

ESTES CONFERENCE-Participants in the annual YM-YW conference at Estes park, Co.o., unload baggage and equipment which they will need for their week's stay. During the meeting they will participate in group discussions and seminars, besides hearing outstanding speakers. In the background may be seen the mountains which add to the attractiveness of the conference location.

Estes Conference To Theme 'Atom'

the Atom" is the theme of the will be in charge of Bible study regional YM-YWCA conference

Announcement of the program was made by Audrey Rosenbaum, University student who is co-chairman of the meeting. "Estes" is planned for college students, faculty Christian association advisors and professional religious workers.

Estes isn't all listening by any means, veterans of the conference will hasten to say. The varied program includes discussions seminars, bull sessions, fire-sides, leadership training—and recreation.

Total cost of the means, veterans of the conference will hasten to say. The varied program includes discussions sides, leadership training—and recreation.

Houston Smith of Washington university in St. Louis will be the principal speaker and will give daily program talks on the theme.

The National Intercollegiate Christian conference will be the subject of talks by Leila Anderson, executive in the national YWCA. She will explain the conference, held every four yearsonce in every student generation. The next meeting is planned for December, 1950.

Another of the leaders will be

NU Cadet Wins Air Force Post

William R. Mook Jr., is the first University Air ROTC student to win a regular commission in the U.S. air force since it became an individual service b. nch this year.

The 24-year-old senior was different state among the seven re ommended for the regular commission because of his record plans the conference. as a military student. Although the commission has not yet been awarded, it has been approved by presidential and congressional

During the war, Mook was an aerial gunner with the Ninth air force in the European theatre. He joined the air force reserve program upon his return to the United States in 1946.

Mook is a business administra-tion student. He has served as national commander of Pershing Rifles and as president of the Candidate Officer association. He is student executive officer of the University's Air ROTC group, with the rank of cadet lieutenant

He is scheduled to be called to active service sometime after his graduation.

IVCF to Install 250-251 Officers

New officers of the Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship will be installed at the regular meet-ing Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in room 315 of the Union. Betty Zumhingst will be the new presthe post of secretary, and Ed Wood will be installed as treas-

Retiring officers are: Phil Gustafson, Ron Meyers, Marilyn Auserod and Earl Harvey. The Rev. Norman Oliver, pastor of Central church, will give the installation address. Newly-elected committee chairmen will also be recognized.

Recognized

The Barb Activities Board for Women will present its annual achievement award to an independent women's organization or house for the first time at a recognition tea, Friday at 5 p.m., in Ellen Smith hall.

At the same time individual

Following the installations, Warren Berggren, Francis Swartwood and George Wagner will give short talks emphasizing the need for personal Bible study as a phase of the Christian life.

Classified

Freshman Cast Practices For 'Guest in the House'

Production of the first ex- | means to accomplish her own perimental theatre play with a cast of entirely freshman actors is now in full swing.

The play, "Guest in the House," will be presented Thursday and Friday, May 18 and 19 at 7:15 p. m. at the experimental theatre in the Temple building.

Director Max Whittaker stated that the show which is com-that the show, which is com-posed of three acts, will employ the use of full scenery and other equipment just as any University Theatre production.

Thirteen cast members, eight women and five men, were re-cently announced as follows: Diane Downing, Emily; Dick Shubert, Douglas Proctor; Mar-jorie Line, Anne Proctor; Betty Streatton, Aunt, Martha; Alice Stratton, Aunt Martha; Alice Meyers, Lee Proctor; Jack Moore, Dan Proctor; Mary Kay Tolliver, Miriam Blake; Wes Jensby, Mr. Dow; Gertrude Carey, Mrs. Dow; Dave Sisler, Dr. Shan; Lucy Lawrence, Pamela Rhodes; Chris Trap, Cam Traey; and Ward Lindley, John. Production man-ager is Dennis Vernon.

Motion Picture

Weitter by Hager Wilde and Written by Hagar Wilde and Dale Eunson, the mystery play won popular acclaim from Broadway goers. Later it was made into a motion picture with Anne Baxter taking the principal Suspense of the play starts with the neurotic personality of Evelyn. Mr. and Mrs. Proctor, together with their youngster, Lee, are a happy and agreeable family until Evelyn, a cousin of Mrs. Proctor, comes to visit. Evelyn has heart trouble and consequently is treated as an invalid. She has a psychological terror of birds and she plays "Liebestraum" over and over agin on the victrola in her room. Household Change The gradual, but quite noticeable change which occurs in the Proctor household, is slowly traced to Evelyn and her psychoneurosis. Tension is achieved when the Seminars take up the rest of audience begins to realize that tary the morning. These are led by this girl is capable of using any urer.

