After continuously bowling a score of 60 for the first few weeks of the semester, a Nebraska coed entered her physical education class one morning determined to raise her bowling average.

After setting up pins for half the period, she walked dejectedly up to the alley and began bowling a line.

The entire class knew by the end of the period that the proud coed had passed her 60 mark and rolled a 195 score.

Clean Shave Required For Registration

Beards, mustaches and 5 o'clock shadows will be seen at Ag College after March 5, registration day for the "Whisker King" contest. Eligibility requires only a clean shave when contestants register in the Ag Union.

Part of Farmer's Fair, the "Whisker King" contest dates back to the first Farmer's Fair in 1916. While there has been objection to this contest because it makes the men unsightly, the 1953 Farmer's Fair Board decided to have the contest in preference to breaking tradition.

Don Leising, Farmer's Fair Board manager, said, "The coeds will just have to put up with whiskery boy friends. Besides, it should make the men look like real he-men."

The winner of the contest will be presented with the Goddess of Agriculture at the Cotton and Denim Dance, April 24. Vince Kramper was 1952 "Whisker King."

Square Dance

An All University Square Dance will be held Friday in Ag College Activities Building. The dance will begin at 8:30 p.m. and continue until 11:30. Ag Country dancers are sponsoring the event.

The sun trickled lightly through cypress leaves into the crystal pool. Odysseus awoke, wiped the salt water from his eyes and peered cautiously around the bush.

There, in the speckled light, stooped Nausicaa, her lithe body bending to and fro as she dipped her linens into the limpid waters. Her rosy figure was like a nude Aphrodite, chiseled in pink marble.

For some minutes The Wanderer sat spellbound, his eyes riveted to the swaying body. Then he loosed his tongue, for he could no longer hold his peace.

"Gad!" he hissed, "double-jointed."

Student: "I was, judge. A couple of crocodiles kept following me around, and I don't mind telling you they were getting on my nerves."

Biz Ad Perceives Retail Sales Boost

Nebraskans bought more goods at retail stores during December than they did during the same month last year. They bought enough, in fact, to boost retail sales out of their November slump, even when the normal Christmas buying rush is taken into account.

This was the report given Monday by the University's business administration college. December retail sales over the state were up 3.8 per cent from November and 4.5 per cent from a year ago, the business research department's monthly survey shows.

For the fourth straight month Hastings was among the leaders in retail sales, with December increases of 16.2 per cent from November and 26.9 per cent from December, 1951.

Other cities which reported sales up significantly from the previous month include Chadron, 20.2 per cent; McCook, 9.4 per cent; and Scottsbluff, 6.4 per cent. Valley county, with a sales increase of 34.5 per cent from November to December, had the best record among the counties surveyed.

Cities reporting the largest increases in retail sales over those in December, 1951 include Scottsbluff, 17.2 per cent; Grand Island, 16.6 per cent; Fremont, 13.8 per cent; Nebraska City, 11.5 per cent; and Omaha, 9.5 per cent.

Bill Alters Status Of NROTC Men

A recent bill passed by Congress has changed the status of all regular NROTC students as of Jan. 1.

According to the bill, all midshipmen must be classified in one of three categories, all of which are subject to call in a state of war: ready reserve, stand-by or retired.

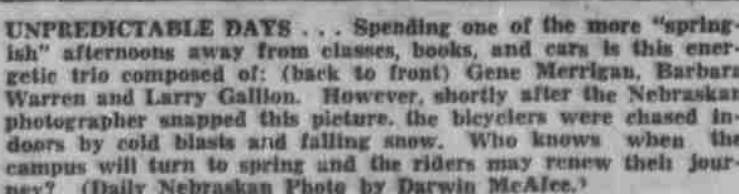

Ready reserve and retired are subject to call by the President; stand-by, by Congress.

This status change does not affect calls to active duty in peace time.

UNPREDICTABLE DAYS . . . Spending one of the more "spring-like" afternoons away from classes, books, and cars is this energetic trio composed of (back to front) Gene Merrigan, Barbara Warren and Larry Gallion. However, shortly after the Nebraskaan photographer snapped this picture, the bicyclists were chased indoors by cold blasts and falling snow.
