Top Seniors Announced By YWCA

Amid hat fashions of the 1800's, 1920's and the 1950's, mothers of YWCA members were honored at the traditional YW May Morning Breakfast.

Speaking on "The Future of Women," Mrs. David Dow, former lawyer and member of the Lincoln City Council, said it is the responsibility of women to branch out from the home and to enter one of many fields open to women.

Women of the future should strive for a world that is free for all races and creeds, she concluded.

Sharon Mangold, YW president who served as toastmistress, announced the seniors on city campus who were outstanding in YW work. Seniors receiving awards were Gwen Uran, Jan Quinn, Marlys Johnson, Kay Burcum, Jo Knapp and Joyce Lasse.

Marlene Hutchinson, Ag YW president announced Clo Ode and Elaine Milten as the outstanding seniors from Ag YW.

The mother-daughter address was presented by Marlene Hutchinson and her mother.

The advisory board officers for the coming year, announced by Janice Osborn, executive secretary, are: Mrs. LeRoy Lasse, president; Mrs. George Ernest, vice-president; Mrs. R. J. Gooding, secretary.

New Board members are Miss Grace Bennett, Miss Kate Field and Dr. Garnett Larson.

Hanna Rosenberg was chairman of the breakfast.
