ATO's, Sigma Nu Reach Fraternity Class 'A' Finals

Phi Deltas Will Battle Fijis For Class 'B' Championship

It will be Sigma Nu versus Alpha Tau Omega for the fraternity A championship Wednesday and Phi Delta versus Phi Gamma Delta for the fraternity B championship the same night. The Sig Nu's and ATO's won the right to meet in the "A" finals Monday night as they took convincing victories over Delta Tau Delta and Phi Delta Theta. The Phi Delta "Bees" wear at the same time crushing the Sig Ep "B" team to earn the right at a crack at the Phi Gams.

ATO's Smooth
Alpha Tau Omega, operating smoothly behind the steady floor play of Hobe Jones and the uncanny shooting eye of Mack Robinson, rolled over the Phi Deltas, 40-27. Robinson totaled 21 points for an evening's work. The Phi Deltas rallied in the third period, narrowing the margin to 22-29 at one stage, but couldn't keep up the pace and faltered for good. Dave Graef and Louie Roper were the big guns in the rally.

Phi Delta Theta "B" had the easiest time of it in the first day's competition. The Phi Deltas thrashed the Sig Ep "Bees" by the score of 47-22.

It all happened in the second half of this affair. Halftime score was 18-12 in favor of the victors and it appeared that the Sig Eps could come from behind. The Phi Deltas thought different, however, as point after point was sent spinning through the nets while the Sig Eps seemed helpless to halt them.

Scoring was well distributed among the winners. Bill Hinkle was top man with a total of 11 while Morgan took runner-up honors with nine. Keith Cossairt led the losers with six.

Tennis and Golf Mentors Faced With Rebuilding

Tennis

Tennis Coach Robert Slezak's chief opponent this season will be graduation. With only one veteran returning from last year's squad, berths for the team are wide open. Jamie Curran was number four man with the net men last season.

Other boys who are leading contenders for this year are Jerry Magee, Omaha; Jeff Dalton, Long Beach, Calif.; Bob Radin, Vero Beach, Calif.; and Pete Peters, Omaha. Radin saw limited action last year. Also bidding for the team are basketball stars Bus Whitehead, Scottsbluff; Henry Cech, Berwega, Ill.; and Andy Buntent, Cheyenne, Wyo.

New Bleachers

Coach Slezak is planning on installing bleachers this spring on the new $50,000 tennis courts outside of the Physical Education building. Also, plans are in the making for a pre-season match between the "old-timers" and this year's squad. Another new feature will be a score board which Slezak has devised. This year a freshman program will be organized to stimulate interest in the game. Freshman prospects are Bob McCune, Council Bluffs; James Wells, Lincoln; Don L. Bohmout, Lincoln; and Walt Weaver, Lincoln. Weaver won the hard court tournament in North Platte last year.

Tigers Choose All-Opponent Five

COLUMBIA, Mo. — Missouri basketball players named an all-opponent team for the 1950 season that was unique in at least two respects. The Tigers' "best-we-meet" lineup averaged better than 6-ft. 6-inches in height, and four of the five chosen figured in the Associated Press All-American selections.

For the season, the Missourians chose these players on their all-opponent team: Clyde Lovellette, Kansas; Dick Schnitker, Ohio State; Milt Whitehead, Nebraska; Don Rehefeldt, Wisconsin; and Kendall Hills, Colorado. Schnitker was picked on the AP's first All-American five, while Lovellette and Rehefeldt placed on the third team. Whitehead received honorable mention.

In the Tigers' all-conference balloting, Lovellette, Whitehead and Hills were repeaters, with Dan Ferguson, Iowa State, and Paul Merchant, Oklahoma rounding out the team.

coln; and Walt Weaver, Lincoln. Weaver won the hard court tournament in North Platte last year.

Other upperclassmen aspirants are J. Frank Redman, Miami, Fla.; Richard G. Oohlheiser, Lincoln; Don R. Kroeger, Omaha; Bob Crook, Lincoln; Marvin Wright, York; Carl L. Fahrenback, Sidney; and Dick Dodson, Fremont. Others are Robert W. Jensen, Fremont; Bob Rogers, Sioux

Heineman Tops Mizzou in '50

Bud Heineman, junior southpaw, is officially "High-man" Heineman on the Missouri basketball record books for 1950.

