

Naviaux Scores Twice:

Husker Varsity Down Alums 22-20 In All-Sports Day Feature Contest

By BOB MARTEL
Sports Editor

A blocked punt by Ray Engel in the fourth period set up the winning touchdown as the Varsity downed the Alumni 22-20 in Saturday's All-Sports Day contest.

Engel halted a punt attempt by Gerry Ferguson and recovered the pigskin on the Alumni 18 yard line. Carroll Zaruba went over from the five for the winning score.

The varsity had to fight back from a 20-9 deficit in the first half. The attack was paced by Zaruba, Larry Naviaux, George Harshman, Mike Lee and Marlin Hilding.

The varsity drew first blood when Naviaux scored from a yard out with less than six minutes gone in the initial frame. Harshman highlighted the 80 yard drive with a 39 yard pass to Hilding and a 12 yard strike to set up the score. Harshman converted and the regulars led 7-0.

The grads then exploded. Ferguson put on a terrific exhibition of broken field running as he tipped 21 yards down to the varsity 35 yard line. Bob Smith, former Cleveland and Philadelphia pro gridder, tore through the right side of the line and powered his way down to the nine where he fumbled. Dennis Korinek picked up the loose pigskin and rambled the remaining distance for the initial Alum score. Sam Vacanti's point after touchdown attempt was no good and the varsity held a slim 7-6 lead, but not for long.

Shortly after the kickoff, Bill Schbacker of the Alums pounced on a Jim Hergenrater fumble to give the grads possession on the Varsity 26 yard line. Smith powered his way into the end zone to give his squad their second score. Vacanti added the extra point and the "old timers" led 13-7.

The Varsity, under Harshman's direction, countered with a 65 yard march that was halted on the nine. The grads took over and drew a roughing penalty down to the 1/2 yard line. On the first play Art Klein dropped Gordie Englert in the end zone for a safety. The Alums still held a slight 13-9 advantage.

Football Returns

One Day Stand . . . Football returned to the University of Nebraska campus for a short one day stand. The annual Alumni-Varsity game was played before Stinnett fumbled on the Alumni 48. Again Schbacker recovered and the grads were in business again. Ferguson and Syl Harris teamed to put the ball on the Varsity 13 yard line. On fourth down, Ferguson bolted over the Vcanti added the point. The first half ended with the Alums leading 20-9.

Halfway through the third quarter, the Varsity moved the ball to the Alumni five yard and received help from the grads in scoring their second touchdown. Harshman's pass was deflected by a grad, but landed right in Naviaux's hands and the Lexington sophomore fell over the goal line for the tally. Harshman added the point and the score stood 20-16.

In the fourth period, Engel blocked Ferguson's punt and set up a Zaruba tally to end the afternoon's scoring. The Alumni put on a last ditch drive. With Vacanti in the quarterback slot they utilized the forward pass to move up to the 32 yard line. In a last effort to try to pull the game out, Vcanti attempted a field goal. The ball looked as though it was going to split the goal posts, but at the last moment veered to the left and the Varsity had had its revenge.

All in all it was a well played ball game. Bill Schbacker, Tom Novak, Ralph Damkroger, Rex Fisher, Ferguson, Smith, Dennis Emanuel and Moon Mullen played heads up ball for the grads.

Naviaux, Zaruba, Engel, Hilding and Harshman were the stars for the "Big Red."

Tracksters Maul Colorado A&M Gain 1051/3 To 25 2/3 Saturday

By STAN WIDMAN
Staff Sports Writer

The Husker track squad completely dominated the Tracy meet, winning 13 of 15 events to run up the score to 105 1/3 to 25 2/3 over Colorado A&M in the Memorial Stadium. This was the first outside track meet of the year except for field events which were run indoors.

The meet produced twelve different winners with Knolly Barnes, Keith Gardner, and Don House sharing part of a second win in a winning effort in the mile relay. Bob Niemann was the fourth man on the relay team which sped the distance in 3:26.6. Gardner did a 48.5 quarter mile in the relay.

Due to the wetness of the track, times weren't up to par but the Huskers showed their finest form of the year.

Gardner scored his victory in the 120 yard high hurdles. His time was :15.1 in the only event he entered in the meet. A clean sweep was scored in that event with Bill Marten and Bill Hawkins coming in second and third respectively.

Barnes notched a victory in the 880 yard run for his other win. His time of 1:59.3 was excellent considering the condition of the track.

Don House won the 400 yard dash in :52.2. He was followed closely by teammate Don Flicke in one of the most exciting races of the afternoon.

