

Homecoming Traffic Answer Proposed

A four point plan for solving the homecoming traffic problem was proposed at a meeting of Student council representatives Elaine Esch, Barbara Young and Don Noble; Innocent Dick Billig;

AWS Mart Opens

The doors of 1951 Activities Mart in the Union ballroom will be open to freshman coeds today from 2:30 to 5:30 p.m.

Nineteen organizations will give their official welcome to activity-minded coeds at the mart, sponsored by Associated Women Students board.

New students may sign up for activities in which they are interested at the booths representing the organizations.

Displays of the work and projects of each organization will be shown. Two members of each activity will be in the booth to explain the organization to interested coeds.

The AWS booth will be located at a central point in the ballroom and will serve as an information center. The board consists of 21 girls elected in the spring to act as a governing group for all University women.

Other organizations participating in the mart are: All University Fund, Sarah Fulton, president; Barb Activities Board for Women, Jo Hoff, president; University of Nebraska Builders, Marilyn Coupe, president; Coed Counselors, Mary Hubka, president;

Cornhusker, Dick Billig, editor; Cosmopolitan club, William Sad, president; College Days, Bob Reichenbach, chairman; The Daily Nebraskan, Tom Rische, editor; Home Economics club, Joan Raun, president;

Independent Students Association, Bristol Turner, president; Nebraska University Council on World Affairs, Doris Carlson, president; Red Cross College Unit, Joan Hanson, president; Religious Welfare Council, Pon Chinn, president.

Student Union workers: Tassels, Marilyn Vingers, president; University 4-H club, Gene Robinson, president; Women's Athletic Association, Dee Irwin, president; YWCA, Delores Lovegrove, president.

Student Union workers: Tassels, Marilyn Vingers, president; University 4-H club, Gene Robinson, president; Women's Athletic Association, Dee Irwin, president; YWCA, Delores Lovegrove, president.

Student Union workers: Tassels, Marilyn Vingers, president; University 4-H club, Gene Robinson, president; Women's Athletic Association, Dee Irwin, president; YWCA, Delores Lovegrove, president.

Student Union workers: Tassels, Marilyn Vingers, president; University 4-H club, Gene Robinson, president; Women's Athletic Association, Dee Irwin, president; YWCA, Delores Lovegrove, president.

First, the traffic will enter the proposed route at 17th and R streets. The traffic will proceed down R street; turn north on 14th street and continue until turning east on Vine street. The traffic will then head south on 16th street and merge with the main traffic at the corner of 16th and R streets.

Second, all traffic will be one-way with one exception. Because 14th street is a state highway, a single lane of south bound traffic will be allowed there. No parking will be permitted on the proposed route with one exception, the west side of 14th street. In general three lanes of one way traffic will be permitted on each street.

Third, these streets will be blocked off entirely; 15th from Vine to S, U from 16th to 14th, S from 16th to 14th, and 15th from Q to R. In case of an emergency any of those streets may be made available for immediate use.

Fourth, the Student Council will send letters to the organized houses in the restricted area asking their cooperation by not parking their cars in those streets after 5 p.m. Nov. 2, Permitted cars, general manager of the Elgin Watch Co., for the use of the Elgin parking lot during the evening of Nov. 2.

The committee believes that the various parking lots on campus and the additional space at Elgin will allow each car owner within the immediate area to find a parking place not too distant from his house. Lincoln police will patrol the area after 5 p.m.

NU Almanac

By MARLIN BREE Staff Writer

The moon was a shimmering globe above the tree tops. The old car sputtered along through a desolate part of the country, and then stopped.

"Well, whadda ya know?" the young man asked slyly. The young coed looked up at him, smiled, and pulled out a large flask.

The young man looked at the flask, "Ha ha, and what do we have here?" he asked. "Gas!"

"Why didn't I make 100 in my history exam?" the young student asked. "You remember the question," the professor began, "On why did the pioneers go into the wilderness?"

"Yes." "Well, your answer, while very interesting, was incorrect."

Colder (at dinner table): "Must I eat this egg?" Active: "Yer darn right." Silence reigns supreme. Pledge: "The beak too?"

The weather forecast for today, with the high near 40. Fresh northerly winds diminishing late this afternoon. Hard freeze tonight, with the low near 25.

Pledge (at dinner table): "Must I eat this egg?" Active: "Yer darn right." Silence reigns supreme. Pledge: "The beak too?"

Pledge (at dinner table): "Must I eat this egg?" Active: "Yer darn right." Silence reigns supreme. Pledge: "The beak too?"

