Sad Sam's Sports Scratchin's bermuda shorts and baseball...

April brings rain, Bermuda shorts and baseball to the University. Rain produces flowers, Bermuda shorts expose portions of young ladies' legs and baseball—is as welcome as the flowers that add epidermic features.

And according to Clark Gibbs, sage of the University athletic department, "Don Brown, hard hitting third sacker from Omaha, is back once again in his usual first place position on the University of Nebraska baseball chart."

Brown made 29 appearances at bat during the team's southern tour last week and picked up 13 hits for a .448 batting average. Last year he finished the season with a .459 mark.

One addition to the Husker squad that might bear a bit of observation is Al Karle, veteran infielder who played a lot of Legion baseball at Grand Island several years ago. He finished the trip in fourth place in the hitting department with a .278 and plays a pretty mean second base for an old man of 24.

Norm Coufal, who along with Brown was one of the major bat wielders last season, finished the trip with a respectable .333 average. Although the Huskers won only three of the seven contests, their opposition was composed, for the most part, of teams who had been practicing outdoors for some time, a condition which the Scarlet Diamondmen weren't able to duplicate.

cinders in the sun...

Over on the cinder circle, Coach Frank Sevigne is guiding his team through the beginning of the outdoor season with a squad that had a rather disappointing indoor record.

Lyle Nannen, who was one of the sophomore stalwarts on the basketball team this season, is one of the few additions to the winter squad. He will join the hurdling crew.

One disappointing factor to the track fans, if there are any these days, is that all six meets are on the road.

football, grad style...

The addition of the alumni-varsity scramble on the gridiron during All-Sports Day should create a great deal more interest than has been generated in the past two alumni-less contests.

A few of the past ticklers of the turf who will be putting in a post-grad appearance are Veri Scott, rugged center of a few years back; John Bordogna, All Big Seven quarterback; Bob Smith, All Big Seven fullback; Rex Fischer, 1955 standout; Sylvester Harris, another top member of last fall's squad; Don Strasheim, former Cornhusker guard and assistant coach; Ron Clark, standout halfback of two seasons ago, and Charley Toogood, All Conference tackle.

Husker Linkmen Travel To Omaha

After losing two matches and finishing last in the Southwest Tournament at Houston, Tex., the Nebraska golfers hope to get into the win column as they travel to Omaha to meet the Omaha Indians today.

Making the trip for the Huskers will be senior captain, Jack Moore, junior Warren Christenson and sophomore Jerry Moore.

Last night three men entered a play-off, with the two low scores making up the rest of the squad. The three included Nels Jensen, John Butterfield and Herb Mayer.

The two Moores, Mayer, Christenson and Butterfield made the trip through the Southland.

Four lettermen greeted coach Jerry Bush. The fourteen game schedule includes six home affairs.

They are Kansas, Kansas State, Washburn, Iowa State, Iowa University and Omaha University.

Last season, the Huskers finished with a five won-seven lost record. They tied one match. The Nebraska linkmen finished fifth in the conference meet.

All contests are played on the eighteen at Pioneer Golf course.

With Eight Lettermen Back: Cornhusker Thinclads Prepare For Triangular At Oklahoma

As the spring sports schedule moves into full swing, the Nebraska thinclads are making ready for their opener at Norman, Oklahoma.

The Huskers will be part of a triangular with Colorado and the home-standing Sooners the other two participants.

As was the case during the indoor season, the Cornhusker outlook isn't quite as bright as coach Frank Sevigne would like it to be.

Eight men returned to the fold as the Huskers face a six-meet schedule. Included on this agenda is the Kansas and Drake Relays.

The nucleus of the returning veterans are seniors Hugh Osmera, Charles Gibson, Bob Anderson and Merle Brestel.

Three sophomores, Bernie Randolph, Bob Elwood and Don Ficke are vying for top berths. Randolph is a pole-vaulter, Elwood a miler and Ficke a dash man.

The weight events find two lettermen, Leonard Rosen and Ken Reiners.

A junior who could press for top honors is Bob Niemann. The 440-yard dash man was one of the top performers during the indoor season.

Last year the Nebraska cindermen finished a disappointing last in the Big Seven outdoor classic. They finished the 1955 campaign with only one victory, a 67-55 triumph over Minnesota.

Congratulations are in order to the new officers of the W.A.A. and the new members of the council. For you who might not know who these girls are, I shall list their names and their positions.

At the top are Jane Jeffrey, President; Margie Edwards, vice-president; Sarol Wiltse, secretary; Pat Mulligan, Treasurer, and Joan Carroll, intramural co-ordinator.

Members of the council are: Pat Arbutnot, assistant intramural co-ordinator; Cynthia Lonsbrough, Publicity; Joan Heusser, Office manager; Freshman soccer-baseball and table tennis head, Karen Kruger.

Archery and duckpin head, Sally Wilson; Soccer, baseball and golf, Sandy Kadlacek; Tennis singles, tennis doubles, and Nebraska ball, Rae Beerline; Basketball, Billie Prest; Bowling and softball, Jan Dworak; Volleyball and badminton, Carolyn Edwards; Trampoline, Karen Flaherty.

Just before Spring vacation three tournaments were over and new champions come forth again. In these tournaments the winners were: Bowling, Mickey Hook; Table Tennis, Sally Laase; and Basketball, the Kappa Deltas.

Co-recreational volleyball is finally getting to the semi-finals this Thursday night with only a few undefeated teams remaining. The Alpha Xi Deltas and Sigma Chis have not yet been defeated in this double elimination batte.

This week finds three new tournaments getting under way. Softball gets under way with Jan Dworak as the head. If you need to get in contact with her, her number is 5-2961. Heading badminton is Carolyn Edwards and her number is 3-1042. Finally there is tennis singles with Rae Beerline at the head. Her number is 5-2961. Hope to see you all out in the fine sunshine this spring. A banquet was held at the Com-pass Room for the old and new officers and council Wednesday evening.

Intramural Play Set For Spring

The intramural program at Nebraska is now going into full bloom.

Six new events are getting under way. Golf begins April 21 at the Pioneer Golf Course. Players must report between 7:30 p.m. and 8:30 p.m. in the morning.

May 15-17 is the time of the hole-in-one tourney. It will be played on the Men's Intramural Field. Badminton competition kicks-off the 17th of April. The matches will be held on the courts at the PE building.

Horseshoe conests start the 23rd of April. Matches will be based on the best two out of three series. The matches will be played on the east side of the Coliseum.

The spring tennis doubles will be during the spring season. No singles competition will be played.