The distance events saw Bob Elwood continue his fine running. He won the mile in 4:28.9 and came in second to teammate Lee Carter in the two-mile. Carter and Elwood were never more than one step away from each other during the entire distance. Elwood led for three laps before Carter forged ahead to say, This is the first time Carter has beaten Elwood in the distance.

Don Phillips and Dick Jahr staged a running duel with each coming out on top in one of the two races. Phillips won the 100 yard dash beating Jahr by the width of the string and Jahr came right back to nudge Phillips in the 220 yard dash. Times for the events were :10.0 and :22.5 in that order.

Don Flicke made it a clean sweep in the 220 by taking the third. Marten showed fine form and Bill speed in taking the first place ribbon. Hawkins and Chuck Wollaston completed the sweep in the event taking second and third.

In the two field events held outside, the Huskers scored one-two-three in the javelin and took a second in the discus. Dean Brittenham won the javelin with a heave of 196 feet, 9 1/4 inches. Bill LaFleur and Frank Nappi took the other two places. The discus event saw Alan Rosen beginning to round into form as he came in second with a toss of 135 feet 2 inches. Dubois of Colorado A&M won the event.

The four events held indoors gave the Huskers three additional victories. Ken Pollard won the pole vault soaring 13 feet 1 inch off the ground. Husker Don Blank finished in a tie for second and third with Rice of A&M at 12 feet.

Chuck Wollaston, Hawkins and Phillips proved to be the best broad jumpers in the stadium as they swept the event. Wollaston leaped 22 feet 1 inch for first while Hawkins traveled 22 feet 1/4 inch and Phillips 21 feet 4 1/2 inches. Dale Knotek got 6 feet 4 inches off the ground to win the high jump. Teammate Bob Lemmel finished in a three way tie for second with Levitt and Gillian of Colorado.

Although the Huskers failed to win in the shotput, they still had the second and third place finishers in Clarence Cook and Max Kitzelman, both of whom suited up for the Varsity-Alumni football game. Next week, the cindermen travel to Oklahoma for a quadrangular meet with Oklahoma, Arkansas and Colorado.

Cubs Picked For Cellar; Not Much Hope In '57

By BOB WIRZ
Staff Sports Writer

When Bob Scheffing took over as manager of the Chicago Cubs he inherited quite a job. Last year the Cubs finished in the National League cellar, 33 games behind the champion Brooklyn Dodgers. It looks like this season could be even worse.

The hopes depend mostly on such men as Ernie Banks, Gene Baker, and pitcher Bob Rush.

Rush is the veteran of the Cub pitching staff. In his tenth year of the 31-year-old veteran of the Cub righthander would like to have another winning year. Rush had a 13-10 mark last season which is good considering the help he had.

Behind Rush will be Tom Poholsky, Turk Lown and Don Kaiser. Poholsky came from St. Louis in the winter. He was the Cards tough luck hurler last season. Lown had a 9-8 mark with the Cubs and Kaiser was 4-9 but did a better job of hurling than the record shows. Jim Broxnan, Gene Fodge, Dave Hillman, Elmer Singleton or More Drabowsky could move in as a starting hurler. The latter is a bonus baby who looked good last season. The other hurlers also have little or no major league experience.

The catching staff has been bolstered with the addition of Charlie Silvera. The 32-year-old receiver has been looking good this spring after nine years on the Yankee bench. Silvera has a lifetime batting mark of .291 but it is hard to say whether the long time on the bench will keep him from doing a good job.

Silvera will have help from Cal Neeman, Ray Katt, and Jim Fanning. Neeman was second string catcher with a strong Denver club last year. Katt spent his time with St. Louis and Fanning alternated between Los Angeles and Tulsa.

The Cub infield also will see changes from last year. Dee Fondy the '56 first baseman is being challenged for his job by Walt Moryn. The ex-Brooklynite, Moryn is attempting to make a change from the outfield.

A rookie, Casey Wise, is attempting to move in at second with last's regular at this position moving to third. Wise hit .287 last year with Los Angeles. Baker was at second last season but he will move to third if Wise can make the grade. Ernie Banks remains at shortstop unless his arm causes too much trouble. Banks hit .297 last season while knocking in 85 runs.

Ray Jablonski, Jerry Kindall, Ed Winceniak, and Joe Macko are the other infield candidates.

Bob Speake, Jim Bolger, and Jim King may become the regular outfield from left field to right in order. King is in his third year in the majors and the other two men are rookies.

In any case, it looks like another cellar season for Scheffing and his crew.

Mermen Give All Sports Exhibition

Coach Hollie Lepley's Husker tankmen did their part Saturday to entertain the All Sports day crowd as they swam, dove, and clowned their way through their allotted time on the agenda to please the entire swimming audience in the coliseum pool.

