"We'd just like to go back and beat 'em," Coach Bill Glassford said in his last press interview before the Cornhusker team left for Pittsburgh and their big contest with the Panthers.

The Husker team took off from Lincoln at 9 a.m. this morning and will arrive in the Steel City at 2 p.m. EST.

Glassford expects to drill his squad late in the afternoon in preparation for Saturday's tilt.

According to Glassford, the team will be at full strength, including guard Frank Nappi who has been out. George Mink and Jim Murphy are still sidelined with injuries and probably will not make the trip.

"We're thinking very seriously of starting Cifra at full," said Glassford. Cifra and regular John Edwards will be sharing the duties at the fullback position. The Nebraska coach also mentioned that the team's spirit is excellent. Pitt will be ready for us. The Panther eleven stacks up to be about the "same size as last year." The overall weight average is 201, compared to Nebraska's team average of 185.

Besides the inclusion of George Cifra in the line-up, the starting eleven remains about the same. Nebraska will be outweighed and will be on the short end of the experience. The Cornhusker team has been concentrating on defense, mainly pass defense, along with offensive drills. The Panthers use a T-formation with an occasional flanker to the outside.

In IM Play: Sig Alphas Squeeze Past Sig Chis 9-7; Delta Upsilon Shuts Out Farmhouse

By ED KEMBLE
Intramural Editor

Sigma Alpha Epsilon's B team edged past Sigma Chi 9-7, in Wednesday's intramural touch football play. The Sig Alphas picked up the two point margin of victory in the first quarter when they capitalized on a bad Sig Chi pass from center for a safety.

Sigma Chi grabbed the lead in the second period when Bill Morrison tallied on a pass play. Another aerial added the extra point, but the Sig Alphas came back in the final period on a 23 yard dash by Tom Jones to win. Larry Vance hit Bill Bates with a bullet pass for the point.

Another close one saw Kappa Sigma slip by Sigma Alpha Mu 19-18. Two John Gibbons to Charlie Dobry TD passes got the Kappa Sigs off to a 13-6 half-time lead. The Sammies had scored on Stan Widman's nabbing a toss from Forrest Poska.

Stan Schrier scored for SAM with another Kappa Sig pass gone awry. Marsh Becher finished the scoring, finally with one of his own team's passes, as he registered for Sigma Alpha Mu.

Burnett House sank McClean 28-7. Scoring for Burnett were Curt Boesen, Bob Cupper, Verone Gibb, and Fred Koslowski.

The DU's won their third straight by shutting out AGR 19-0. Bill Harmon scored twice while George Hirschbock added a clincher. Next week, the undefeated DU club gets a real test from another undefeated squad, Phi Kappa Psi who holds a 3-0 slate also.

Other Wednesday scores were Seston II 6, Benton 0; Phi Kappa Psi 12, Alpha Tau Omega 7, and Sigma Nu 14, Beta Sigma Psi 0.

Chuck Jensen hit Larry Lewis with two passes, good for 42 and 45 yards and two touchdowns as Hitchcock shut out Boucher, 14-0 in a Tuesday game.

Delt Ray Mladovich intercepted a pass out of the hands of Sigma Alpha Epsilon's Ken Groves on the third play of the game and ran it back 15 yards to a TD as Delta Tau Delta trampled Sigma Alpha Epsilon, 25-0.

Jim Nickel, Ken Johnson, and Don Blank racked up six-pointers for Avery as they rolled over Seston I, 21-0.

Salvaterra Aerial Attack Paces Pittsburgh Panthers

Pittsburgh, Oct. 13. There was nothing in sight this week but plenty of grueling work for Pitt's Panthers as they prepared for a home engagement at Pitt Stadium against Nebraska this Saturday.

Particular object of the attention of Coach John Michelosen and his aides was the offense, which never got moving after the opening minutes of the game as the Panthers suffered a 21-0 setback at the hands of Navy. The Pitt record for the 1955 season is now two wins and two losses, with the other loss a 26-14 affair to Oklahoma and the wins 27-7 over California and 22-12 over Syracuse.

Despite only 7 net yards gained Saturday, Corky Cost continued to be the Panthers' leading ground gainer with 154 yards. Tom Jenkins, the leading ball totter against the Navy with 30 yards, maintained second place with 135 yards, followed by Dick Bowen with 80, Bob Grier with 74, Corny Salvaterra with 69 and Ralph Jelic with 60.

Three Panthers suffered minor injuries against the Navy. John Cenci bruised a shoulder, Harold Hunter emerged with a sore leg and Howard Linn was nursing aches and pains as a result of a blow in the back. All three are expected to be ready for the Nebraska meeting. The Panthers' air attack will be centered around the strong arm of the veteran quarterback Corky Salvaterra.