campuses throughout the region, Militarism Bad, and have the help of an adult resource director, Conference participants select the group which interests them most from the folfaith, ecumenical church, racial college, equality and academic freedom. Joinir Of special interest is the love and marriage seminar held at 5 sention, Dr. Odell cited the despm., daily. This summer the group wil be led by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Link of Denver Univer-that end can be provided by "sissy" sport as many athletes education only with "the spirit think. Balance, endurance, and Evening Program of free inquiry unhampered by rhythm are essential to modern After lunch scheduled and unnarrow military considerations."

p.m., recreation at 9 p.m., wor-ship at 9:45 p.m., and unsched-uled firesides at 10 p.m.

There are 14 Orchesis mem-area and White river terraces, tions on those dates between 2 and Dayis will tell the academy and 5 p.m. Applicants should fill of proposed geological work in out information blanks in the Like seminars, firesides are dis- times, it has a vital defense role, men's group this semester. These the eastern part of the state. cussions, but unlike the morning but the way to peace lies groups are presenting their remeetings, the evening sessions through education and the two cital May 5-6 at Grant Memorial and gourd dance will be outlined book will be chosen by the comare not regularly planned. More should not be mixed or less spontaneous, they cover an even greater variety of sub-

"Everyone has a wonderful time at Estes," Miss Rosenbaum commented. "We all got a great deal from the discussions and last summer, and its fine to see how the YM and YW work on other campuses. They have a lot of good ideas.'

who need financial aid to help cover part of the expenses. Members of all college classes, including this year's freshmen, may at-

A typical day, according to Miss Rosenbaum, begins at 7:30 a.m., with breakfast. This is followed by meditation at 8:15 a.m.

At 9:30 am, the main speaker sets the note for the day in his students selected from various tend the conference.

Day's Schedule

Don Nunnaly of Midland college at Fremont is Nebraska's other co-chairman. Each year a Planning Committee University students who have helped arrange the program in-clude Dave Keene, Dorothy Bow-Phyllis Cadwallader, Neal Williams, Merwyn French, Jerry Young, Pat Larsen, Alice Jo Smith and Sue Allen. Also on the planning committee are Ruth Shinn, University YWCA direc-tor, and Charles Kemp, YM di-

The Estes park conference, with its 800 acres, and 150 build-ings, is located four and one-half miles southwest of Estes Park village in the heart of the scenic beauty of that country adjoining Rocky Mountain National park.

Those familiar with the conference grounds claim there is no other location of such surno other location of such sur-passing beauty, or so convenient to so many points of interest. Within easy hiking distance are trails leading to Long's peak, Bear lake, Loch vale, the Glac-iers, Fern and Odessa lakes and Marguerite falls.

Additional information is available at the YM and YWCA offices. Several University students have already made plans to at-tend the conference.

At the same time individual awards will also be presented.

The award will honor the house which has achieved the most in campus activities, house improvement and scholarship during the past school year. The award will be in the form of a traviling plaque, the shape of the BABW shield. The winning BABW shield. The winning house or organization will keep the plaque for one year.

Last year, 19 independent coads received individual awards. Points are earned during the school year for work in campus activities, attendance at Barbsponsored events and participation in railies and house-sponsored affairs. The award winners will receive BABW activity pins. All women not affiliated with a social scrority are eligible for the individual awards.

The winning house will not be disclosed until the tea on Friday. Refreshments will be served after the presentation of the awards.

National Survey

Said Whittaker: "The climax of the play comes as a shock, but we feel that Evelyn has received her just reward."

Whittaker emphasized that this is the first play ever to be presented by freshmen at the University. He added, "It is a culmination of the year's work that the freshman acting group has done." The group was organ-ized for the first time this year.

Corn Cobs Select Governing Council

Corn Cobs, selected four men Tuesday to form the governing council for next year. They are: Bill Olson, Wendy Gauger, Har-old Gloystein and Arlen Beam. The group will help vice-pres-ident Dick Kuska, arrange the freshman pep group and aid in directing Cob activities during the year.

the year. New Cob officers, Bob Park-er, Dick Kuska, Bob Rogers, and Bruce Kennedy were installed at the meeting.

Ag Groups Plan Banquet May 19

A banquet Friday, May 19, will be a major event of the year for the Vocational Ag association and vocational Ag homemaking majors.

Co-chairmen of the event, which will be in the Union ballroom, are Keith Arterburn and Norma Jean Campbell. Those invited to attend are: all vocational education Ag students, all vocational homemaking majors, supervisors of the state department of vocational education and the vocational education staff of the University.