Pledge (at dinner table): "Must I eat this egg?" Active: "Yer darn right." Silence reigns supreme. Pledge: "The beak too?"

Pledge (at dinner table): "Must I eat this egg?" Active: "Yer darn right." Silence reigns supreme. Pledge: "The beak too?"

Pledge (at dinner table): "Must I eat this egg?" Active: "Yer darn right." Silence reigns supreme. Pledge: "The beak too?"

Pledge (at dinner table): "Must I eat this egg?" Active: "Yer darn right." Silence reigns supreme. Pledge: "The beak too?"

Pledge (at dinner table): "Must I eat this egg?" Active: "Yer darn right." Silence reigns supreme. Pledge: "The beak too?"

Royalty Candidates For KK Revue Disclosed By Organized Houses

The Prince Kosmet and Nebraska Sweetheart candidates have been disclosed. A Prince and a Sweetheart will be chosen November 16 at the annual Kosmet Klub Fall Revue from the candidates chosen by all the organized houses on campus.

NU Wool Judges Win KC Honors

Russell Schelkopf of Shickley, Clayton Yeutter of Eustis and Steve Eberhardt of Bassett brought the University top honors Monday in the intercollegiate wool judging contest at the American Royal livestock show in Kansas City, Mo.

The team received a plaque from the American Royal livestock association and a trophy from the Kansas City Star. The trophy is a permanent possession of the team that wins it three times.

Schelkopf piled up more points than any other individual in the contest. The University exhibited the grand champion pen of fat lambs, the first-place Shropshire wether and the first-place pen of South-downs.

A University-owned Corriedale was the second place fleece in the national wool show. Nebraska earned second place in the quarter horse judging, fourth in sheep and fifth in cattle.

In livestock judging Nebraska placed fifth. Teams from 19 colleges were in the contest. Yeutter was the fourth place individual in the sheep judging and sixth in all classes. Darrell Heiss of Page was fifth in horse judging.

Union To Give First Faculty Recital Sunday

Faculty members, Jack R. Snider, Mary Jane Waggoner and Earl F. Jenkins, will present the first in the series of faculty recitals Sunday, October 21, at 4 p.m. in the Union ballroom.

Snider will play "Sonata for Horn and Piano, 1st Movement," and "Intermezzo" on the french horn.

Miss Waggoner, pianist, will play "Toccata, D Major," and "Sonata No. 3."

Several of the selections that Jenkins will sing are "As Ever I Saw," and "I Arise from Dreams of Thee."

Accompanists for the recital will be Mary Green and John Blyth, instructors in the University School of Music.

The faculty recital is sponsored by the Union music committee under the direction of Sara Devoe, sponsor, and Barbara Reincke, chairman.

Following the recital a coffee hour will be held in the Union main lounge.

Missionary To Speak At M.E. Student House

Miss Elizabeth Johannaber, Methodist missionary recently returned from communist China, will talk with students at informal "bull sessions" at the Methodist Student house Tuesday through Friday from 3:30 to 5 p.m.

She is also available for personal interviews. Miss Johannaber addressed a YMCA meeting Tuesday night and will speak to another YM group tonight.

Cobs, Tassels Announce Homecoming Float Points

Tassels and Corn Cobs representatives, Jo Ann O'Brien and Jerry Stone, have announced the point system to be used in judging Homecoming floats in the parade Nov. 3.

Student Union Workers

The Revue audience will choose the winners from these lists of finalists. The theme of this year's show will be "Hello Hollywood." Last year the theme was "Broadway."

All fraternities will present a skit and Kosmet Klub will choose six to appear in the show. Show director is George Wilcox and assistant director, Eldon Schafer.

Nebraska Sweetheart candidates are: Alpha Chi Omega, Mary Lou Flaherty; Alpha Omicron Pi, Marilyn McDonald; Alpha Phi, Norma Lothrop; Alpha Xi Delta, Lou Kennedy; Chi Omega, Marilyn Bamesberger; Delta Delta Delta, Carole Church; Delta Gamma, Sue Ann Brownlee; Gamma Phi Beta, Jo Berry.

Kappa Alpha Theta, Amy Palmer; Kappa Kappa Gamma, Adele Coryell; Pi Beta Phi, Catherine Corp; Sigma Delta Tau, Charney Taub; Sigma Kappa, Marian McCulloch; Howard Hall, Laura Lee Otley; Loomis Hall, Shirley Eckerson; Love Memorial Co-op Hall, Lois Kieckhafer; Wilson Hall, Jean Nelson.

