

Friday Performers

coats, a singing trio picked up by Martin especially for his traveling show. They will appear in Highlighting the Tony Martin the Coliseum at 8 p.m. along show Friday will be the Petti- with Martin, Tex Beneke, the with Martin, Tex Beneke, the Jodimars, Conn and Mann, and Johnny O'Brien.

Insurance

Approved

Program

The Petticoats:

Two Musical Trios Merge

The Petticoats, musical trio to play to college audiences only on be featured on the Tony Martin a special two-week tour. Marilyn Show Friday night at Coliseum, Staska, Union Co-ordinator for the NU Queen: are the result of the merger of show, said that it is "the best variety show on the road this year, two other trios.

After marriage took its toll from and the University is very fortutwo vocal groups, only Bea and nate to get it." Mary House and Margie Hirth are left from the House Sisters and the Hirth Quakes.

They found their present label when they were having a picture taken, the photographer interrupted, saying: "Pardon me girls, but your petticoats are showing." He later became their manager, and suggested the name.

The trio met in Pittsburg, and The group health and accident got their first break on the Arinsurance plan which was apthur Godfrey Show. After a reproved by the Board of Regents cording contract with RKO Tele-Saturday, was worked out in coradio they were hired by Tony operation with the University but Martin for his touring show. The will be handled on an individual Petticoats have also appeared in basis by the insurance company, nightclubs in the East. Business Manager John Selleck

Along with the Petticoats in Fri- said.

day's show will be Conn and Mann, The University will furnish lists a young dancing duo specializing of students to the company, he her is a two-week trip to Las Vein satirical skits; Johnny O'Brien, homespun comedian and harmon-ica musician; Tex Beneke and his Orchestra; The Jodimars, a rock

Sanitation: FHI Offer Food Care .ectures Vol. 30, No. 10

The Food Handlers Institute with the cooperation and endorsement Top Musicians: of the Student Council, Interfraternity Council, Panhellenic Council and the University Health Servium and the Social Science Audihandling food with the fundamentals of proper food sanitation. The meetings will cover the fundamentals of "why" food sanitation is necessary; "what" diseases, infections and poisonings may be caused or transmitted by food utensils or the food itself; and "how" food handlers can help prevent such diseases and outbreaks. Guest speakers will include Tom Gable, University Public Health Engineer and Mr. Charles Day, a member of the university's Public Health staff

According to Gable, the meetings are open to all food handlers, waiters and house mothers as well as others who may be involved in the handling or preparation of food, whether employed by the University, a fraternity, sorority, or cooperative. Food handlers permits must be renewed yearly: therefore those persons who wish to hold a valid permit should attend one of the institute's meet-A special high point in Spivak's career was his award by Downings.

Dallas Hunt Wins Rodeo able music and the Hilltoppers rocking tunes will be a combina-Title At International Show nounced.

ing activities.

Hollywood.

his own band.

ords at the Paramount Theatre in Before organizing his own band,

A trip to Brazil is in store for two University title winners. Shari Lewis, who was chosen American Dairy Princess, and Dallas Hunt, who was named Miss Rodeo America at the International Rodeo Association rodeo in Chicago Tuesday, will be given two-week trips to Brazil, in addition to the other prizes.

Miss Hunt made the grand entry on horseback into the International Amphitheatre Tuesday night, climaxing her 10th queen contest victory.

Among the other prizes awarded

LINCOLN, NEBRASKA

NFRRASKAN

ice and Extension Division is hold-ing meetings throughout this week in the Historical Society Auditortorium. The stated purpose of the meet-ing is to prevent disease and ill-ness by acquainting all personnel Features Spivak Music

Charlie Spivak and his orchestra | beat Magazine as the top along with the Hilltoppers will pro-vide the music for the annual The

The story of the Hilltoppers and Homecoming dance, Nov. 3, John their sudden success began with Nelson, Corn Cobs president, an- their first recording, "Trying." This Dot recording, which was Tickets will be on sale Oct. 17 among the nation's top-ten bestand will sell for $2.75 per couple. selling and most popular discs, The dance will be held at the Col- sold nearly 800,000 records in the first ten weeks it was out. iseum and will climax Homecom-

Among the long list of best sellers by the Hilltoppers are "P.S., Highlights in Spivak's career include the movies "Pin Up Girl" I Love You," "Love Walked In," "From the Vine Came the Grape," and "Follow The Boys". He also "Till Then," and others. boasts a number of box-office rec-

The Hilltoppers made their first recording. "Trying," while they New York, the Hotel Statler in were students at Western Ken-New York and the Palladium in tucky State College. They have made a number of TV appearances including Ed Sullivan's Spivak played with the Dorsey Brothers and Glenn Miller who Toast of the Town, The Perry Como Show, and the Sammy Kaye later encouraged him to organize Show.