A little man as Big Seven cage regulars are measured, Heineman flicked in 230 points to lead Tiger scorers. The 5-by-10 left with the baffling jump-shot averaged 9.6 points per game, and hit better than 32 per cent of his field goal attempts. Little Bud might have improved his scoring output, too, if an ankle injury in the Michigan game had not hobbled him over a five-game stretch.

Southpaw shooters were pace-setters in Mizzou's scoring effort. Don Strodt, another left-hander, trailed Heineman with 215 points.

City; Mendell Archerd, Lincoln; and John Dennison, Omaha. First home match is slated for April 18th against Kansas State.

Golf

Golf coach Marvin "Preacher" Franklin is faced with the unenviable task of completely rebuilding a potent varsity squad to represent the Scarlet and Cream this year.

Don Spomer, Vern Strauch, Don Stroh, and Del Ryder, chief strikers on last year's team, all received their diplomas last June. This will be Franklin's first year as tutor of golf. He also assists Bill Glassford, with the Cornhusker gridders. The very versatile Mr. Franklin is also an ordained minister.

Flansburg Returning

Only returning member from last year's team is Steve Flansburg of Lincoln. He was fifth man last year. The nucleus of Franklin's squad will be formed around a group of men from the 1949 freshman team. Chief among these are Joe Gifford, Lincoln; Dick Spangler, Lincoln; and Al Blessing of Ord. Last year the Huskers tied with Kansas State for fifth and sixth in conference standings. Franklin hopes to up his squad's position this year. No practice has been possible thus far because of the weather.

'Rag' Picks All-Big Seven; Five Schools Gain Honors

By Kinmon Karbatos

Milton "Bus" Whitehead, Clyde Lovellette, Wayne Glasgow, Kendall Hills and Bud Heineman make up the Daily Nebraskan's "Big Five" of the Big Seven conference.

Only Whitehead of Nebraska and Kansas' Lovellette were unanimous selections for the first team. The other three positions could have been taken by any one from the second team.

Lovellette was shifted to a forward position on the basis of his showing against Husker Bus Whitehead. Colossal Clyde broke every scoring record in the Big Seven during his first year of competition. He is the only sophomore on the team. The rest are seniors.

Whitehead's tremendous scoring and defensive work made him the number one choice for the pivot slot. Whitehead gained acclaim from all Big Seven sportscasters as well as sports writers.

Glasgow, Oklahoma's main scoring punch, took in the guard position along with Missouri's Bud Heineman. Heineman, like Glasgow, was his team's high scorer.

Coach "Frosty" Cox tabbed his Kendall Hills as the main power of the Golden Buffaloes.

These five players have height and speed as well as excellent defensive ability. They constitute the Big Seven's "dream team."

Kansas State failed to place a player on the first team, but they had two of their favorites placed on the second team and three on the honorable mention list.

"Grandpappy" Clarence Brannum and Rick Harman were the two representatives on the second five. Harman led the Wildcat scorers and was fifth high scorer in the Big Seven.

Brannum picked up his honors solely on his rebounding abilities. The two Kansas State hot-shots had to take the back seat as the season got under way.

Clyde Houchin was the team man of Phog Allen's Jayhawk club. With the scoring load on Lovellette, someone had to take care of the floor work and that job went to Houchin.

Oklahoma's Paul Merchant was, perhaps, the smoothest floor leader of the conference. Had he not been injured the first part of the season, he would have been on the first team.

Lowly Iowa State's little Don Ferguson rounds out the second five. Despite the Cyclone's dismal season, Ferguson played an excellent floor game. Without him, they might not have won a game.

Coach Harry Good's returning champions were kept off the second team, but only because there was not enough berths to handle them. Bob Cerv can be classified as the hustling player in the conference. Lawry was the most dependable of Nebraska's great team.

Bob Pierce is, without a doubt, the most improved player. He came a long way from the first of the season, holding the Huskers together at the end of the season.