Prince Kosmet candidates are: Alpha Tau Omega, Verl Scott; Beta Sigma Psi, Richard Buls; Beta Theta Pi, Bud Wiederspan; Delta Sigma Phi, Chuck Anderson; Farm House, Wayne White; Kappa Sigma, Jack Davis; Theta Xi, Louis Simon; Phi Gamma Delta, Wayne Handshy; Zeta Beta Tau, Marshall Kushner; Phi Kappa Psi, Larry Anderson; Sigma Chi, Don Pieper; Sigma Nu, Andy Batten; Sigma Phi Epsilon, Marty Lewis; Tau Kappa Epsilon, Don Lemkuhl.

Not all organized houses have submitted their candidate. The six finalists will be chosen November 8 at the Union. The royalty, who will be chosen at the Kosmet Klub revue, November 16 at the coliseum will be revealed during the show.

Last year's Prince Kosmet and Nebraska Sweetheart were Bobby Reynolds and Dorothy Elliot.

Students Hosts At Friendship Dinner, Oct. 23

"Friendship through Understanding" will be the theme of the International Friendship Dinner to be held Oct. 23, at 6:30 p.m. in the Union ballroom.

An Arabic dinner will be served under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. William Saad. Dr. George Rosenlof will be master of ceremonies.

All foreign students on the campus are being invited to the dinner. Each will be guest of a faculty member or student.

Anyone wishing to be a host should reserve two tickets at the Presby house by Friday noon. At that time he will receive the name of his foreign student guest.

Tickets are $1 per plate and will be purchased the evening of the dinner.

The Friendship Dinner is sponsored by the Religious Welfare Council and Cosmopolitan club. Hank Holst, Lutheran Student association, and George Okonko, Cosmopolitan club, are chairmen.

Pershing Rifle Members Attend Denver Meeting

Twelve University of Nebraska members of Pershing Rifles left Wednesday afternoon by plane for their national convention in Denver, Colo., Oct. 12 and 13.

The men are Brig. Gen. Thomas G. Irwin, national commander, Col. Jean J. Hunter, Col. Ralph H. Taylor, Col. Gayard W. Albers, Maj. John A. Bailey, Maj. Jack Graf, Maj. Douglas D. Hanson, Capt. William M. Mooney, Capt. Harry C. Haverly, Capt. Richard W. Buermeister, Capt. Darvin C. McAfee and Second Lt. John G. Wirsig.

Union Still Selling Symphony Tickets

Student tickets for the 1951-52 Lincoln Symphony Concert series are still available at the main office of the Union.

The series consists of six concerts, four of which feature guest artists. Richard Tucker, Metropolitan tenor opens the series Oct. 16. Tucker has sung leading roles in every type of opera. He has been praised for roles by Verdi, Puccini, Mozart and Strauss.

Succeeding Tucker will be William Primrose, viola player; Bartlett and Robertson, duo pianists; and DePaur's Infantry chorus.

Student Union Workers

The Revue audience will choose the winners from these lists of finalists. The theme of this year's show will be "Hello Hollywood." Last year the theme was "Broadway."

All fraternities will present a skit and Kosmet Klub will choose six to appear in the show. Show director is George Wilcox and assistant director, Eldon Schafer.

Nebraska Sweetheart candidates are: Alpha Chi Omega, Mary Lou Flaherty; Alpha Omicron Pi, Marilyn McDonald; Alpha Phi, Norma Lothrop; Alpha Xi Delta, Lou Kennedy; Chi Omega, Marilyn Bamesberger; Delta Delta Delta, Carole Church; Delta Gamma, Sue Ann Brownlee; Gamma Phi Beta, Jo Berry.

Kappa Alpha Theta, Amy Palmer; Kappa Kappa Gamma, Adele Coryell; Pi Beta Phi, Catherine Corp; Sigma Delta Tau, Charney Taub; Sigma Kappa, Marian McCulloch; Howard Hall, Laura Lee Otley; Loomis Hall, Shirley Eckerson; Love Memorial Co-op Hall, Lois Kieckhafer; Wilson Hall, Jean Nelson.

Prince Kosmet candidates are: Alpha Tau Omega, Verl Scott; Beta Sigma Psi, Richard Buls; Beta Theta Pi, Bud Wiederspan; Delta Sigma Phi, Chuck Anderson; Farm House, Wayne White; Kappa Sigma, Jack Davis; Theta Xi, Louis Simon; Phi Gamma Delta, Wayne Handshy; Zeta Beta Tau, Marshall Kushner; Phi Kappa Psi, Larry Anderson; Sigma Chi, Don Pieper; Sigma Nu, Andy Batten; Sigma Phi Epsilon, Marty Lewis; Tau Kappa Epsilon, Don Lemkuhl.

