It Happened At NU Glancing over an envelope sent from China, a NU coed looked at the Chinese postmark with interest. Surprised by her find, she commented, "I thought all postmarks were written in English."

Vol. 59, No. 32

Concert:

Messiah Set For Sunday

Approximately 600 University students will blend voices in the annual Christmas season presentation of Handel's "Messiah" on Sunday.

The concert, sponsored by the Department of Music, will be at 3 p.m. at the University Coliseum.

Soloists will be Barbara Blair, soprano; Carol Asbury, alto; Amer Lincoln, tenor, and John Poutre, baritone.

Miss Blair, a graduate of Texas Wesleyan College, Forth Worth,

Courtesy Sunday Journal and Star Miss Asbury Miss Blair

taught for two years in Forsan, Tex., before coming to the University this fall. She was a soloist in presentations of the "Messiah," "Israel in Egypt," the college choir and the orchestra at Texas Wesleyan. She is a member of Sigma Alpha Iota, women's music frater- Union Party: nity.

Miss Asbury is contralto soloist st First Baptist Church in Lincoln. Mother in Menotti's "The Consul" last season and is a member of University Singers, the University Symphony Orchestra and Sigma Alpha Iota.

Lincoln played the part of the Devil in the University opera, "The Devil and Daniel Webster," in the summer of 1954 and was understudy for the Magician in "The rigal Singers and Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, professiona music frater-

the

Courtesy Lincoln Journal Commandant, Chairman Dance

Gail Drahota, newly presented ary Commandant and the other finalists and their escorts tradi-Honorary Commandant, and Cationally dance the first dance det Lt. Col. James Hewitt, Milialone. Finalists were Peggy Baltary Ball Chairman, are shown dwin, Miss Army; Jancy Cardancing the first dance following man, Miss Navy; and Phyl Sherthe presentation of Miss Drahota man, Miss Air Force. See story at the Military Ball. The Honorat bottom of page.

AWS Grants Hour Extension

Closing hours for freshman wom-|er outside the Union during the en have been extended to 10:30 day of the party.

p.m. on Wednesday, in order that The special activities commit- remedy, since the Calendar Com-Consul." He is a soloist at St. Paul Methodist Church in Lincoln and is a member of the University Mad-rigal Singers and Phi Mu Alpha The "Christmas Eve on campus" tainment and refreshments will party, the Union's annual gift to be free, there will be no expense Poutre played the male lead in the students, will be held from for the student," Miss Downs day, the legal holiday, came from held in the Ag Union from 8 a.m. Poutre played the male lead in "The Consul" and will have a lead-ing role in this year's opera, "La Boheme." He also played the part

LINCOLN, NEBRASKA

For Coaching Job No Formal Acceptance Made Yet

As reported exclusively in Fri-1 that Elliott wished to complete his | shown himself definitely interested day's Nebraskan, Pete Elliott, 29- coaching obligations for Okla- in the University of Nebraska's ycar-old backfield coach at the homa, which, of course, is the head coaching job. University of Oklahoma, will be Orange Bowl Game.

the new Cornhusker football coach. "I hope you can understand my tioned he had been first officially However, no formal announce- position. I don't want to do any- contacted by Orwig Tuesday. ment will be made until after the thing that might hurt Oklahoma's The Athletic Director added Orange Bowl Game, January 2, in chances in the bowl," the blond- later that he had contacted Bud Miami. haired coach explained.

NEBRASKAN

A press conference called Monday morning by Athletic Director reason to believe that he will give the Sooner stay in Lincoln before Bill Orwig and attended by Elli-ott confirmed this. Ine the answer I am seeking on the Nov. 21 game and asked him for permission to talk to his as-Orwig told the press:

Orwig will be in Miami at the sistant. "Pete Elliott is my Number one time as the Big Seven representachoice for the job. I have en- tive on the Orange Bowl commit collegiate circles." he explained. couraged him to come to Nebras- tec.

ka. I am fully aware of the cir-cumstances and I respect them." Thus, until the second of Jan-uary, the situation remains: Elli-The circumstances were simply ott is Orwig's choice; Elliott has said, "I want him to know that he