Star Of Week

George Cifra, junior fullback, from Turtle Creek, Pa., has been named The Nebraskan's "Star of the Week," for his play in the game against Texas A & M last Saturday at Memorial Stadium.

Following graduation from high school, Cifra came to the University. He lettered in football his freshman year as freshmen were eligible to play that season. His sophomore year he became a regular on the Husker squad and was one of the top fullbacks in the Big Seven.

In September of 1953 he went to work wearing a different uniform, one of Uncle Sam's. Cifra spent 24 months in the service, all spent in the United States. He received his discharge on Sept. 6, and immediately rejoined the Husker squad, trying to regain his sophomore style.

Frosh Grid Tilt Friday

Once again the freshman football squad will stage a preview of things to come in the future years on Husker varsities. The Frosh will hold their second of a series of intrasquad scrimmages today at 4 p.m. on the Coliseum field.

In the first intra-squad tilt last week, Roy Simmet, a junior college transfer from Ripley, Tenn., and Benny Dillard, stocky speed merchant from Mt. Pleasant, Tex., led the way as the Whites shutout the Reds, 18-0.

Team strength has been divided as evenly as possible for this week's game and changes have been made all the way down the line-up.

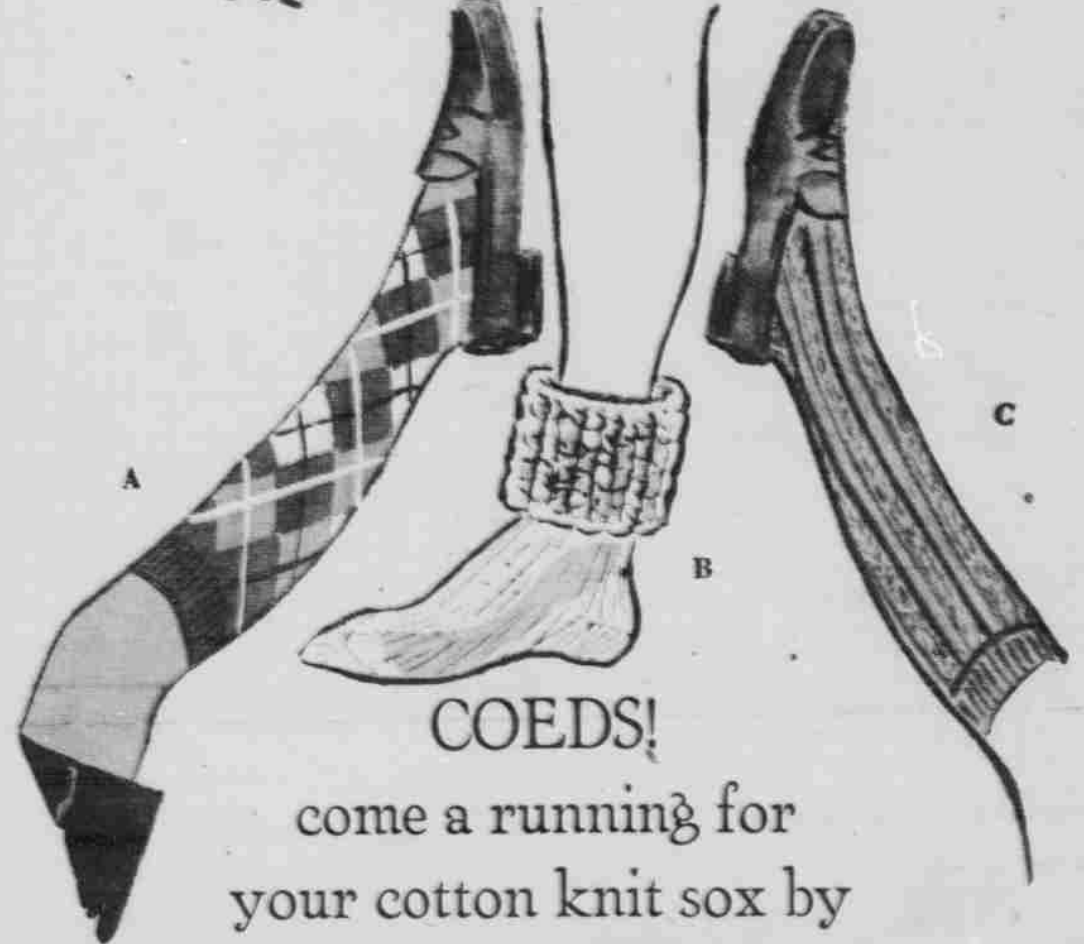

Dillard will not see action Friday as he has been nursing a twisted knee which he suffered in last week's game.

The Husker frosh, under the direction of Coach Ed Nyden, will meet Iowa State here Oct. 26 and will travel to Kansas State Nov. 4.
