Husker Squad Off To Ames; Face Hot And Cold Cyclones

By BOB WIRZ Staff Sports Writer Coach Jerry Bush and his Nebraska basketball team leave today for Ames, Iowa and their important Big Seven contest against Iowa State...

thus far to defeat Dick Harp's Kansas Jayhawks. Iowa State coach Bill Strannigan has indicated that changes will be made for the Cornhusker tilt in order to bolster the team offense.

needs only 39 more points in the six remaining games to become Nebraska's all time scoring leader. He has racked up a total of 783 points in three years as compared to Jim Buchanan's record of 821.

The much improved Lyle Nannen will again be the other Husker starting guard post. Nannen had one of his better games Monday night against Missouri when he racked up 10 points.

The Huskers return home Monday night to entertain Kansas State.

Forward Chuck Vogt and center Don Medsker have each scored 143 points so far this season. Last year Vogt had 213 and Medsker 232 at this time.

Thompson's running mate at guard Lyle Frahm is the number three Cyclone scorer for this season with 206 markers. Last season Frahm had only 74 all season.

Also expected to see service for Strannigan's crew are 6'7" reserve center John Krocheski and forward Gary Davis.

Bush will probably go with his starting five much of the way. Gary Reimers and Rex Ekwall continue to lead the Huskers in scoring. The 5'10" Millard junior, has 229 points for a 13.4 average in 17 games. Ekwall is close behind with 210 markers. Ekwall

Records Should Fall: Thinclads Gamble Record

Coach Frank Sevigne's cinder crew will play host to the Oklahoma thinclads this Saturday as the Sooners will be trying to accomplish what no other Big Seven Indoor track team has been able to do thus far this season.

The Oklahoma crew will be returning to Lincoln with Jim Denton, Bill Pritchett, Phil Frazier, Gary Parr, Dick Dudley, and George Church who are all returning veterans who scored points in last year's meet.

Jim Denton and Bill Pritchett, who helped the Oklahoma mile relay team to set a new record last year, are the only two record holders returning from either team.

On the Husker side of the picture, we find many of the thinclads capable of setting new records. Among these are Bob Elwood, miler; Keith Gardener, hurdler and sprinter, who will have a race on his hands when he meets Phil Frazier in the high hurdles.

Other strong contenders for posting blue ribbons for the Husker squad are Don Ficke, 440 yard run; Lee Carter, two mile; Ken Pollard, pole vault.

Nebraska's shot put hopes were bolstered when Clarence Cook, Nebraska football end, reported for duty this week. Cook, pushing the weight for the first time this week was heaving the ball 45 feet.

Wrestlers Hit Road:

Matmen, Swimmers, Gymnasts Face Top Foes On Weekend

By STAN WIDMAN Staff Sports Writer This weekend will again be a busy one for the wrestlers, swimmers and the gymnasts. Coach Don Strasheim will send his grapplers against Iowa State Teachers at Cedar Falls Friday.

er and Captain LaRue Johnson, backstroke.

The Husker gymnasts will meet Kansas State on Saturday here in Lincoln. This is the second meeting between the two schools this year. The Cornhuskers won the first meet easily, 93 1/2 to 43 1/2.

The boys will be trying for their second win of the season, the first coming at the expense of South Dakota State here in Lincoln last week. Strasheim's hopes will be in the hands of Don Brand, heavyweight who has shown much improvement in his last two matches, Ken McKee 130 pounds, who pinned his man last week and drew against Minnesota, and Gil Neilson 123 pounds, who has scored consistently all year.

Others making the trip will be Jack Bryans, 177 pounds, John Anderson 167 pounds, Norm Cooper, 157 pounds, and Gail Baum, 137 pounds.

On Saturday, the Husker tankmen will meet Minnesota in the Coliseum pool. Coach Hollie Lepley will base his hopes on the improved swimming of Carl Bodenstener Bill North, Fritz Helmsdorfer, Jerry Farrell and the last season form diving of Gene Cotter, winner of the last five meets.

Coach Neil Thorpe of Minnesota will rely mainly on returning letter winners Gerald Fladeland, breaststroke, Richard Hansel, div-

Husker Frosh To Race; Mullins Lauded In 660

Joe Mullins, Mike Fleming, Ken Ash, Bill Melody and Rick McVickers will run a Special 660 yards race as an added attraction to the Oklahoma-Nebraska track meet.

Six weeks ago in a workout, Mullins sped the distance in 1:23. With six weeks more work under their belt, Sevigne feels the boys will be much sharper.