Legal Holiday: Faculty Senate To Vote On Extra Vacation Day

The Faculty Senate will vote was too crowded with other busi-Dec. 13 on resuming classes after ness, he said. Christmas on Jan. 3, 1956, instead

Other business to be taken up The voting will be on a request report and recommendation of the football coach. of the Calendar Committee to re- Committee on Committees on stusume classes on Jan. 3, a Tuesday, dent representation on certain Seninstead of Monday, Jan. 2 is a le- ate Committees.

gal holiday because Jan. 1 falls on The Calendar Committee will also give a recommendation re-H. E. Wise, Assistant Dean of garding the dates for the 1956 Post the Graduate College and chair- Summer Session, man of the Calendar Committee, Fair Board Voting Concert said the vote will be taken as a alendar. One of the main objections to Six senior Farmers Fair Board members will be elected Tuesday having school reconvene on Mon- in an all Ag College election to be the clerical and library staff of to 6 p.m.

Any student enrolled in the Ag ble will be presented Thursday at College is eligible to vote. I.D. 8 p.m. in the Union.

The trim young assistant men-

Wilkinson, Oklahoma head football Orwig said, "I have every good coach and athletic director, during for permission to talk to his as-

"This is the standard protocol in Elliott was the only candidate for the job that he had contacted. "When I approach a man," he is my No. 1 candidate."

Elliott and his wife flew into Lincoln for a huddle with Orwig and Chancellor Hardin. Also present at a meeting in the Chancellor's home Sunday evening were John Bentley, Athletic Publicity Director, and Adam C. Breckenridge, Administrative Assistant to the Chancellor.

discussed salary, working conditions, assistants and terms of contract.

It looks, from all appearances, in the Dec. 13 meeting will be the that Nebraska has found a new Weather 'R Not "Fair and warmer" is the good word from the Weather Bureau for Tuesday. High temperature for the day will be 40 degrees,

Tuesday, December 6, 1955

Courtesy Lincoln . Elliott Monday: Drwig and Elliott said they had PBK Selects Six Seniors.

Two Others

Six University seniors and two summer session graduates have been selected for membership in Phi Beta Kappa national honorary scholastic society.

They were introduced at a Phi Beta Kappa dinner meeting Monday night. The seniors are:

Eleanor Elliott, Janet Gordon, Gail Katskee, Cathryn Olds, Shirey Rosenberg Rochman, and Ann Yeakley.

The new members, who were graduated last August, are: Howard Copas, now attending the University College of Medicine in Om-

Requirements for summer ses-

Boheme." He also played the part of Jabe Stone in "The Devil and the University choral union, will tivities committee.

Courtesy Sunday Journal and Stat Poutre be conducted by Dr. Arthur Westbrook. Groups composing the Union are the Agricultural College Chorus, Altinas Tullis, conductor; University Singers I, Dr. David Foltz, conductor; University Singers II, Dr. Westbrook, conductor; University in Parlors ABC. Chorus I, Earl Jenkins, conductor; University Chorus II, Dr. Foltz, organ for group singing in the conductor; and the School of Nursing Chorus from Omaha, Richard Duncan, conductor.

Also taking part will be the University orchestra conducted by Emanuel Wishnow. Marilyn Miller will be pianist, and Dr. Myron Roberts. associate professor of organ, organist.

Don Moul will present a program of traditional carols from the Ralph Nook, Kay Williams, chairman of Mueller Carillon before and after he Union Forum committee, anthe "Messiah" concert. nounced.

By BARB SHARP

Staff Writer

The newly combined AFL and the CIO have great opportunity to Tau Delta junior in Business Adexhibit "democratic processes" to all the world and to help liberate hundreds of millions from slavery abroad, according to President Eisenhower.

The President addressed the initial convention of the new organization-the world's largest-by telephone from his farm at Gettysburg, Pa.

Eisenhower urged the new union organization to protect the political and other rights of minorities within their ranks and to make certain that the views of such groups are "accurately reflected." tain that the views of such groups are "accurately reflected." The President of the old AFL, George Meany, was elected AFL-

CIO president.

Mendes-France Attacks Faure

French Premier Edgar Faure was attacked by former premier Mendes-France of imposing an "unscrupulous censorship" on French radio and television networks to aid his re-election campaign.

Mendes-France combined with other leftist political leaders to attack Faure in the newspaper L'Express.

