

Reynolds May Play; Dick Westin Injured

BY GEORGE PAYNICH
Sports Staff Reporter

Will he or will he not ramble against the Golden Gophers? The question of whether Rapid Robert Reynolds will strut his stuff this weekend has Cornhusker fans in a dither.

George Gohde at fullback and Jim Cederdahl round out the second quartet.

The Husker defense, showing signs of becoming one of the midlands best, should be even stronger this week with two very important additions. The somewhat inconsistent end position is sure to receive a boost with the addition of huge Ted Connor. This will be Connor's first game of the season and the rugged 220 pounder is in top condition.

Husker boss Bill Glasford didn't clarify the matter any Thursday with his refusal to discuss the "secret" Wednesday performance of his talented left halfback. The Husker coach sticks by his week-long statement of "there is a possibility that Reynolds will perform this Saturday."

So, the question which has stirred up so much excitement and speculation drags on until Saturday afternoon to be answered.

Meanwhile, the injury jinx hit the Nebraska grid camp again, Dick Westin, halfback from Omaha, was sidelined with a severely bruised foot. His spot will be filled with the calling up of George Gohde from Coach Ike Hanscom's B team.

The underdog Huskers went thru their final workouts here for Saturday's game with work-out featuring defensive preparations. Pass defense came in for the most attention. The Minnesota club this season has a new look—the new Gophers feature more passing than previous Northland clubs.

Glasford named two backfield units to carry NU's offensive load this week. Don Norris, Bob Smith, Ray Novak and Johnny Bordogna comprise the starting backfield. Duane Rankin at the quarterback spot, Dennis Korinek at left half, Hopp's return means that freshman George Cifra and Bill Schabacker are dueling for the other starting lineback position.

The traveling squad:
Ends—Bill Giles, Andy Loehr, Frank Simon, Ted Connor, Dick Goll, Ted James, Jerry Paulson, Harold Robertson.

Tackles—Harvey Goth, Wayne Handshy, Dick Regier, Don Boll, Jerry Minnick, Bob Mullen.

Guards—Clayton Curtis, Cliff Dale, Jim Oliver, Joe Ponsiego, George Prochaska, Carl Brasee, Ed Husmann, Jim Jones.

Centers—Ken Schroeder, Veri Scott, George Cifra, Bob Oberlin, Bill Schabacker.

Nebraska Scout Squad To Play Scottsbluff JC

By GLENN NELSON
Sports Staff Reporter

Seven Husker "B" squad starters will be missing from Coach Ike Hanscom's lineup as the Nebraska Scout team meets Scottsbluff junior college at Scottsbluff Friday evening.

Bound for Minneapolis with the Varsity unit which faces the Golden Gophers of Minnesota are halfbacks Jim Cederdahl, Jim Velsley, and Dennis Korinek; Andy Loehr, end; George Gohde, fullback; and guard Jim Jones.

They were instrumental in the Husker win over Missouri "B" team two weeks ago and have been moved to the Varsity squad to replace their injured men and vacated positions.

Scottsbluff holds a record of four wins and one loss. Their only defeat was a one-touchdown setback by McCook Junior college.

"The Cougars are fortified with a strong passing attack, which will probably produce our biggest headache," Hanscom said. He pointed out that most of their scoring has been through the air.

Hanscom's offensive lineup will include George Mink and John Welsh, ends from Omaha; John Sebold, Grand Island, and Bill McGuire, Omaha, tackles; Russ Morgan, Elwood, and Ken Osborn, Ainsworth, guards; John Schreiber, Lincoln, center; Dan Brown, Sioux Falls, S. D., quarterback; Bill Thayer, Rapid City, S. D., and Lawrence Goll, Blue Hill, halfbacks; and Stuart Thorell, Loomis, fullback.

The defensive starters will be George Bauer, Minnare, and Pat Lee, Grand Island, ends; Don Glantz, Central City, and Bill Holleran, Schuyler, tackles; Leonard Singer and Tom Kripal, Omaha, guards; linebackers Dick Watson, Sioux City, Ia., and Kenneth Moore, Mt. Vernon, Ia., halfbacks; Chas. Chamley, Flandreau, S. D., and Thorell and Brown, safety.

Balderson Elected Swim Team Captain

Nebraska's swimming team, although following a rigid conditioning program, has yet to hold its first practice session in the water.

So far, the mermen have been concentrating on dry land exercises, and competing with the gym team in feats of skill. The tankers are also working into shape by playing volleyball, basketball, handball and soccer. Swimming coach Hallie Lepley said his team would not take to the water for three weeks.