> The dance which will start at 8 p.m. will be interrupted by the melodies of the Hilltoppers and according to John Nelson, Corn Cobs president, the combination of Charlie Spivak's very dancetion hard to beat.

The dance, slated Nov. 3, will be profitable as well as entertaining as the price of tickets has gone down from $3.50 to $2.75. The tickets will go on sale Oct. 17, and will be sold in the booth in the Union and by Tassels and Corn Cobs.

This year's Homecoming dance is being given on an entirely new basis as far as Homecoming dances go, according to Gordon Warner, chairman of the Homecoming dance publicity committee. Whereas in the past the Homecoming dances have been strictly s m a 11 name bands and no other form of entertainment, this year's dance will have the top name of Charlie Spivak and the added entertainment of the Hilltoppers.

The only committee thus far re-Gordon Warner, chairman

Wednesday, October 10, 1956

Featured Bandleader

Charlie Spivak and his orchestra-the tops in "sweet" bands, have been slated to play for the Homecoming Dance at the Coliseum Nov. 3. In addition to Spivak's name band, the Hilltoppers have also been hired to provide additional entertainment to help highlight NU's Homecoming activities.

Homecoming: Senate Dismisses Saturday Classes

leased by John Nelson is the Home-coming publicity committee, who Orchestra; The Jodimars, a rock- stressed the fact that the Uniand-roll group formerly with Bill Haley and his Comets, and Mar- dents either individually or as a ley on their circuit later in the tin, the show's sponsor and singing group. star.

Tickets are being sold for the show in the Union Ticket Office of not more than $15 a day and University despite the many perat prices from $1.50 to $3. A special student section of $1 seats has also been organized. Tickets are also being sold downtown at Dietz' Music House, The show has been organized to Audubon Tours: Film Series Scheduled By Museum dents and illnesses incurr home as well as at school.

The University Extension Division and State Museum again this dent Health and other hospitals the basis of personality, appearyear will sponsor presentation of five Audubon Screen Tours.

The illustrated lecture series, made available by the National Audubon Society, will feature natural color motion pictures of wildlife and wilderness scenery Recital Thursday:

gram at Love Memorial Library. Programs scheduled for this year are:

life and countryside of Kentucky; by Walter Schackleton, Louisville, Ky.; Tuesday, Nov. 13.

herst, Va.; Wednesday, Dec. 12.

"Outdoor Almanac," panorama Participating in the first faculty of nature's annual cycle, with recital of the season will be: Prismusical score and sound effects; cilla Parson, instructor for celnarrated by Charles Mohr of lo; Harvey Hinshaw, assistant pro-Greenwich, Conn.; Friday, Jan. 11. fessor of piano; and Lindsey Mer-

"Into the North Woods," trek rill, assistant professor of violin. into a wilderness area of the The public is invited to attend, United States; by Tom and Arlene and there is no admission charge. Hadley, Holly, Mich.; Friday, Miss Parson will play "Suite for Feb. L.

"Western Discovery," exploring by Bach. She has performed with the Pacific Coast from Mexico to the Chicago Civic Orchestra, Kan-Puget Sound; by Laurel Reynolds, sas City Philharmonic, Pittsburgh Piedmont, Calif.; Thursday, Feb. and San Antonia Symphony Or-

Tickets are available from the of the Metz String Quartet and Extension Division Bureau of toured Europe with a plano trio. Audio-Visual Instruction, Room 19, Mr. Hinshaw will play Beethov-Architectural Hall, or the State en's "Sonata in E Flat Major." His Museum, Room 101, Morrill Hall. professional experience includes be-

Dance Lessons To Begin in, Lotte Lehmann, and John The Ag Student Union will begin Charles Thomas and concert piits fall series of dance classes anist with the National School Assemblies. Wednesday from 7 to 8 p.m. The lessons will continue for six consecutive weeks.

These lessons are free to all Phi Chi Thete University students, according to Phi Chi Theta will meet Thurs-Don Herman, Dance Committee day at 4:30 p.m., in room 315 of said. Chairman.

elasses.

versity would not solicit the stuyear. The terms of the policy cover up to $1000 for one illness at a rate Miss Hunt plans to continue at the operating expenses of not more sonal appearances required of her, than $150. It provides accident in- but with a minimum number of surance up to $1000 for hospitaliza- hours. She is a pledge of Kappa tion and other expenses. Optional Kappa Gamma. accidental death insurance at $5000 is available for an additional three times in the Sutherland and charge. The rate will be $14.40 per year for single students, $19 for a student and spouse, and $22.35 for a married student with a family, Selleck said. The insurance would cover students for the full twelve month period not just the school year, he said, and would cover accidents and illnesses incurred at horses and last year won three The hospitalization coverage

Unaccompanied Cello in C Major," chestras. She also was a member would pay expenses both at Stuwhere the student might be taken, ance and horsemanship. For the he explained.