Eden, Ike To Confer

British Prime Minister Sir Anthony Eden will arrive in Washington St. Thomas, and Cedars. Mortar Jan. 30 for talks with President Elsenhower, the White House an- Boards will help the 86 children nounced.

According to diplomatic sources, the talks will deal with Westerny Last year was the first time the strategy for coping with the new cold war situation resulting from entire Interfraternity Council gave the failure of the Geneva Big Four foreign ministers conference. These a party. Formerly each individual sources believe that the most important reason for the talks is the fraternity planned a party to ensharp change that has come over East-West relations since the July tertain the orphans. A child feed summit meeting.

Santa Claus, carols, dancing, re- officially open the Christmas sea- not taken up at the last meeting cards must be presented by all Daniel Webster." He is president freshments, movies, bingo and dec- son, she said. of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia and a crations will be included at the "The Messiah," presented by chairman of the Union special ac-> which will be decorated using Lindsay.

Downs announced. cards will be able to vote.

Free refreshments will be served in the Roundup Room, Ag Union from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. where the Trend Four combo will and in the City Union from 10 will be decorated like a night club. Mortar Board publicity chairman Two movies, "The Littlest Anannounced. gel" and "Christmas Through the Ages" will be shown during the evening in the Faculty Lounge. Bingo will be played for prizes day of the election, and all post-Roger Wischmeier will play the ers must be taken down, houses are subject to disqualification , if main lounge. Christmas songs will this rule is not followed, Miss Unalso be played over the loudspeakterseher said.

The Eligible Bachelors will be Miller To Review presented Friday at the Mortar-Board - Student Union Turnabout Willa Cather Book Dance. Candidates for the Most Eligible Dr. James Miller will review Bachelor are: 'My Antonia" by Willa Cather Hank Baum, Brown Palace sen-Wednesday at 4 p.m. at the Book ior in Teachers College; Bob Brown,

Alpha Tau Omego senior in Business Administration; Don Bucy, Phi Kappa Psi, junior in Engineer-

Gary Burchfield, Alpha Gamma Rho junior in Agriculture. Don Deterding, Delta Upsilon junior in Business Administration; Rex Ekwall, Canfield House-Men's Dormitory, junior in Business Ad ministration; Larry Epstein, Sigma Alpha Mu sophomore in Arts and Sciences; Don Erway, Delta nuinistration.

There will be pictures of the candidates at the polls for the con-

There is to be no publicity the venience of the voters, she said.

Wendell Fash, Ag Men's Club sophomore in Agriculture; Rex Fischer, Phi Gamia Delta senior

IFC To Hold For Orphans

Interfraternity Council will hold a Christmas Party for the children from three Lincoln orphanages Dec. 14 at 7 p.m. in the Union Ballroom, John Olson, chairman, said. The orphanages are White Hall, the University.

was given last year.

Jimmy Phillip's orchestra will play for dancing in the Ballroom, which will be decorated using of the Senate was that the agenda voters.

countries, she said. Intermission en-tertainment will be given by acro-batic dancers and a singer, Jack Bachelors At Polls Tuesday of Jan. 2, a legal holiday.

a Sunday.

The all-women's Election of the | in Arts and Sciences; Emil Gade | RAM -The polls will be open in the ness Administration. omore in Arts and Sciences; Jack eering. be having a jam session. The room a.m. to 6 p.m., Carole Unterscher, Harris, Sigma Chi senior in Business Administration: Jack Lindsay, ness Administration.

Administration; Lin Schropfer, ture.

are shown above after they finished their part in officially opening the 1955 Military Ball

Friday night. Officers of ROTC and their dates led the traditional opening march. Eddie

Harris, Sigma Chi senior in Busi- Snyder, Acacia sophomore in tra. John Heeckt, Norris House soph- Selleck Quadrangle junior in Engin- is: String Quartet in D major, Alle- meeting.

