

Nov. 17: Innocents Slate Annual Parents Day Festivities

The Innocents Society is sponsoring the annual Parent's Day to be held on the day of the Baylor-Nebraska football game, November 17, according to Arley Waldo, Parent's Day chairman.

All students are asked either to send their remittance for the tickets for their parents or to have their parents send the remittance. Payments may be made through the coupon printed here.

A special block of seats is being reserved so that the parents coming especially to the game may sit together.

On Saturday, the 17th, fraternities, sororities, dormitories and student houses will hold open houses. Members of the Board of Regents are being invited as special guests.

The printed coupon may be sent to the University Athletic Office. Tickets will be sold at the regular price of $3.50. To purchase parent's ticket, clip out the coupon, inclose a check or money order made out to A. J. Lewandowski, and mail to the Athletic Ticket Office, Coliseum, Lincoln. The supply of tickets is limited so send in your order as soon as possible.

By this arrangement either the student or his parents may procure tickets for a chance to see the football game, the University, and the Regents and the Deans.

Letter For Parents

Dear Parents:

The Innocents Society is again sponsoring the annual Parents Day to be held on the day of the Baylor-Nebraska football game, November 17.

All students are being asked to send this letter home to you, as an invitation to come to Lincoln for the game and a chance to visit with your sons and daughters on the campus.

A special block of seats for the football game is being reserved so that parents coming especially for the game can sit together.

On Saturday, the 17th, fraternities, sororities, dorms and student houses will hold open house. Members of the Board of Regents are being invited as special guests.

At the bottom of this letter is a coupon that you may send directly to the University Athletic Ticket office for your football tickets. Tickets will be sold at the regular price of $3.50. All you have to do is clip out the coupon, inclose a check or money order made out to A. J. Lewandowski, and mail to the Athletic Ticket Office, Coliseum, Lincoln. Please send your order soon, as the supply of tickets is limited.

Here is a good chance for you to see your son or daughter, a good football game, the University campus and the Regents and the Deans. I hope you will be able to attend and see the Cornhusker spirit in action.

Sincerely,
Arley Waldo
Parents Day Chairman

NU Beauty: Queen Candidates Spend Hectic Week

The five University coeds who are the Homecoming Queen candidates have spent a hectic week. Each of the girls has a specific responsibility for Homecoming plans since all are members of Tassels, women's pep organization which co-sponsors Homecoming.

Janis Davidson, Junior in Teachers is co-chairman of publicity for the weekend's events. This involves everything from putting up the widow displays in the downtown stores to making posters for distribution on campus.

Donna Sawwell may have writer's cramps by Saturday. The Junior in Arts and Science coed is responsible for all the Homecoming dance invitations, making out door lists and obtaining chaperones.

As Tassels treasurer, Janice Schrader, Junior in Teachers, is co-chairman of ticket sales for the dance. In addition, she is in charge of the decoration the Coliseum stage where the queen will reign.

Flying Club

The University Flying Club will hold a meeting at 8 p.m. Tuesday in Union Room 316. The meeting is open to all interested students as well as members.