Jean Johnson.

company has been approved by vided for the contest. the Regents to issue the insurance. She explained that they rode

She is also scheduled to appear with Gene Autry and Annie Oak-A freshman in Teachers College, Miss Hunt has been named queen junior rodeos, twice in state and horses from the rodeo string, "just national rodeos, and three years to see if we could ride anything." in the International Rodeo Association district contest in Burwell.

She won the Ak-Sar-Ben six-state regional rodeo honor this year at America contest an opportunity to Omaha. Besides competing in pole bending, barrel racing and break-away roping, she also shows her own first places in horsemanship in the American Royal at Kansas City.

At Chicago, she was judged on first time, she was not riding one The Mutual of Omaha insurance of her own horses, but one pro-from all parts of the continent. There will be a matinee and an evening performance of each prorograms scheduled for this year re: "Rhapsody in Bluegrass," wild-Face 'Artistic' Test The artistic ability of three new | sons, Concerto for and faculty members of the Univers- String Orchestra." He will be as-"Land of the Scarlet Macaw;" ity of Nebraska's music depart- sisted by Walter Carlson, Rosevaried people, flowers and birds of ment will be displayed in concert mary Weeks, Ernest Harrison, and Mexico; by Ernest Edwards, Am- Thursday aat 7:30 p.m. in the Merwinna Kampman, all violinists; Louis Trzcinski and Morris Collier, Student Union Ballroom, both on the viola; Miss Parson and Joan Reist, both cellists; and William Bush, pianist. Mr. Merrill was a member of the Louisville Symphony Orchestra, Charlotte, N.C., Symphony, Greenfield, Mass., Symphony, and Smith College Symphony Orchestras.

Rally To Feature Novak, Samuelson

Tom Novak, former University All-Big Seven center, and Carl Samuelson, former varsity and pro football player, will be guests at this Friday's Pep Rally, accord- lota, Chi Delta Phi, Mortar Board, ing to Don Beck, yell king. The rally, which starts at 6:45 ing an accompanist for Igor Gorin front of Selleck Quadrangle, will feature a skit by Kappa Sigma and Kappa Delta. These two groups were chosen to participate in Friday's rally because of their Mr. Merrill will play "The Seaco-operation with the yell squad and exhibited spiri. in last Saturday's game with Iowa State, Beck do so, according to Beck.

Bill Spilker and Bob Glock.

Theater: Williams Play Opens Thursday "The Purification," an early one-

Courtesy Lincoln Journal

MISS HUNT

give girls who gave horseback riding as their talent in the Mi

old Wise, acting dean of the Gradu-

She has received a grant for study in Chile under the Convention

for the Promotion of Inter-American Cultural Relations, the Latin American counterpart of the Fulbright Act, and a $1000 Pan-American fellowship from the Iowa Fed-

Miss Berry will start her studies at the University of Santiago in March, the beginning of the Chilean academic year. She also plans to work on an original research project, "A Study Modernism in the Literature of Chile as In-

Miss Berry received her Bache lor of Arts degree "with high dis-fluenced by Ruben Dario."

under a Johnson Fellowship,

She gained an interest in Spanish-speaking people after a summer of rey, Mexico, in 1953. The following summer she studied at the University of Mexico in Mexico City.

Student Council

to Chile.

eration of Women's Clubs,

ate College, announced today.

own field.

Awards:

act play by Tennessee Williams. The contest was originated to will be presented on the Laboratory neater stage Thursday and Friday at 8 p.m.

The play is set in the ranchcompete for recognition in theilands of New Mexico about a hundred years ago, and concerns the love of a Spanish youth for his sister, and the tragedy which ensues. The play is different from the usual Williams realistic sketch. Berry Given being written in verse with a strong influence of classical tragedy. Casting in leading roles ar e Larry Cox as the son, Janet Dresh- Book Display Two Chilean er as Luisa, and Larry Carstensen as the judge. Others in the cast are Priscilla Lowe, Ed Weise, Bar-Fellowships bara Millnitz, W. T. Hatch, Prudy

Morrow, Shari Willert, Diane Peters, and Judy Do-Glenna Berry, University gradu-Len Schropfer is directing the ate student, has received two felshow and Bernaru Shaika is the lowships for study and research in production manager. South America next year, Dr. Har-

Admission to Laboratory Thecan Library in Paris, France, and ater productions is free, and they Louis de Cabrol, French Consul stationed at Denver. are held in room 201 of the Temple.