Not all organized houses have submitted their candidate. The six finalists will be chosen November 8 at the Union. The royalty, who will be chosen at the Kosmet Klub revue, November 16 at the coliseum will be revealed during the show.

Last year's Prince Kosmet and Nebraska Sweetheart were Bobby Reynolds and Dorothy Elliot.

Union To Explain 'Worker Of The Month' Contest

Students may learn about Union activities at the mass meeting Thursday, Oct. 18, at 7:30 p.m. in parlors B and C.

"Worker of the month" contest, committee activities and workers pool will be explained at the meeting. The Union will also present entertainment and serve refreshments.

Committee chairmen will tell what the workers do and how they are evaluated. Rules for the contest will be given. The pool worker, who does the best and most work will be named "Worker of the month." The first winner will be revealed Dec. 1.

Union committees and their chairmen are: house, Beverly Mann; program, Ernie Bebb; personnel, Sue Holmes; artist series, Margaret McCoy; hospitality, Tom Larson; public relations, Stan Sipple; office, Anita Lawson.

Social dancing, Peggy Wood, folk dancing, Jack Greer; convocations, Carolyn Kunkle; recreation, Eldon Schafer; general entertainment, Thom Snyder; and music, Barbara Reinecke.

House committee handles exhibits, books, crafts and house rules. Program committees evaluate, plans, reports and helps out with new ideas.

The personnel group is in charge of the pool, hours and orientation program. Artist series is a planning board for all the major fine arts. Hospitality handles open houses, coffee hours and serving at all Union functions.

Public relations makes posters for advertising the other committees, and handles pamphlets and releases to publications. Office workers keep the scrapbook, write letters, mimeograph papers and comprise the office staff.

Social dancing committee sponsors ballroom dancing lessons and dances held in the Union ballroom. Folk dancing committee sponsors lessons, dances and exhibitions of national and foreign dances.

Convocation members plan the all-University convocations, for-

College Days Board To Add Members

Members of honoraries and professional organizations will be added to the College Days board following the interviews Thursday.

Anyone who belongs to professional or honorary organizations and is interested in working in College Days should apply to the president of his organization to be an applicant, Bob Reichenbach, president, said.

it happened at nu...

"Oh, honey, look!" screamed a coed to her pinmate at the Nebraska-Penn State game Saturday. "Bobby Reynolds is playing in the game today."

Her pinmate and those within hearing distance scanned the field looking for the familiar All-American half-back.

Not seeing Reynolds on the field, the gentleman told his pinmate that she needed her glasses changed.

"I do not," retorted the coed indignantly. "There's Bobby right out there—see? Number 12."

Number 12, Reynold's number, was playing football; but the 12 jersey was white and purple—not scarlet and cream.

Dance Group To Initiate 14 New Members

New Orchestras and pre-orchestra members will be initiated Wednesday evening, Oct. 17, according to Shirley Sidles, president of the dance group.

The fourteen Orchestras members chosen are Mimi DuTeau, Jane Deppen, Kathleen McMullen, Lois Olson, Larry Pattison, Charlene Katz, Marlene Oehre, Jan Henningson, Peggy Wood, Sally Sveska, Suzie Sveska, Ting Lilly, Barbara Bell and Henrietta Hagelberger.

Names of the twenty-one girls selected for pre-orchestra will be released Wednesday.

Intramural tryouts among sororities will be held before the annual Christmas program.

Advanced ROTC's Invited To Scabbard, Blade Meet

All juniors and seniors in advanced Army, Navy and Air Force ROTC are invited to attend a Scabbard and Blade meeting Thursday.

The meeting will be held in the lounge of the Military and Naval science building at 7:30 p.m.

AWS Mart Preview

Sign on the line... A lot of "John Henrys" will be attached to University organization rosters after today's AWS Activities Mart. The mart, held in the Union ballroom, should interest freshman women in enough activities to keep them busy during their four years in college—that is, four years minus the five-week inactive period.

Council To Select Members For Publication Board Today

Selecting a sophomore, junior and senior publication board member will be the main business item on Student Council's agenda today.

From 4 to 6 p.m. in Union, Room 315, 14 applicants will be interviewed by Student Council.