New officers of the Vocational Ag association are: Carl Gerwick, president, Earl Hultman, vice president, Charles Wood, secretary and Willard Claasen, treas-interests them most from the following list: Churchmanship, campus affairs, political effectiveness, community ser ice, socialism versus the welfare state, fact and versus the welfare state, fact and college.

Orchesis Tryouts Set for Monday

The growing influence of the military in education has been held Monday, May 8, at Grant Memorial hall. All applicants for versus the welfare state, fact and college. Joining the fanks of other participated in Pre-Orchesis.

scheduled committees have meetings. Evenings include recreation at 7 p.m., Bible study at 7:30 keeps this need from being real-ination.

Exam Schedule

Laboratory classes meeting for several continuous boars on one or two days shall meet for examinations as follows:

Classes meeting on Monday and Tuesday shall be examined on the date scheduled for the first hour of their laboratory meeting; wednesday or Thursday classes on the second hour of their meeting; widdle or saturday classes on the taird hour.

Unit, examinations have been scheduled for all sections in the following subjects: (1) Business Organization 5, 4, 2, 14, 14, 156; (2) Civil Engineering 1; (3) Economics 11, 12, 167, 116; (4) Education 61, 62; (5) Electrical Engineering 14, 14, 165; 160, 165, 160, 167; (10) Mechanical Engineering 1, 5; (11) Psychology 70; (12) Spanish 52, 54, 1f sindents have regularly scheduled examinations conflicting with the above specially arranged schedule, arrangements to take such deats have regularly scheduled examinations conflicting with the above specially arranged schedule, arrangements to take such specially scheduled examinations at another time should be made with the department concerned on or before May 17. For example: If a student is scheduled for an examination which c a in the should be made with the Prench examination at another time, and the such French examination at another time.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 24 9:00 a. m. to 12:00 m.—Classes meeting at 3:00 Thurs., or either one of these days. 8:00 s. m. to 11:00 s. m.—All sections in Mechanical Engineer-ing 1.

8:00 a. m. to 10:00 a. m.—All sections in He 41 and 42.

8:00 a. m. to 10:00 a. m.—All sections in tion 141. (Coliseum). 8:00 a. m. to 10:00 a. m.—All sections in French 11, 12, 13, 14. (Collseum). 8:00 a. m. to 10:00 a. m.—All Sections in Span (Collseum)

11:00 a, m. to 1:00 p. m.—All sections in Economics 11, 12, (Collseum). 2:00 p. m. to 5:00 p. m.—Classes meeting at days or four days, or Mon., Wed., Fri., or of these days. THURSDAY, MAY 25

1:00 a, m. to 12:00 m.—Classes meeting at 10:00 a. m., five or four days, or Mon., Wed., Fri., or any one or two of these

FRIDAY, MAY 26 9:00 a. m. to 12:00 m.—Classes meeting at 4:00 p. m., Tues., and Thurs., or either one of these days.

9:00 a. m. o 12:00 m.—All sections in Economics 107.

8:00 a. m. to 10:00 m.—All sections in Mathematics 11, 16, 41, 105. (Collseum)

11:00 a. m. to 1:00 p. m.—All sections in Mathematics 14, 15, 17, 42, 106, 197. (Collseum)

2:00 p. m. to 5:00 p. m.—Classes meeting at 8:00 a. m., Tues., Thurs., Sat., or any one or two of these days. 2:00 p. m. to 5:00 p. m.—Classes meeting at 5:00 p. m. five or four days, or Mon., Wed., Fr., or any one or two of these days.

days.

2:00 p. m. to 5:00 p. m.—Classes meeting at 5:00 p. m. Tues. and Thurs., or either one of these days.

2:00 p. m. to 5:00 p. m.—Classes meeting at 7:00 p. m. Mon., Wed., Fri., or any one or two of these days.

SATURDAY, MAY 27 9:00 a. m. to 12:00 m.—Classes meeting at 9:00 a. m., five or four days, or Mon., Wed., Fri., or any one or two of these four days, or ston., wed., days.
2:00 p. m. to 5:00 p. m.—Classes meeting at 1:00 p. m., Tues, and Thurs., or either one of these days.

. MONDAY, MAY 29 m. to 12.00 m.—Classes meeting at 12:00 m., five days, or Mon., Wed., Fri., or any one or two of the contract four days, or Mon., Wed., Fri., or any one or two of tehs days.

8:00 a. m. to 12:00 m.—All sections in Civil Engineering 1.

