Navy, Soph Dentists Win Wednesday Tilts

By BILL MUNDELL
 Intramural Sports Columnist

Unbeaten Navy ROTC and Sophomore Dents continued their battle for first place in league XIV in intramural basketball Wednesday by racking up another pair of victories at the expense of Phi Delta Phi and AIEE. Both clubs scored easy wins in pointing to their Jan. 14 meeting.

Navy Romps
 Navy romped to its fourth straight of the season with a second half flurry and stopped Phi Delta Phi, 46-21. The Middies, playing without their top point-getter, Verone Gibb, found the lawyers an even match throughout the initial half, but found the range after intermission.

Jack Flynn and Jim Clark led the Gobs with 13 and 12 points while Dick Duxbury, Bruce Evans and John Gradwohl each collected six for the Fiddle-de-fee's.

Pansies Victorious
 The undefeated Pansies stamped the Robbers, 50-28 to keep atop league XIII. The winners jumped to a 9-3 quarter and were never threatened.

Chuck Bohner led the winners and all scoring with 18 points while Jerry Jones and Chuck Jensen helped with 14 and 13. Virg Rank topped the Robbers with eight counters.

Racketeers Meet
 There will be a meeting for all Varsity and Freshmen tennis aspirants this Friday, Jan. 9, according to NU tennis coach, Ed Higgenbotham. It will be a short, but important meeting and is scheduled for 5 p.m. in room 114, Physical Education Building.

Tankers Open Against Jays
 Coach Warren Emery's Husker swimmers will open their 1953 campaign with Kansas at Lawrence Wednesday.

The Huskers, who finished third in conference competition last season with a 4-7 record look to be about as strong again this season, according to the new NU swim monitor.

Absent from this year's roster will be Buel Balderston, backstroker and top point winner a year ago. The Huskers have gained Gene Cotter, a diver from Lincoln, who is expected to add strength in the diving event. Gordon Peterson, who last year swam the 50 and 100 yard freestyle events, will double in the 200-yard breaststroke to add strength in that event.

The Huskers will then travel to Grinnell, Iowa, Jan. 17 for a duel with Grinnell College to round out the week's competition.

Ed Husmann Named Most Valuable Husker Gridder

Ed Husmann, Husker tackle, will receive the Tom Novak trophy during the half of the Kansas-Nebraska basketball game Monday night.

Courtesy Lincoln Star
MOST VALUABLE... Ed Husmann, stellar Husker defensive tackle, was named the most valuable senior on the 1952 edition of the Nebraska football squad by the sportswriters and newscasters of the Cornhusker state.

Husmann was named as the most valuable senior player on the Cornhusker football squad for the 1952 season by the sports writers and radio men who watched Nebraska all season.

The trophy, which goes to the outstanding football senior, was established by J. Gordon Roberts of Omaha, in honor of Tom Novak, former Husker All-American center.

Previous winners include: Fran Nagle and Charles Toogood, 1950 choices, and Frank Simon in 1951.

Husmann, playing guard and linebacker for the west in the Shrine East-West game Dec. 27, was voted as one of the outstanding defensive players on the field by sports writers covering the game.

KU's Thane Baker Challenges Record

Thane Baker, Kansas State's Olympic team sprinter and twice winner of both the 100 and 220-yard Big Seven Conference crowns, may be one of top quarter-milers this year.

Baker, anchoring the Wildcat mile relay team in the Sugar Bowl Invitational New Year's day, was clocked at 46.9 for his 440-yard lap. The Big Seven outdoor 440 record is :47.7.

Baker also won the invitational 100-yard dash in :09.8 on a soggy track. The K-State runner's best time in the 100 is :09.5.

NU Wrestle Team Preps For Opener

The Nebraska wrestling team opens its season at the Coliseum Saturday night against South Dakota.

All but two weights have been decided as to the Husker team, Coach Al Partin said.

In the 137-pound class, Jack Jirousek, Lincoln sophomore, and Richard Jackson, senior from Omaha, are battling for the call.

Charles Bryant, Omaha sophomore guard on the football team, is battling Lawrence Goll, also a football player and a sophomore from Blue Hill, for the 177-pound spot.

The matches will get under way at 7:30. The other weights with the starters are:

- 125—Don Bean
- 130—Darrill Adamson
- 147—Perry Lietel
- 157—Ken Fisher
- 167—Dave Mackie
- Hwt.—Ed Husmann

Modern Rattle Set

Two added attractions will be offered when the Nebraska wrestlers go against South Dakota in the opening match of the season Saturday night at the Coliseum.

The matches start at 7:30 p.m.

Modern ruffling will be demonstrated in a team tag match which will feature four football players. Max Kitzelman and Rod McConnell will pair against Emil Radik and Dick Husmann.

Another touch of the modern grimace-and-growl activity will be presented in a return match between Coach Al Partin and Verl Scott, Husker football player.

"A powerful force in these difficult times"

says FRANKLIN D. MURPHY
 Chancellor, University of Kansas

"In these days when much is said about 'adult education,' we too often forget that a great deal of adult education is daily carried on by such instruments of public information as The Reader's Digest. In my judgment, The Reader's Digest is one of the powerful and useful forces shaping the thinking of our people in these difficult times."

The articles in each issue of The Reader's Digest cover a broad range of subjects: from travel and politics to science and history, from humor and personal inspiration to headline news. Forty or more articles and a host of short subjects, carefully chosen from hundreds of publications, bring Digest readers more varied and more concentrated information than can be found in any other magazine.

In January Reader's Digest, you'll be interested in The Way It Is in Korea—James Michener reports the facts of war in Korea today; 24-page book condensation: People of the Deer—Farley Mowat's experiences in the Arctic with a lost tribe of Eskimos; More Work With Less Fatigue—facts from experts to help you accomplish more, tire yourself less.

ARE YOU TOUGH ENOUGH FOR THIS JOB?

If you can make the grade, the U. S. Air Force will award you a commission, your wings and pay you over $5,000 a year!

U.S. AIR FORCE

your opportunities for advancement are unlimited.

ARE YOU ELIGIBLE?

To qualify as an Aviation Cadet, you must have completed at least two years of college. This is a minimum requirement—it's best if you stay in school and graduate. In addition, you must be between 19 and 26½ years, unmarried, and in good physical condition.

YOU CAN CHOOSE BETWEEN PILOT OR AIRCRAFT OBSERVER

If you choose to be an Aircraft Observer, your training will be in Navigation, Bombardment, Radar Operation or Aircraft Performance Engineering.

New Aviation Cadet Training Classes Begin Every Few Weeks!

HERE'S WHAT TO DO:

1. Take a transcript of your college credits and a copy of your birth certificate to your nearest Air Force Base or Recruiting Station. Fill out the application they give you.
2. If application is accepted, the Air Force will arrange for you to take a physical examination.
3. Next, you will be given a written and manual aptitude test.
4. If you pass your physical and other tests, you will be scheduled for an Aviation Cadet Training Class. The Selective Service Act allows you a four-month deferment while waiting class assignment.

Where to get more details: Visit your nearest Air Force Base or Air Force Recruiting Office. OR WRITE TO: AVIATION CADET HEADQUARTERS, U. S. AIR FORCE, WASHINGTON 25, D. C.