Applicants are: sophomore, Gerry Fellman, Barbara Hemp-hill, Shirley Hamilton and Charles Kiffin.

Junior: Bill Adams, Glenn Rosenquist, Phil Ostwald, John Savage, Norman Rasmussen, Sally Kjelson, Dick Ford and Jan Schmidtman.

Senior: Cathy Cox and Juanita Rediger.

Applicants' selection will be based upon their suggestions for improvement, experience, personality and time.

Homecoming Traffic Answer Proposed

A four point plan for solving the homecoming traffic problem was proposed at a meeting of Student council representatives Elaine Esch, Barbara Young and Don Noble; Innocent Dick Billig;

First, the traffic will enter the proposed route at 17th and R streets. The traffic will proceed down R street; turn north on 14th street and continue until turning east on Vine street. The traffic will then head south on 16th street and merge with the main traffic at the corner of 16th and R streets.

Second, all traffic will be one-way with one exception. Because 14th street is a state highway, a single lane of south bound traffic will be allowed there. No parking will be permitted on the proposed route with one exception, the west side of 14th street. In general three lanes of one way traffic will be permitted on each street.

Third, these streets will be blocked off entirely; 15th from Vine to S, U from 16th to 14th, S from 16th to 14th, and 15th from Q to R. In case of an emergency any of those streets may be made available for immediate use.

Fourth, the Student Council will send letters to the organized houses in the restricted area asking their cooperation by not parking their cars in those streets after 5 p.m. Nov. 2, Permitted cars, general manager of the Elgin Watch Co., for the use of the Elgin parking lot during the evening of Nov. 2.

The committee believes that the various parking lots on campus and the additional space at Elgin will allow each car owner within the immediate area to find a parking place not too distant from his house. Lincoln police will patrol the area after 5 p.m.

AWS Mart Preview

Sign on the line... A lot of "John Henrys" will be attached to University organization rosters after today's AWS Activities Mart. The mart, held in the Union ballroom, should interest freshman women in enough activities to keep them busy during their four years in college—that is, four years minus the five-week inactive period.

Council To Select Members For Publication Board Today

Selecting a sophomore, junior and senior publication board member will be the main business item on Student Council's agenda today.

From 4 to 6 p.m. in Union, Room 315, 14 applicants will be interviewed by Student Council.

Applicants are: sophomore, Gerry Fellman, Barbara Hemp-hill, Shirley Hamilton and Charles Kiffin.

Junior: Bill Adams, Glenn Rosenquist, Phil Ostwald, John Savage, Norman Rasmussen, Sally Kjelson, Dick Ford and Jan Schmidtman.

Senior: Cathy Cox and Juanita Rediger.

Applicants' selection will be based upon their suggestions for improvement, experience, personality and time.

Twenty Candidates Chosen For UMOC; Voting Starts Oct. 18 To Select Finalists

Twenty fraternities have chosen candidates for the Ugliest Man on Campus contest, sponsored by AUF.

Candidates and their sponsoring houses are: Melvin Bryd, Acacia; Jim Haggart, Alpha Gamma Rho; Dick Claussen, Alpha Tau Omega; Darwin McAfee, Beta Sigma Psi; Bill Pomeroy, Beta Theta Pi; Robert Hallock, Delta Sigma Phi; George Paynch, Delta Tau Delta; Jack Aschewer, Farm House; Charles Rossow, Theta Xi; Ron Raiff, Phi Gamma Delta; George Wilcox, Kappa Sigma; Arnold Stern, Zeta Beta Tau; Ed Gass, Phi Kappa Psi; Jerry Reinhardt, Pi Kappa Phi; Bud Ward, Sigma Nu; Hod Myers, Sigma Phi Epsilon; Ron Sterkel, Tau Kappa Epsilon; and Don Dutcher, Theta Chi.

Voting for the contest begins Thursday, Oct. 18, and continues through four days, ending Tuesday, Oct. 23.

Each vote must be wrapped around a nickel and dropped in voting jars in the Crib, University drug, Campus Inn, Hermie's, or the Ag Union. Any student may vote as many times as he contributes 5 cents to AUF.

Six finalists will be announced Wednesday, Oct. 24.

The UMOC will be presented at the Charity Ball, Oct. 26, at Kings.

Homecoming Traffic Answer Proposed

A four point plan for solving the homecoming traffic problem was proposed at a meeting of Student council representatives Elaine Esch, Barbara Young and Don Noble; Innocent Dick Billig;

First, the traffic will enter the proposed route at 17th and R streets. The traffic will proceed down R street; turn north on 14th street and continue until turning east on Vine street. The traffic will then head south on 16th street and merge with the main traffic at the corner of 16th and R streets.

