, tackles; Walt Spellman and Don Strasheim, guards; Ken Schreder, center; Nagle, quarterback; Ferguson and Bill Mueller, halfbacks, and Adduci, fullback.
Other boys seeing action on the offensive lines were Ray Rifenbark, and Joe McGill, centers; Bill Maxe and Carl Brasee, guards; Dick Goeglein and Charles Toogood, tackles; and Dick Regler, Frank Simon, and Larry Carney, ends.
Boys in the backfield were Reynolds, Ron Clark, Bill Wingender, Tony Winey, and Farley Pickering, halfbacks; and Chuck Buehrer, fullback.

Ron Clark Out
Injured in this week's practices were Rep. Dec. Clark valoe. prognosticators are tied with a percentage of 750. All three picked six out of eight games correctly in the first day of play-

Dwight Assumption contests while the Arapahoe defeat also stymied Mundell along with the York-Albion game. Epstein Symed Mundell along with the York-Albion game. Epstein picked two other battles to guess incorrectly: the Minden-South Sioux City and Friend-Scribner Injured in this week's prac-tices was Ron Clark who cracked up in Monday's prac-Kentucky Mauled tice. Clark, Ravenna sophomore, suffered a back injury, and is

Led by the torrid shooting of All - American Ed Warner, the City College of New York pounded Kentucky, 89-50, in the quarterfinals of the National Invitation Basketball Tournament
Tuesday night.
Nat Holman's eager Beavers played like champions before the 18,000 people at Madison
Square Garden, Adolph Rupp's
Square Garden, Adolph Rupp's
Sentucky Wildeats the team he Prossesse backing up the line Kentucky Wildcats, the team he Ponsiegeo backing up the line. labels as potentially his best

Last night Glassford stressed passing, contact work, and fundamentals. The practice session was concluded with scrimmag-

Sig Gams Are Champs; Rout Dorm C, 47 to 26

OD-HILDRETH

B-MINDEN

Captured by Ninth Victory night as the Fijis were handed a 27-24 setback at the hands of Independent Championship

C - ST. JOSEPH'S OF ATKINSON

C-CALLAWAY

C-ARAPAHOE

A- NORTH PLATTE

Sigma Nu. It was the second meeting for the two teams, the stands alone as king of Inde- to 11 points and a lead of 29-18 Fijis winning the first, 41-35. pendent basketball today. The going into the final ten minutes. The two teams are tied for top honors in fraternity league II with records of 10-1 which will unbeaten geologists rolled to their ninth straight victory and the Independent championship Wednesday night, trouncing Dorcall for a playoff in the near future to see who gains the playmitory C, 47-26.

The Dorm men, who reached the playoff finals after over-coming seemingly unsurmount-able odds, fought the Sig Gams every second and even finished out with both teams owning sub-The Phi Gams led throughout the first half, except at the last the last five minutes with only four men. minute when the score was tied

The Dorm boys were without | whistle. the aid of their stalwart center Lee Korte who suffered sprained ankle before the game. Start Fast

The powerful geologists started out in usual fashion and managed 9-2 lead after three minutes A mild Dorm rally closed this margin to four points with about ten minutes gone. Gene Yelkin and Chuck Nunley led the way as the Sig Gams spurted to a 19-11 halftime lead. The Sig Gam reserves played most of the third period and even they seemed to be masters of the neers with 14 markers, Churchill of the losers potted seven. Top ranked Delta Tau Delta gained a berth in the playoffs Tuesday by turning back a stubborn Tau Kappa Epsilon outfit, 42-35.

The Tekes were definitely hot as they pressed the Delts all the way. Halftime score read 17-12 Elmer Vandel and Hal Breetzke topped the Delt scoring with 14 and 11 points, spectively. Breslin netted 12 for the losing Tekes. Cornhusker Co-op won its first game of the year Tuesday by upsetting Delta Sigma Phi, 42-

The Co-op boys routed the favored Delta Sigs for three periods only to see their big lead disappear in the last five min-utes. With only those five remaining the Co-op held a 41-29

The spirited Delta Sig rally was led by Clark Betcke who led the scorers in the game with a total of 16. Don Nelson topped was high-point man for the Pio- the winning scorers with 11.