8:00 a. m. to 10:00 a. m.—All sections in Business Organization 147. (Coliseum)

8:00 a. m. to 10:00 a. m.—All sections in Education 61, 62 (Coliseum)

10:30 a. m. to 12:30 p. m.—All sections in Psychology 70 (Codescum)

seum)
10:30 a. m. to 12:30 p. m.—All sections in Business Organization 3, 4. (Collecum) 5, 4. (Collseum) a, m, to 12:30 p. m.—All sections in Business Organiz. 156.

TUESDAY, MAY 30, MEMORIAL DAY Classes Dismissed

WEDNESDAY, MAY 31 9:00 s. m. to 12:00 m.—Classes meeting at 8:00 s. m., five four days, or Mon., Wed., Fri., or any one or two of the days, 2:00 p. m. to 5:00 p. m.—Classes meeting at 10:00 a. m., Tues, Thursday., Sat., or any one or two of these days. THURSDAY, JUNE 1 9:00 s. m. to 12:00 m.—Classes meeting at 1:00 p. m., fix days.

2:27 p. m. to 5:00 p. m.—All sections in English 2,
2:200 p. m. to 5:00 p. m.—All sections in English 3, 4,
2:00 p. m. to 5:00 p. m.—All sections in English 3, 4,
2:00 p. m. to 5:00 p. m.—All sections in Elec. Engineering 125, 198, 236, 237.
2:00 p. m. to 5:00 p. m.—All sections in Economics 115.

FRIDAY, JUNE 2

9:00 a. m. to 12:00 m.—Classes meeting at 9:00 a. m., Tues, Thurs., Sat., or any one or two of these days. 2:00 p. m. to 4:00 p. m.—All sections in English B, 1. (Coll-senze)

2:00 p. m. to 5:00 p. m.—All sections in Mechanical Enging 5. SATURDAY, JUNE 3 9:00 a. m. to 12:00 m.—Classes meeting at 11:00 a. m., Tues., Thurs., Sat., or any one or two of these days. 2:00 p. m., to 5:00 p. m.—Classes meeting at 2:00 p. m., Tues., and Thurs., or either one of these days.

Professors to Present Special Science Papers at Wesleyan and instructors will present usually the men against the papers on history and philosophy women, and the losing side perof science, anthropology and forms a dance with gourds. earth science at the Nebraska Academy of Science meetings Friday and Saturday, May 5-6, on the Nebraska Wesleyan cam-

The men are among more than 70 University faculty members and students who will participate in the conference and give renorts on the developments in their respective fields.

ine men are: Mott Davis, James Howard, Anthropolgy; E. C. Reed, Thompson Stout, C. Bertrand Schultz, Benjamin Burma, A. L. Lugn, Walter Militver, William Gilliand, Geology R. J. Pool. Robert Lommasson, T. J. Fitzpatrick, J. R. Blanchard, D. J. Brown, W. W. Ray, Robert Fossland, L. P. Lundgren, Maxin Elias, John Cahill, History and

Philosophy of Science.

Davis will tell of the study of the "early man" in Nebraska as it is being investigated by the University. Excavations have been made in the Medicine creek been made in the Medicine creek workers will apply for the posi-area and White river terraces, tions on those dates between 2

Nineteen University professors game is played by two sides,

The game is a version of the modern guessing games often played by children. According to Howard, two bone beads are conrealed in the hands of one side while the other side attempts to guess their location.

Schultz will tell the group of the value of vertebrate fossils Wreckers Raze as a means of dating geologic deposits in North America. Lugn, Campus Eyesore of the department of geology believes that the Iowan glacial age man must have lasted at least 50,000 years,

1951 Yearbook

Applications will be open May 8 and 9 for section head po-sitions on the 1951 Cornhusker, according to John Connelly, edi-tor of the yearbook.

Freshman and sophomore editors office.

Other positions on the year-

Sorenson to Aid In Bond Drive

Dr. Frank Sorenson of the University faculty, has been named to the state's advisory committee for the treasury's independence savings bond. drive, scheduled for May 15 thru July

He replaces the late Dr. William Nicholas, president of Peru State Teachers college, who was slain last week just as the sav-ings bond division was about to announce his appointment,

Removal of a campus eyesore has been the project of a wrecking crew that has been razing the three story apartment house between the Women's dorm and the Chi Omega house.

Mr. N. L. Smith, maintenance engineer with the University Division of Buildings and Grounds, explained that no expansion is planned for this con-demned property.

Mothers Day

Goldenrod Stationery Store

215 North 14th Street