The squad presented a hilarious show as the whole swimming team engaged in his specialty as they highlighted the show with laughs in abundance.

Some of the members of the tank crew participating were Charlie Arizumi, Bill Baker, Don Benson, Carl Bodenstener, Jerry Brown, Pat Drake, Dick Fair, Sam Haupt, and Fritz Helmsdoerfer. Others taking part in the action were John Holsman, Jim Pokorney, Ron Renfor, Bill Tagney, Gene Cotter, and Doug Thorpe.

Netters Romp Over Creighton; Completely Outclass Bluejays

By BOB WIRZ
Staff Sports Writer

The Nebraska Tennis squad opened their 1957 campaign in brilliant fashion on All-Sports Day. The netters win a 9-0 decision over an inexperienced Creighton University squad.

Nebraska won all but 7 of the 115 games played. George Fisk and Bill North started the rout, played inside the Coliseum, as they disposed of their opponents in less than thirty minutes.

Art Weaver and Charles Kress then took over and the Bluejays fared no better.

Charles McAfee and Tom Stitt finished out the singles play by disposing of their opponents almost as quickly. Stitt, the only senior on the squad, had a little rougher time of it. Yet, he defeated Mike Weaver 6-2, 6-3.

The Blujay team have only one indoor court to practice on so their number of workouts has been very limited. The return match in Omaha on May 7 could be a much tougher test for Ed Higgenbotham's crew.

The next tennis match is scheduled for Thursday against Omaha on the Husker courts.

RESULTS

Singles

George Fisk over George Thompson, 6-0, 6-1.

Bill North over Jim Barclift, 6-0, 6-0.

Art Weaver over Frank Bemis, 6-0, 6-1.

Charles Kress over Ron Hake, 6-0, 6-0.

Tom Stitt over Mike Weaver, 6-2, 6-3.

Charles McAfee over Bill Quink, 6-0, 6-0.

Doubles

Fisk-North over Thompson-Bemis, 6-0, 6-0.

Weaver-Kress over Barclift-Weaver, 6-0, 6-0.

McAfee-Jack Clark over Hake-

Quink, 6-0, 6-0.

An exhibition by Jake Geier's Gymnastics squad rounded out the seventh annual All-Sports Day. A nice crowd watched the team go through some weird antics plus displaying some of the form that won several meets during the past season.

A tumbling exhibition opened the afternoon's action with all hands taking part. All twelve team members took part in the tumbling.

After this, the parallel bars were set up and three of last season's standouts went through some of their regular work. Wayne Strickler displayed the form that won him the honor of being one of the country's top athletes in this sport. Also performing on the parallel bars were Bob McDonald and Ervin Kriest.

Chuck Ellis and Strickler also put on a very interesting exhibition on their free exercise routine. Tumbling by Larry Brown, Strickler and Kenny Kohler ended the exciting program.

Navy Releases Plans For Two Middle Cruises

The Navy Department today announced plans for the Naval ROTC Midshipmen Training Cruises to take place this summer.

Midshipmen from the Naval ROTC Unit at the University of Nebraska will participate in one of two cruises. Regular Naval ROTC midshipmen, freshmen and juniors at the University, will participate in Cruise Bravo. Commencing on June 10, 1957, in Norfolk, Virginia, this group will embark aboard the battleship USS Wisconsin, two cruisers, the USS Boston and the USS Albany, and eight destroyers.

Other stops will be made in Cristobal and Balboa in the Canal Zone, Guantanamo in Cuba, and Roosevelt Roads in Puerto Rico. Cruise Bravo ends in Norfolk, Virginia, on August 5. Another interesting highlight of this cruise will be the participation in the Jamestown Festival International Naval Review with 80 ships from 27 foreign nations.

The Contract Naval ROTC students, juniors in the university, will participate in Cruise Charlie. These men will go aboard their assigned ships on July 8 at Norfolk, Virginia. This group of ships includes the cruiser USS Des Moines and 12 destroyers and destroyer escorts. Liberty ports to be visited include Quebec, Canada and Boston, Massachusetts. This cruise ends in Norfolk on August 7.

These annual training cruises, in which midshipmen from the Naval Academy and 52 NROTC colleges are designed to give midshipmen an opportunity to learn, first hand, the jobs they are training for in their future careers as naval officers.

Georgi Named Charter Fellow

Dr. Carl Georgi, professor and chairman of the University's department of bacteriology, has been selected as a charter fellow in The American Academy of Microbiology, Dr. G. I. Wallace, of Urbana, Ill., executive secretary of the society announced Thursday.

The Academy, with members throughout the U.S. and Canada, reserves its charter fellowships for a small group of scientists who have distinguished themselves in the field. The society's program includes the upgrading of professional and accreditation standards.