Lepley also announced that Buyle Balderson, a senior, has been elected captain of the team by his mates.

Next week, the members of the team will get experience by competing in the intramural swimming meet. Only lettermen and numeral men will be ineligible to compete in the intramural meet.

Acacia, Sams, Phi Gams, Delts, ATOs Win Intramural Grid Tilts

By DOUG WILCOX
Sports Staff Reporter

Tuesday two games were left out of the paper because of technical difficulties.

Alpha Gamma Rho played Phi Kappa Phi last Tuesday in a tilt sparked with an overtime. The final score in this game was 1 to 0 in favor of the Pi Kap's.

At the end of the game the score was 0 to 0. In the overtime which immediately followed Sid Mason of the Pi Kap's intercepted the first pass play of the AGR's and stopped their play. The Pi Kap's followed up this interception and made yardage which won the game for their squad.

The outstanding passing of Sid Mason and the fine receiving of ends Chick Lowry and Frank Hoffman were the standout features of the winners. Defensively Dick Husman played some very fine ball.

Delta Tau Delta won another contest with Phi Kappa Psi. The final score was 13 to 6.

The losers scored on a pass play from Louie Lehman to Jerry Anderson.

Delta Tau Delta kept playing fine football as they scored on a touchdown pass from Keith Skalla to Bob Tooley. The conversion try was successful as Skalla sent a pass to Ray Mladovich who made the extra point.

The second and final touchdown for the victors was made on a pass play from Skalla to Tooley. The final score stood at 13 to 6 in favor of the Delts.

The outstanding Delt players on offense were Keith Skalla and Bob Tooley. Defensively Eldon Park and Bob Hasebrook played a good game.

For the Phi Kap's Louie Lehman and Jerry Anderson were standouts.

Winter really set in on the boys who played Wednesday games as Acacia and Zeta Beta Tau took to the field. When the final whistle had blown Acacia led the game, scoring 20 to 6.

Scoring the 6 points for the Zeta Beta Tau squad was Justin Horwich who passed for 20 yards to Arley Bondarin who raced 40 yards for the score.

The try for the extra point was unsuccessful so the final Zeta score stood at 6 points.

The Acacia squad continued their winning streak of three wins. It scored on plays quarterbacked by Don Sercy. The first score was made by Sercy on a 7-yard run sparked by good blocking.

Sercy passed for the extra point to Don Cunningham to give Acacia a 7 to 6 lead.

The second touchdown came on a 40-yard pass from Sercy to Don Hildemeier.

The final score of the game came as Sercy passed 45 yards to Chuck Miner for another touchdown. Sercy added the extra point by passing to Pat Allen.

Don Sercy was the sparkplug for the Acacia as he was in on all its scoring.

Another tilt was between Sigma Alpha Mu and Delta Sigma Phi. The final score in the contest was 13 to 2 in favor of the Sigma Alpha Mus.

The Delta Sig's lone score came on a touchback as hard-rushing Ed Lane trapped Paul Galter of the Sammies in the end zone.

Scoring for the Sammies was Dave Majors who caught a 4-yard pass thrown by Galter for a TD. The try for the extra point was made on a pass from Galter to Lenord Bush.

The final score in the game was made as Galter again unwound to send a pass into the arms of Ed Handelman.

The Sammies were unable to make the extra point so the final score was 13 to 2.

The outstanding Sammie players were Ray Fred on defense and offensively Paul Galter.

Alpha Tau Omega B squad and Phi Delta Theta B squad played a tilt stimulated by the passing of Mac Baley of the ATO team. Baley began scoring for his house by passing 30 yards to Gene Cotter for a TD. Next the Phi Delts scored 12 points and at the half the score stood at 6 to 12 with the Phi Delts leading.

The second half was well on its way when Baley passed 10 yards to Lyle Blue for a TD. The conversion try was successful as Baley threw to Bill Weber.

Theta Xi Leads IM Net Meet

Theta Xi continued to lead Phi Kappa Psi as intramural tennis singles entered semi-final play Thursday. The exact standings were not available at that time. They will be issued by Ed Higginbotham, intramural director, in the near future.

Jim Faifeita, Delta Sig, will meet the winner of a match between Walt Weaver, Phi Delta Theta, and John Schroeder, Phi Psi, in the top bracket.

The lower bracket finalists are Mike Holyoke, Beta Theta Pi, and Bob Crook, Theta Xi. Holyoke gained the semi-final playoffs by beating Don Davis, Phi Psi. Crook outlasted John Russell, Independent.
