

Westminster Choir To Give Performance

Music students are being urged to attend the Westminster Choir Wednesday at 8 p.m., at the Auditorium in Fremont, according to Dale Ganz, professor of music.

The Choir which was organized in 1921, comes from Princeton, New Jersey. It is unique for having sung under the same leadership of one conductor, Dr. John Finley Williamson, longer than any other professional American chorus.

Tickets are on sale and are $1.50 for general admission and $2 for reserved seats. Further information may be obtained from Ganz at the University Music department.