> junior in Arts and Sciences; Char- Mozart. Agriculture; Jim Vanek, Kappa certs which can be used inter-

Grand Marchers Open 1955 Ball

regularly with the Omaha Sym- ments for graduation. phony Orchestra; Rosemary Madison, cello instructor at Duchesne sion graduates are the same as for College and also a member of the the group which is selected in the - Men's Dormitory junior Omaha Symphony Orchestra; Max spring: a scholastic average of ap-John Parmelee as Santa Claus Most Eligible Bachelors will take ken, Beta Sigma Psi sophomore in in Teachers College; Roger Gilbert, viola, and Truman Mors. proximately 7.2 and fulfillment of will greet the guests at the en- place Tuesday. Only those women Engineering; Charlie Garst, Theta Scow, Sigma Alpha Epsilon senior man, second violin, both members group requirements in the College trance and hand out favors, Miss who present their identification Chi sophomore in Engineering; Lee in Business Administration; Ed of the Omaha Symphony Orches. of Arts and Sciences.

Teachers College; Jim Sounders, The program for the first concert tory, was featured speaker at the gretto, Andante, Allegretto and He told the group that as schol-Jack Talsma, Phi Delta Theta Allegrtto (Menuetto), all works of ars they are specialists and it is up to them to find their relation-

Sigma Kappa Phi junior in Busi- lie Trumble, Farm House junior in Season tickets for all three con- ship to other members of society. "We are not engaged in the en-John Nelson, Theta Xi junior in Sigma senior in Business Adminis- changeably, are $3.60; students sea- terprise of perpetuating ourselves," Arts and Sciences. Dick Reische, tration, and Lonnie Wrasse, Alpha son tickets, $1.80; single admis- he said. "We are trying to do some-Beta Theta Pi junior in Business Gamma Sigma senior in Agricul- sions, $1.50; and single student thing for society by contributing to admissions, 75 cents. progress."

Leaders of the Grand March

Howard and his orchestra played for the dance which was being sponsored this year by the Air Force ROTC. Besides the Grand March, the other main feature of the evening was the introduction of Honorary Commandant, Gail

Col. James Hewitt, chairman of the Military Ball committee. Other finalists, representing each of the other services were Phyllis Sherman, Miss Air Force; Janice Carmen, Miss Navy, Peggy Courtery Lincoln Star

Baldwin, Miss Army. Their escorts were Air Force Cadet Col. Earl Barnett, Army Cadet Col. Charles Goman and Navy Cadet Cant. Richard Hill.

Carman, Baldwin, Sherman: Gail Drahota Selected Honorary Commandant, Runners-Up Represent Three Service Branches

day night as the new Honorary Navy, Janice Carman; and Miss in education, and Delta Gamma.

Commandant of the ROTC units at Army, Peggy Baldwin. Presentation of the Honorary Sigma Alpha Iota, women's pro- heart of Sigma Chi.

Her attendants, runners-up for ers.

the honor, represented each of the She also is a member of Orch- mittee.

Gail Drahota, senior in Teach-|services. They are: Miss Air esis, modern dance group; Pi Escoring the attendants were ers' College, was introduced Fri- Force, Phyllis Sherman; Miss Lambda Theta, honorary and pro- Air Force Cadet Col. Earl F. Burtessional organization for women nette of Holdrege, Army Cadet As a sophomore, she was a Corn- Col. Charles Gomon of Norfolk and Miss Drahota is president of husker Beauty Queen and Sweet- Navy Cadet Capt. Richard T. Hill of Hastings.

Commandant and her three attend- fessional music fraternity, ladies' The Honorary Commandant was Approximately 1700 students atants highlighted festivities at the sponsor of the University Band escorted and presented by Air and a member of University Sing- Force Cadet Lt. Col. James Hewitt, tended the 1955 Military Ball, acchairman of the Military Ball Com- cording to the Air Force ROTC Department.

Drahota. Her escort was Lt.

Dr. A. C. Land, professor of his-

These concerts, presented by the Friends of Chamber Music in Lin-ada, and Marvin Friedman, now doing graduate work at the Unicoln, are now in their eighth conversity. secutive season. Phi Beta Kappa membership re-

The group, which has played together for the last 9 years, in- quirements for first semester sencludes Emanuel Wishnow, profes- lors are a scholastic average sor of violin at the University and above 7.5, registration in the Colmusical director of the ensemble; lege of Arts and Science, and Gladys May, pianist who appears completion of the group require-

The first of the Chamber Music

Concerts by the Fine Arts Ensem-