Mighty Sigma Gamma Epsilon game as they upped the margin

At this point the regulars took over and really went to town for five minutes. Kerr and Nuss spearheaded the attack. Rinman Out

With five minutes remaining Art Hinman of the Dorm received his fifth foul and left the men with only four players. At this point the Sig Gam reserver over again until the final

Two men shared scoring honors in the championship game, one from each team. Chuck Nunley of the winners and Vern Welch of the losers each got an evening's total of 11 points. Nunley getting five

The two Yelkins, Gene and Jack contributed eight points to the geologist attack, Gene on four beautiful long shots. The rest of the scoring was well distributed among the rest of the players.

The Independent champs will now await the outcome of the three other leagues before resuming action in quest of All-University Honors.

other class championships are Delta Tau Delta and Alpha Tau Omega in Fraternity class "A" the Denominational class

	g	11	DI	tps
G. Yelkin	4	0-0	0	8
Reider	0	0-1	4	. 0
Blank	1	3-3	0	5
Peters	1	0-1	1	2
J. Yelkin	2	4-6	0	8
Nunley	3	5-8	2	11
Nuss	2	1-2	5	5
Faust	0	0-0	1	0
Kerr	2	0-1	5	4
Busby	1	2-4	3	4
Totals	16	16-26	21	47

DORM C Krogh 0 0-0 Hinman 1 Welch 4. 0-2 4 Overing 1 Krotter 1 2-6 4 Hemphill 0 4-10 3

Totals 7 12-26 24 26 No more intramural games are scheduled until March 18, Satur-day except for a few specially scheduled contests. Thursday's feature attraction is the playoff of Fraternity league II between Sigma Nu and Phi Gamma Delta. The two teams have split a pair of games this year and finished the regular season in a first place tie. The winner of Thursday's battle will represent League II in the class A playoffs to begin soon

Saturday's feature contests in-clude Alpha Tau Omega "B" against Sigma Nu "B" and Phi Gamma Delta "B" against Beta Sigma Psi "B." In other "B" bat-Current favorites to win the fles Saturday, Phi Delta Theta will take on Delta Tau Delta while Delta Upsilon tangles with

Beta Theta Pi. Phi Gamma Delta in Fraternity Saturday is the last day of class "B", and the Lutherans in regularly scheduled games for this season The true-to-life best-seller blazes screenward! * ADDED * port—Racing Bendl

Warner topped scoring with 26 points, the same number he grabbed in CCNY's opening win Saturday. over San Francisco Saturday, Kentucky, 1948 Olympic champion and winner of the NCAA title last year, was jolted from this same tournament in One of the spiciest matches at the Midwest A.A.U. Wrestling quarterfinals a year ago by Loyola of Chicago. the first game Tuesday night, Duquesne edged La Salle. 49-47 giving them the right to meet CCNY in the semifinals, tothe welterweight clash.

Championships in Omaha will be This match pits Fred Pisasale, Omaha University ace, against Newt Copple, former University of Nebraska star. Pisasale is the deefnding champion from last year. During the regular collegiate season this year he was undefeated. Copple once held the Big Seven 145 pound division crown. He was runner-up in the national A.A.U. meet last year and captured the individual championship the year before that. Copple has maintained a steady interest the Cornhusker wrestling squad. He has contributed trophy in behalf of the Nebraska wrestlers.

Baseball eqach Tony Sharpe has issued a call for all freshmen baseball candidates to be present at a meeting on Monday, March 30 in the N-Club Room of the Coliseum at 7:30

"Original Youth Opportunity" Coast-To-Coast Broadcast

> MARKET IN PERSON WITH

20 # 215 - HEW SONGS - MENT HIBRE 66 PHILIP MORRIS STRES

IN A SEASO HEW SHOUL BROWN Prints 2.66-3.16-2.40-1.86-2.38

new students adjust themselves well to University life. MAIN FEATURES START "Mrs. Mike" 5:45 P. M. 1:09, 3:14, 5:19, 7:24, 9:31 100 ARRESCAS ARSITY STAR PERSON ... "Flying Saucers" 1:00, 4:00, 7:00, 10:00 "Pirates of Capri" RALPH SIGWALD - THE PEPPERSTEE PERCE MACK - SHEPPARD BROSE BER JAY - AL HURST 2:26, 5:26, 8:26 "Western Renegades" Tickets on Sale at 2:29, 5:05, 7:41, 10:17