Second, all traffic will be one-way with one exception. Because 14th street is a state highway, a single lane of south bound traffic will be allowed there. No parking will be permitted on the proposed route with one exception, the west side of 14th street. In general three lanes of one way traffic will be permitted on each street.

Third, these streets will be blocked off entirely; 15th from Vine to S, U from 16th to 14th, S from 16th to 14th, and 15th from Q to R. In case of an emergency any of those streets may be made available for immediate use.

Fourth, the Student Council will send letters to the organized houses in the restricted area asking their cooperation by not parking their cars in those streets after 5 p.m. Nov. 2, Permitted cars, general manager of the Elgin Watch Co., for the use of the Elgin parking lot during the evening of Nov. 2.

The committee believes that the various parking lots on campus and the additional space at Elgin will allow each car owner within the immediate area to find a parking place not too distant from his house. Lincoln police will patrol the area after 5 p.m.

AWS Mart Preview

Sign on the line... A lot of "John Henrys" will be attached to University organization rosters after today's AWS Activities Mart. The mart, held in the Union ballroom, should interest freshman women in enough activities to keep them busy during their four years in college—that is, four years minus the five-week inactive period.

Council To Select Members For Publication Board Today

Selecting a sophomore, junior and senior publication board member will be the main business item on Student Council's agenda today.

From 4 to 6 p.m. in Union, Room 315, 14 applicants will be interviewed by Student Council.

Applicants are: sophomore, Gerry Fellman, Barbara Hemp-hill, Shirley Hamilton and Charles Kiffin.

Junior: Bill Adams, Glenn Rosenquist, Phil Ostwald, John Savage, Norman Rasmussen, Sally Kjelson, Dick Ford and Jan Schmidtman.

Senior: Cathy Cox and Juanita Rediger.

Applicants' selection will be based upon their suggestions for improvement, experience, personality and time.

Twenty Candidates Chosen For UMOC; Voting Starts Oct. 18 To Select Finalists

Twenty fraternities have chosen candidates for the Ugliest Man on Campus contest, sponsored by AUF.

Candidates and their sponsoring houses are: Melvin Bryd, Acacia; Jim Haggart, Alpha Gamma Rho; Dick Claussen, Alpha Tau Omega; Darwin McAfee, Beta Sigma Psi; Bill Pomeroy, Beta Theta Pi; Robert Hallock, Delta Sigma Phi; George Paynch, Delta Tau Delta; Jack Aschewer, Farm House; Charles Rossow, Theta Xi; Ron Raiff, Phi Gamma Delta; George Wilcox, Kappa Sigma; Arnold Stern, Zeta Beta Tau; Ed Gass, Phi Kappa Psi; Jerry Reinhardt, Pi Kappa Phi; Bud Ward, Sigma Nu; Hod Myers, Sigma Phi Epsilon; Ron Sterkel, Tau Kappa Epsilon; and Don Dutcher, Theta Chi.

Voting for the contest begins Thursday, Oct. 18, and continues through four days, ending Tuesday, Oct. 23.

Each vote must be wrapped around a nickel and dropped in voting jars in the Crib, University drug, Campus Inn, Hermie's, or the Ag Union. Any student may vote as many times as he contributes 5 cents to AUF.

Six finalists will be announced Wednesday, Oct. 24.

The UMOC will be presented at the Charity Ball, Oct. 26, at Kings.

Homecoming Traffic Answer Proposed

A four point plan for solving the homecoming traffic problem was proposed at a meeting of Student council representatives Elaine Esch, Barbara Young and Don Noble; Innocent Dick Billig;

First, the traffic will enter the proposed route at 17th and R streets. The traffic will proceed down R street; turn north on 14th street and continue until turning east on Vine street. The traffic will then head south on 16th street and merge with the main traffic at the corner of 16th and R streets.

Second, all traffic will be one-way with one exception. Because 14th street is a state highway, a single lane of south bound traffic will be allowed there. No parking will be permitted on the proposed route with one exception, the west side of 14th street. In general three lanes of one way traffic will be permitted on each street.

Third, these streets will be blocked off entirely; 15th from Vine to S, U from 16th to 14th, S from 16th to 14th, and 15th from Q to R. In case of an emergency any of those streets may be made available for immediate use.

Fourth, the Student Council will send letters to the organized houses in the restricted