Mortar Board: Selections Explained To Juniors

bers for Mortar Board have been Chaucer by the Kelmscott Press Saturday in the Union Ballroom. explained in a letter to junior and several illuminated manuwomen, Linda Buthman, publicity scripts. chairman of Mortar Board, said.

tinction" from the University in The junior women will be se-August. She has majored in Span-Expect Clear Skies lected on their leadership ability, ish, English and philosophy in the scholarship, and service to the College of Arts and Sciences. This For World Series University. This year the scholarsemester she is taking graduate ship requirement has been raised courses in Spanish and English to 6.3 from last year's 6.2, she said. While in college she was a mem-

Emphasis on requirements for the U.S. weather bureau. ber of Pi Beta Phi, Phi Sigma membership is placed on quality of president of CCRC, Vice-president work rather than quantity, the the high 70's letter stated. of YWCA, Wesley House and on the Leadership qualities sought by day's nosedive. Mortar Board are dependability, General weasincerity, initiative, integrity of ther conditions purpose, creativeness, ability to will be "fair" study at the University of Monterbe led as well as head, and the with some extent and type of influence ex- winds. erted, it explained. Clearskies

"Mortar Board is seeking cam- are predicted Since she has received the tro fellowships, she hopes to travel pus leaders who have achieved a in New York extensively during her stay in well balanced college life and are City for the fithe Union. All women enrolled in Students planning to attend the South America. She is planning on outstanding in the classroom as nal World The Arthur Murray studio has business administration may at. Tony Martin Show will have spending several days in the major well as in their participation in Series game. been engaged to instruct the tend, according to the president, plenty of time after the rally to South American cities on her way campus activities," Miss Buthman Temperatures are expected to or $1 per couple, and are on sale explained.

ate ruled Tuesday afternoon at its Two members were also nominregular session. ated for the Committee on Com-

Although classes have been dismittees. Those nominated were missed for Homecoming the last Mrs. Angeline Anderson, assistant two years, there was consiberable professor of home economics: discussion on the motion, the major Madison Burr, professor of eleobjections coming from depart- mentary education; Charles Kenments which have Saturday labs. nedy, associate professor of eco-Elections were held for new nomics; William Kramer, profesmembers to two faculty commitsor of dental science; A. R. Motees. Those nominated to fill va- Intyre, professor of physiology; Lacancies on the Committee on Aca- Verne Small, professor of phardemic Privilege were David Dow. macy, and Arthur Ward, associate professor of law; Ralph Ireland, professor of vocational education, professor of pedodontics; Galen Saylor, professor of secondary ednot be announced until the next ucation, and Howard Deems, asregular meeting, which has been sociate professor of vocational edscheduled for Nov. 6 instead of ucstion. the regular time because of a room The two elected will replace conflict. Julius Cohen, professor of law, who is on a leave of absence, and Election of a secretary for the Senate was announced. There being no other nomination, James Blackman, associate professor of engineering mechanics, was unanimously re-elected to the office.

The results of the election will Chancellor Clifford Hardin presented to the Senate for a ruling, a request by an instructor to have a class attend a Senate meeting. The ruling was that classes of students should not be given permiscoffee hour Friday for more than sion to attend, but that the Chap-200 University Staff members, accellor might, at his discretion, percording to Bernard Kreiss, assistmit reporters and others conant director of the Humanities nected with the University to attend the regular meeting, unless Special guests at the coffee were the Senate declared an executive Ian Fraser, Director of the Amerisession.

A report was also presented by the committee on insurance and retirement as to the status of faculty insurance and retirement policies.

Hello Girl The special guests were con-Frank Lundy, Director of the Dance Set the "Anne of Brittany" collection. Other rare books on display in- Saturday

The annual Hello Girl Dance, Plans for selection of new memsponsored by the Barb Activities Johnny Jay will provide dance music from 9 p.m. to 12 pm.

During the intermission those attending will be able to vote for this year's "Hello Girl". Identification cards are necessary to vote. The competition for "Helle Girl" Warmer weather, after blasts of has been narrowed down to five cold wind in the 40's and 50's yes- finalists: Ruth Roubal, sophomore terday, are predicted for today by in the College of Agriculture: Barbara Harris, junior in Arts and The mercury is expected to hit Sciences; Deanna Brair, sophomore in the College of Agricult Marilyn Waechter, junior in Teachers College, and Myrns Hunter, also a junior in Teachers College. The campus Hello Girl is chosen annually and represents the typical independent female girl. The judging of the fixedists was based on poise, personality, activities, appearance, and achoiarship. Last year's Hello Girl was El a inc.

> Agriculture. Tickets are 50 cents per person achuchewsky, junior in College of

after yester-

range around the 60 degree mark. now in the Union ticket office.

The coffee hours was highlighted by a display of rare books belonging to the Library, the first such display in ten years. ducted on a tour of the display by Frank Lundy, Director of the they were especially impressed by cluded the Numemberg Chronicle, a fourth folio of Shakespeare, a

Coffee Hour Features Old The Humanities Division held a Library.